Virginia airman on U.S. bobsled team

WIESBADEN, Germany (Special)—Airman First Class Threon R. Sutton, 23, of Hampton, Va., has been named brakeman on a United States Air Forces in Europe (USAFE) two-man bobsled team. He is the first tan member of a U.S. bobsled aggregation.

Sutton's sled, piloted by Captain Hilleary Moore, 29, Western Spring, Ill., placed fourth in the Palace Cup race, first major bobsled race this season at St. Moritz, Switzerland with an aggregate time of 2:36.08 on the nine-mile run.

Trial runs on the St. Moritz bob run qualified Sutton for the brakeman's position. With Radu Kapus, world champion bobsled driver, a trial run record was broken with a time of 1:23.

Sutton graduated from Hayden High School in 1949 and attended North Carolina College, graduating there in 1953 with a bachelor of science degree. He enlisted in the United States Air Force in March, 1954. He is presently an intelligence specialist at Headquarters USAFE, in Wiesbaden, Germany.

The USAFE team will participate in 16 major cup races at famed St. Moritz.

Sutton's mother, Mrs. Georgia R. Sutton, resides at 16 E. Walker Road, Hampton, Virginia.

Overcrowded house called 'dangerous'

The husband of Mrs. Almena Lucky, 156 W. Cross St., was permitted to answer for his wife in Homing Court Tuesday to charges that Mrs. Lucky failed to correct an overcrowded condition at the Cross street residence.

Housing Court Magistrate Marshall A. Levin heard the case in which Harry A. Gail, representing the Health Commissioner's office, called the house in question "dangerous and detrimental to life and health."

The commission had instructed Mrs. Lucky on Dec. 19, 1956 either to vacate the property or reduce the size of the family to conform with health department regulations.

The Cross street residence is composed of four rooms in which Mr. and Mrs. Lucky and their seven children live, Mr. Gail said.

Magistrate Levin postponed further hearing in the case until Feb. 26, and asked the health commissioner's office to assist the family in finding low-cost public housing in the meantime.

ALSO IN the same court, Magistrate Levin found two women guilty of unlawfully failing to obtain a regulation recreation permit.

Found guilty were Mrs. Mary Williams, 917 N. Durham St., and Mrs. Maxine Kindall of 1812 N. Durham St.

They were fined $5 plus cost, and $1 plus cost, respectively.

Warrants had been issued for both women after they failed to appear in court on previous summons.

Mrs. Williams had voluntarily come to the Pine St. Station after the warrant was issued. She was released after posting bond of $11.70.

Mrs. Kindall, 22-year-old mother of two children, was released from Pine Street Station after her mother-in-law posted her bond of $11.70.

The usual bond of $11.70 was waived by the court citing "to keep her from staying all night."

Assaults baby sitter who asks for her pay

"He assaulted the baby sitter during a dispute over the prompt payment of the amount of five dollars."

Edward Borgerding, assistant State's attorney, was outlining the case against William Thompson, 32, 1100 block E. Preston St., on trial for assaulting Mrs. Bertha Taylor, 38, who resides at the Preston St., address.

Judge John Tucker found Mr. Thompson guilty and sentenced him to 18 months in the House of Correction.

Mrs. Taylor, accused of assault and stabbing Mr. Thompson, was released when the State declined to press the charge. She regularly baby sat for the defendant.

"She got 31 stitches in her head and a broken (left) hand," said Mr. Borgerding in describing the Dec. 3 altercation in which Mr. Thompson was stabbed in the arm.

The prosecutor told the court that a quarrel ensued when Mrs. Taylor requested her pay for sitting for him. During the dispute, Mr. Borgerding said, Mr. Thompson struck the woman six times with a hammer.

41 points!

SPOKANE, Wash. — Elgin Baylor, former Washington, D.C., high school star, tallied 41 points to lead Seattle University to a 88-67 triumph over Gonzaga here Sunday.

The Duke center, despite Baylor's spectacular contribution, were hard put to gain the victory. It came on a shot by Bill Strickland in the last 11 seconds of play.

Joe Durham, khaki shedded, inks '57 Orioles contract

Joe V. Durham, fleet-footed young outfielder who will be rejoining the Orioles after two years in the army, returned his signed 1957 contract to the offices of the Baltimore Orioles this week.

At 5-11 and the 24-year-old Durham less than two years to climb through the minor leagues to the Orioles.

Signed prior to the start of the 1953 campaign, the Newport News, Va., native was assigned to the Class B York, Pa., Orioles of the Piedmont League and hit .308 there in 129 games. The following year, Durham was promoted to the San Antonio club of the AA Texas League. He responded with a .318 mark in 161 games. As a 21-year-old rookie, he hit 14 home-runs, the same number he had the previous year, and drove home 108 runs.

At the close of the Texas League 1954 season, Durham was called up to Baltimore. With the Orioles that year he collected nine hits in 10 games, one of them a home run.

Durham entered the army the following October and was released last fall just prior to the start of the winter baseball season. He joined the San Juan team of the Puerto Rican League and after getting off to a bad start, is now hitting over .300 in the loop.

Willie Edwards murder trial set for Monday

The murder trial of Willie Edwards, 30, 500 block Bloom St., is scheduled to be heard before Judge John Tucker Monday.

Mr. Edwards is charged with the Nov. 4 fatal shooting of his estranged wife's boyfriend, Kenneth Smith, 25, after forcing his way into the victim's apartment at 1433 Pennsylvania Ave.

Alvin Sellman, defense attorney, has indicated that he will ask for a jury trial for his client.

THE STAR State's witness is expected to be the defendant's wife, Mrs. Katherine Edwards, 21, 300 block E. 20th St., who plunged from a third floor window onto the marquee of the Carver Theatre at the time of the shooting.

At a homicide hearing in November the defense attorney advised Mrs. Edwards of her constitutional right not to testify against her husband.

However, she ignored the advise and accused her husband of the fatal shooting.

"My husband walked right in and shot three times," she said at the hearing. "I saw him when he shot him".

According to Sgt. Andrew John, Northwestern District, Mr. Edwards gave a statement to police concerning the fatality.

Victim of the shooting was the father of 9-year-old Gregory Smith, who lost his mother in a fire that swept their home at 551 Laurens St. on Aug. 25.

The orphaned lad lives with his grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Peterson, 1754 Patterson Park Ave.

'This is the first time I won money . . .'

"I have so much I could do with it . . . it'll help pay my bills," smiled 30-year-old A. L. Tilman, 343 Dolphin St. Wednesday, when he collected his $5 as the AFRO Lucky Picture winner for January 22.

Mr. Tilman was photographed leaving the funeral of the late Johnnie Pratt. Married and the father of five children, Mr. Tillman is manager of a local tavern.

"I'VE BEEN in the AFRO a lot of times, but this is the first time, I ever won any money," Mr. Tillman chuckled.

In each edition of the AFRO, there is a circled picture. In order to be the Lucky Picture winner, the person whose picture is encircled must come to the AFRO City Desk before noon of the next publication date.

In Memoriam 1

JOHNSON—In loving memory of our dear son, WILLIAM H. JOHNSON, who passed away one year ago, today, January 26, 1956

Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died.
We think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
God grant you your heavenly rest.

LOVING MOTHER,
SIDERIA AND NIECES

MITCHELL — In loving memory of our dear husband, ISAAC, who passed away January 27, 1947.

No one knows the silent heartaches
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that's borne in silence
For the one I loved so well.
More and more each day I miss him
Friends may think the world is
But they little know the sorrow
Lies within my heart concealed.

Loving Mother,
GERTRUDE BLACKWELL

NORTHERN — In loving memory of my dear wife and our beloved mother, EMMA, who passed away January 26, 1956.

Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dearly loved by all.
The shock and grief was hard to bear,
God has you in His loving care
For all of us you did your best,
God grant you eternal rest.

LOVING—HUSBAND AND FAMILY.

ROLLINS — In loving memory of LILLIAN PARKER ROLLINS, who passed suddenly, January 26, 1955.

Your smiling face is gone from view
But your memory will be
Dearest to us always.

HUSBAND, CHILDREN
MOTHER AND BROTHER.

WHITE — A tribute of love to our dear husband and father, ROYD H. who passed away January 26, 1956.

Your memory is a keepsake
With which we will part
Though God has you in His keeping
We still have you in our hearts.

Loving Wife,
RUTH
And Daughter,
VELMA.

WILSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, SYLVIA J. WILSON who departed this life January 19, 1955.

Though God has you in His keeping,
I still have you in my heart.

Devoted Daughter
MAGGIE W. PATTON.
