STROLLING the AVENUE

After a three years absence from the city our operatives tells us, Pee Wee Wooden is scheduled to open at CLUB 511, which should make the music fans mighty happy.

From up at the RED FOX comes the news that Ethel Ennis' newest record ("Pair of Fools") has been released and is stirring up a lot of wonderful talk. On the waxing Ethel has the backing of a full orchestra and the sound engineers have also dubbed in her voice several times for a novel effect that suits Ethel to a T.

Already established with the juke box trade via her recording of "Off Shore" and that great album she did, Ethel has another hot item going for her in this latest offering.

To see the young lady in the real live flesh all you have to do is visit the RED FOX at Pennsylvania and Fulton, where you are bound to have a marvelous time.

THE MODERN sounds of Henry Baker and his quartet are coming from the CLUB ASTORIA, 1309 Edmondson Ave., the spot that rightfully bills itself as a night club that offers drinks at bar prices.

With Baker are Owen Pinkney on the drums, Sam Daily on the piano, and Jeff Jefferson taking care of the bass. The group moves and you'll enjoy their music.

Pinky Owens and his group, with Miss Shirley Fields as vocalist are the attractions at CLUB PAREE, 2714 Pennsylvania Ave.

Next time you are looking for a place to hold a cocktail party, remember the CLUB PAREE. The club has been newly redecorated and serves food in addition to some top notch drinks.

Big John Johnson is the man in the limelight at CHICK'S LOUNGE, Baltimore and Greene St., where his antics and music make the customers very happy.

CORNELL MULDROW and Tommy Mosley continue to make things hum at the CLUB CASINO and ditto for Pete "Crazy Horse" Martin and his Ponies at the LAS VEGAS, 128 N. Warwick Ave.

Eddie (Lockjaw) Davis is providing music of note at the CLUB TIJUANA and Miss Mildred Anderson, and her marvelous voice, are taking care of the vocals.

The Zane Cypress quartett with Ben Washington as the vocalist is the attraction at the CARNIVAL LOUNGE, 1345 Poplar Grove St.; Jerry Nelson is at JONES' COCKTAIL LOUNGE, 1724 W. Lanvale St., and the SPOT has Dottie Stearns and her organ. That's it. Have fun.

Hot shirts land factory employees in trouble

"We opened the trunk of his car and the shirts tumbled out."

In Southwestern Police Court Tuesday, that's what Sgt. Raymond Suter had to say about the arrest of two men who were charged with larceny of 91 shirts from a factory where they were employed.

Charged with taking the shirts from the Aetna Shirt Co., in the 100 block S. Paca St., were: James H. Crowe, 20, of the 1300 block W. Baltimore St., and Arthur Collins, 23, of the 2900 block Winchester St.

BAIL FOR Collins and his blond companion Crowe was set at $1,500 each by Magistrate Howard L. Aaron.

Police testified that Mr. Collins implicated Crowe in the thefts when they stopped his car at Mulberry St., and Fremont Ave., Friday and found 22 sport shirts in the trunk.

The officers said 45 more shirts were found in Collins home.

Mrs. Hamilton ill, condition is good

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Julia West Hamilton, president of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, was admitted to Freedmen's Hospital, Saturday. She was described as "doing nicely" by a hospital spokesman, Wednesday.

Her private physician, Dr. Riley Thomas, stated that Mrs. Hamilton is an elective surgery patient—that is, her condition may be improved by an operation, but it is not compulsory.

MRS. HAMILTON is chairman of the trustee board of Metropolitan AME Church, where she has been a member for 73 years. Active in civic work, she is among the founders of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, of which she has been president for more than 25 years.

She is mother of three children, Mrs. Josephine H. Pettie, retired teacher; Col. West A. Hamilton, a member of the District Board of Education and Percival Y. Hamilton, printer. She has three grandchildren and four great - grandchildren.

Annapolis club slates Emancipation program

The Gay-Bonnet Civic Club of Annapolis will celebrate the 94th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation Sunday at 3 p.m. in the House of Delegates Chamber of the State Capitol.

Dr. Harrison J. Bryant, pastor of Bethel AME Church in Baltimore, will be the guest speaker. Other program participants will be:

Arthur T. Ellington, mayor; John M. Whitmore, delegate; T. Norwood Brown, Alderman; Mrs. Lula Hardesty, president.

NAACP and Francis Digges — Officers of the sponsoring organization are: Mrs. Martine M. Brandt, president; Roland Colbert, secretary. Music will be furnished by the choir of Bowie State Teachers College.

'Late hours' cause of separation

"We had arguments because she was keeping late hours, and she left."

This testimony by Charles Cooper of 195 N. Bruce St., won him a divorce from Mrs. Josephine Cooper of Orange, N. J., on grounds of desertion. He said that they were married on December 17, 1937, and the separation took place on June 20, 1939.

MRS. BERTHA JONES, 2128 Division St. testified that James Jones, 1348 Fremont Ave., deserted in 1947, for three years after their marriage.

"He left me," she told a Master of the Court. "He said he wanted a home, not a room."

• • •

A DIVORCE went to Eugene Dickerson of Rehoboth, Del., from Mrs. Prudence Dickerson of 1621 Braddish Ave. on similar charges.

The husband said that Mrs. Dickerson left him in January, 1952 after their marriage in August, 1945.

Elijah Harris, 1461 N. Parrish St., who said that Mrs. Teola Harris "just packed her clothes and left," won a divorce. The couple, married in 1951, separated in 1954.

• • •

OTHER DIVORCES granted included those to:

Mrs. Mary Monson of Bridgeport, Conn. from Pleasant Monson of Pasadena, Md., who also said he left her three months after their marriage in 1943.

Mrs. Mattie Eagle of 296 Spring Court, who testified that she and Joseph Eagle voluntarily ended their marriage in 1953 after living together six years.

Mrs. Doris L. Herring, who the night to use her maiden name, Nairne, when divorced from Wafe Herring on grounds of desertion.

And Mrs. Elizabeth Walker of 931 Somerset St. from Johnnie Walker, who said her marriage in 1950 ended in 1954 when he deserted her.
