Dr. Regina Goff scheduled by Morgan College Wives Club

With Lula Jones Garrett

Dr. Regina Goff, professor of education at Morgan State College who has returned this year from an 18-month assignment as a special educational consultant in Iran, will speak informally to the Morgan State College Trustee-Wives Club at a social meeting Saturday, 7 p.m., in the Harper House Faculty Lounge.

All women members of the faculty have been invited as guests to the meeting which will feature novelty bridge and scrabble. Mrs. Nick A. Ford is president of the club and Mrs. Richard L. McKinney is chairman of the Saturday social.

POTPOURRI — The William Russells move, this week, into their beautiful new split-level at Longwood and Carlisle, and their N. Calhoun St. home will, after Saturday, be occupied by that delightful young interracial family, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Baron.

And speaking of moving, Iona and Puddin Collins will be with her mother, Mrs. T. Henry Waters, for the month, until their new home is completed...about April.

Juanita (Mrs. Clarence) Mitchell said, this week that the item in Tuesday's column that she and Mr. Mitchell expected a family addition is entirely erroneous...that she'd be delighted if it had been true! Iona, I would have bet on my news source, who is usually correct. But this time the lad was a stray...and I apologize.

The Northwest Child Study group was entertained by Mesdames Mariam Myers and Anita Myers, this week, when they completed plans for a splash party for their pre-teens.

The girls are also planning a Valentine Party for their husbands on Feb. 15.

At the session they had a newsy letter from Vena Skinner, telling them of Paris, where she now is; and saw films on "Social Development" at various care groups, shown by Alice Payne.

THE MORGAN COLLEGE chapter of the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority entertained at a party in the Christian Center, Wednesday evening.

Among the features of the party was the presentation of an original play "Act a Sermon" written and directed by Mary West Jones. The characters were portrayed by Louella Wylie, Carolyn McPherson, Shirlena Lofton, Barbara Ann Smith and Felicia Rogers. In charge of the party were Yvonne Allen and Loretta Coley of Morgan State.

Students who attended the party were:

Nancy Seales, Thelma McDaniels, Eaurlean Adams, Emma Waters, Daisy Clanton, June Hughes, Barbara Dadds, Doris Wallace;

Gloria Padgett, Helen Lynch, Sondra Moore, Brenda Henry, Sarah Cooke, Hazel Cane, Catherine Merritt, Doris Williams, Joan Foster, Sylvia Waters, Louella Ballard, Essie Blackmon, Barbara Moore, E. Frederika Patterson, Greta Edwards, Patricia Sellers, and Gloria Roberts.

Also attending were Mesdames Mary W. Jones, Emile Craile and Rose T. Kenney of the Baltimore city chapter.

MARIE PHILLIPS marked her eighth birthday on Sunday by inviting the following seven and eight-year-old girls to dinner at the Bentalou St. home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips:

Yvonne Wattles, Yvonne and Betty-Jo Matthews, Marilyn Dobyns, Joyce Williams, Vashti Smith, Toni Wood, Yvonne Lansey, Pamela Young, Carol Oswell, Patricia Hayes, Philletha Hall, Bonnie Randolph;

Alice Sue Lighston, Yvonne Young and Stephanie Wooldridge. Also present were her godmother, Mrs. Louis E. Harmon; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. James Dunkins, and Mrs. Mahlon Oswell.

Game prizes during the party were won by Sue Lighston, Bettye Matthews and Bonnie Randolph.

THE CARDIGANS held their meeting a Friday ago at the home of Margaret Pck.

The girls were busy completing plans for their annual cocktail ship which will be held at the New Garrison Lounge. There will be entertainment, prizes, and fun galore.

Proceeds will aid the Colored Blind Association. Date will be Sunday, February 17, 5 to 9 p.m.

After a lively business session, the members dined, wined, played games.

About enjoying the fun were: Ruth H. Lee, Willie Cade, Bernie S. White, Gloria Sims, Vera B. Fry, Jimmie Clay, Mary Williams, Gloria Fisher.

Vera Taylor, Beulah Westcott, Bernice Hall, Elizabeth Butler. Absent members were—Mary Stanley and Ruth Tomlins.

THE HILTON CHISLEYS (he's the Dr. Jekyll of florist) brought the most magnificent arrangement of flowers to Theodore and Charlotte Johnson when they celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Along with the Chislays from the Nation's Capital came Dr. Harold Fisher, Mrs. Helen Pierson, Mrs. Anna M. Johnson; Mrs. Gladys Mathews and Capt. Charles Chisley.

Ada and Warren Weaver, Beatrice and Randolph Tucker, Wilhelmina Cooper, Estelena and Richard Showes and Doris Woolford of this town were others who dropped in, informally, to congratulate the Johnsons.

'TWAS A DOUBLE"celebration that enhanced the first year's anniversary of the Martiniques on Saturday night ago.

The group celebrated the birthdays of Serena Forehand and Beatrice Smith . . . having cards aside for an elaborate luncheon and the showering of gifts on the honorees.

At the party were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Lincoln Dadd, Lloyd Flats, Clyde Bryant, William Robinson, Joseph Robinson, Fitz Woodland, Asia Perry, Lloyd Forehand;

Mesdames Myrtle Thompson, Dorothy Lee Davis, Mamie Ratcliff, Victorine Adams, Justine Chandler; Janet Green, Della Cunningham, Sarah Johnson, Rose Simpson; Mary McPherson, Bernice Hutchins;

Misses Josephine Johnson, Marion Selby, Edith Folkes; Hugh K. Rogers, Mathews Chamberlain, Charles Simms, Ellsworth Beane, Lewis Brown and George Cunningham.

DATE DATA: There's nothing but to be thankful for this quiet week which gives you space to catch a breath from the past few days that kept you at top speed . . . just more up energy for the days to come.

Come Sunday, in the auditorium of the Carver Vocational School, the Lawyers' Wives of Baltimore will present Shirley Pinkett, dramatic soprano, in a recital. It's a benefit. Mrs. Kathryn Lane is president of the group this year, and Mrs. Anna Williams is secretary.

The night before (Saturday) the Deborah London School of Dancing and Ballroom by Bernard will hold open house party at 1110 Mondawmin Concourse, to announce their recent affiliation.

The Femme Continentals will hold forth on Feb. 7, at their annual cabaret party in the New Albert.

They had originally scheduled their party (a Hill Billy Cabaret) at Temple Emanuel. But it seems that the Fire Department has clamped down on that spot and will no longer allow even one over the 200-person capacity . . . which, mordgisaid, by, has upset a number of party apple carts.

Femme Continentals' affair is a benefit. Last year's project provided television for the Women's Wards of Franklin Square Hospital. Now they are working on a similar donation to the Men's Ward.

Natalie Phelps heads the group, and other members are Charlotte Johnson, Geneva Dyson, Alverta Brown, Susie Graham, Ruth Fortune, Ada Smith, Viola Clark, Zelma Johnson and Elizabeth Davis.

Delta Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Sigma Sorority's "Snow Ball", on Saturday, was a press-time, still scheduled for the community Hall of Temple Emanuel.

The Baltimore Urban League has set March 3rd for the annual dinner. The Fairmont Ballroom is the place . . . Dr. Eli Ginsberg of Columbia University, the speaker. This year awards will be made to persons and groups who or which have made outstanding contributions in the field of race relations.

In the same vein, Dr. John Hope Franklin, of Howard University will be the speaker at Coppin State Teachers College's Negro History Week observation.

The Baltimore chapter of Jack and Jill will have their charity cabaret at the Colosseum on Feb. 1.

The affair will be a benefit zone to further their project (a national one) with the March of Dimes. Last year they gave $1000 to the March of Dimes. Gil Monroe will play for the dancing.

Mrs. Margaret Proctor is chairman of the party. Mrs. Ruth Jennifer, who was co-chairman, had to dash to the bedside of her father in California. Mesdames Emma Michsles, Kay Carter and Louise Robinson have taken over her chores.

Others on the committee are Mesdames Roserie Julian, Doris Tarter, Jeannette Chisholm, Monterey Clay, Laura Pair, Vivian Washington and Lydia Mussenden.

Mrs. LaVallie J. Banks, of the Theodore R. McKeldin Club, here, represented that group at the inaugural affairs in Washington, last week. Attended the Republican Women's luncheon on Tuesday and that of the Women's Division of GOP, also. She will be one of the speakers here, on the 29th when the Republican State Federation holds its board of directors meeting.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles
Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoidal conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all druggistes. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

INTERESTED SPECTATORS — Obviously these young ladies are very much interested in what is going on. They were among the estimated 2,000 persons who heard and saw Jackie Robinson on Sunday at Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church. The names of the listeners are Diana Hohamed, a 12A pupil at Douglass, and Lina Hobson, a 12B pupil at the same school. The Douglass choir was one of the singing groups on the program.

YWCA News

According to Mrs. Eugenia Harris, chairman of the Health Education Committee of the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA, this month of January has been set aside to honor outstanding participants in the Health and Recreation Department.

Orchids to the following:

Mrs. Ann Wiley for the surprise coffee hour she gave for the committee.

Mrs. Shirley Brown for two sets of bowling balls she donated to the leagues.

Miss Gwendolyn Hardy, Mrs. Frazier and Mrs. Green for showing films at our groups.
