Union cops 88-72 win over Morgan

B-U-L-L-E-T-I-N

Morgan State College will attempt to improve on her 6-5 record for the season tonight (Friday) when they take on the Lincoln University basketball team at 8 p.m., at the Hill gymnasium.

RICHMOND — Alex Harris pushed in 18 points to lead the Virginia Union University Panthers to a 88-72 victory over the Morgan State College Bears Wednesday night in a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association basketball game at the Belgian Building before 1,100 fans.

This was Coach Tom Harris' first win over the Bears this season, having lost to them 80-71 in an early December contest.

Junius Pretty of Richmond, tossed in 14 points to be the second high scorer for the Panthers.

UNION WAS in command throughout. The cautious and safe shooting of Al Phillips and Carl Smith, who cashed in 13 and 12, respectively, accounted for the command.

By half time the score stood at 32-29, with Union out front with a scanty three-point lead.

Even though Aaron Johnson, Ronnie Garner and Bill Lyght of Morgan, paced their team with 25, 18, and 10 points respectively, the Bears could not put their talents to advantage. Union maintained its lead during the second half and built it to a 16-point margin with less than four minutes to play.

New Jersey bowler in 'perfect' game

NEWARK, N.J. — William (Willie) Reid, leadoff man for the Overton Club of this city, joined the ranks of bowlers with "perfect" games here last week.

Rolling against the Robert Haberman team in the Intercity Mixed League, Reid registered a score of 300 in his second game of a 3-game set. The Habermans are leading the loop, a fact which made the Reid achievement the more noteworthy.

The Intercity Mixed League is an affiliate of the American Bowling Association, the Women's International Bowling Congress and the American Bowling Congress.

REID, WHO is married and the father of a 3-year-old son, has been bowling for four years. He will receive a trophy from the Starr Bowling Academy where he performed the feat, as well as other prizes from other sources.

Both the ABC and NBA also reward Keglers with "perfect" scores.

REID STARTED the night with a 172 game, then followed with his 300, the dream of all bowlers. His final effort was good for 187, to wrap up the night with a 659 series.

Previously, Allen Levins of this city, and Bill Thomas of Elizabeth, have rolled "perfect" scores in Eastern circles.

Hank Thompson signs Giants pact

NEW YORK (ANP) — Henry (Hank) Thompson, who had an injury-plagued season and a .255 batting mark, was among four 1957 signers announced Tuesday by the New York Giants.

Thompson's handicaps last season included a bad leg and a beaning at the hands of Tom Poholsky of the St. Louis Cardinals early in June. Hank returned too soon and suffered from recurrent dizzy spells.

His average was as low as any of his previous marks in his eight successive seasons in the major leagues.

Turner TKO victor

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Gil Turner, 149, Philadelphia, scored a sixth-round technical knockout over badly outclassed Jimmy Morris, 150, Miami, Tuesday night in a scheduled 10-rounder at Miami Beach Auditorium.

scholastic ranks and could speak with a measure of authority.

"We're losing three very valuable boys through mid - term graduation and after February the going is likely to be more than we can handle.

"Charley Moore finishes. So do Reggie Harris and George Pierce. And that's enough to keep any coach's ulcers acting up.

"Moore is a tremendous rebounder. He's only 6 feet, but he handles himself like a fellow four inches taller. He has a good touch around the basket, possesses an accurate jump shot and a fair hook.

"Harris is one of my key backcourt men. He's fairly dangerous as a set shot and can drive in when occasion demands. Pierce, like Moore, rebounds well and gives us experience under the basket.

"OF COURSE," Cain continued, "this doesn't mean that we'll lay over for dead next semester. We've still some plenty handy fellows in Sam Ruff, Joe Pulliam, Andy Cager and Clifton Johnson.

"I consider Ruff one of the best backcourt men in the league. He has a one - hand jump shot that Ruff, like his other fellow to death and he isn't too bad as a set.

"But his greatest value lies in his leadership — he's great as a team leader.

"Pulliam is one of the younger boys in the loop. Still, he's one of the best all - round performers I've got. He's our best shooter and our best ball - handler. He has some bad habits on defense, but he's gradually overcoming them.

"Cager, though just 5 - feet - 6, has considerable promise as a backcourt man. A good ball handler, he's a lot of player on defense. His shooting should improve with experience.

"JOHNSON is another youngster I'm counting on for the future. Not as tall as many of the other kids, Clifton is strong off the boards just the same. He's a good offensive man with an excellent chance of developing into my best playmaker.

"What I'm impressed most about the fellows I'm going to rely on for the second half, however, is their spirit.

"Regardless of the way things may go after we lose the three kids next month, I'm sure I'll never be bothered by lack of hustle. These kids have it, and to spare."

LIKE CARVER'S coach, Sodie White, Cain regards the MSA cage race as a "dog - eat - dog" affair.

"I agree with him," the Poet tutor concluded. "This is a league in which anybody will pop up and whip you on a given day.

"You have only to wink your eye in here and the other fellows have left you cold."

Orioles sign Johnson, top pitcher of 1956

Connie Johnson, who became Manager Paul Richards' most effective pitcher 1 a s t season, has returned his signed contract to the offices of the Baltimore Orioles, it was announced Thursday.

The slender 6 - foot, 4 - inch righthander, from Kansas City, came to the Birds last May along with Bob Wiesner, George Kell, and Mike Fornieles in exchange for Jim Wilson and Dave Philley, who went to the Chicago White Sox.

Although lacking a sensational won - lost record, Johnson's 3.16 earned run average tabbed him as the 11th most effective hurler in the American League.

One of Johnson's efforts helped the Orioles and the White Sox tie an American League record. On June 21, in Chicago, Johnson and left - hander Jack Harshman became locked in a tight pitchers' duel.

Each side was able to collect only one hit which tied an American League mark. Johnson was tagged for a double in the first inning following a base on balls and was dealt a 1 - 0 defeat.

Johnson's final record was 9 wins, 11 losses, though he suffered one defeat on May 5 while still with the White Sox. Among his successes was a 3-2 triumph over New York on August 19 in a game in which he struck out Mickey Mantle twice and limited the world champions to five hits while he himself singled home the winning run in the seventh inning.

10 million dimes asked for Louis

WASHINGTON

"If 10 million colored people sent a dime each to the International Revenue that would solve Joe Louis' tax problem.

"I'm going to mail nine-to-day and one for each other person who might feel they can't afford it."

The speaker was Edward L. Mooney, 42, 2425 E St., NE, District backer for seven years who appointed himself this week as a committee of one to get the former heavyweight champion from under his present "tax strain."

Mr. Mooney believes his plan will do the job better than anyone under way by restaurant owner Bob Seidel, whose campaign slogan is "Joe Louis Deserves to Relax, Let's Help Him Pay His Income Tax."

Mr. Seidel provides a large whisky bottle for whosoever will contribute in his place, the Twelve O' Three restaurant on Pennsylvania Ave., NW.

BOTH MEN say they were moved to action by Louis' tax plight when Uncle Sam laid hands on the $66,000 trust fund for the Brown Bomber's children.

"The main thing is to get Joe from under the strain," Mr. Mooney told the AFRO. "With interests running on a million dollars, he will never be able to pay it."

Mr. Mooney said his plan is simple and direct.

"It won't require a whole lot of bookkeeping by Internal Revenue. Just count the dimes as they come in."

He is married to Mrs. Ethel A. Mooney, government worker.

CARSON—In loving memory of our dear mother, ANNIE L. who passed away one year ago, January 18, 1956.

When a mother breathes her last farewell

The stroke means more than words can tell.

The world seems quite another place

Without the smile of mother's face.

HER FOUR DEVOTED DAUGHTERS.

DUDLEY—In loving memory of our dear sister, JEANETTE, who passed away January 17, 1956.

In our hearts your memory lingers

Sweetly tended fond and true.

DUPPINS—In loving memory of our dear father, RICHARD LEMUEL DUPPINS, who departed this life sixteen years ago, January 18, 1941.

Father, your children all shall keep

Your blessed memory as Your law.

And when eternal day shall break, shall you with Me as you awake.

But there are those who miss you dearly

And find the time long since you have gone.

There are those who think of you sadly,

And try to be brave and strong.

Though the tears in our eyes do not glisten,

There is never a night or morning

That we do not think of the father we had.

Sixteen years have passed since that sad day.

When the one we loved was called away.

God called him home, it was His will,

Within our hearts he liveth still.

BY HIS DEVOTED DAUGHTER ANNIE MAE DUPPINS.

PAUL R. DUPPINS.

GOULD—In loving memory of my dear husband, REV. RICHARD H. who passed January 19, 1954.

Lonely is the heart to understand,

Why some things have to be.

Jesus in His wisdom, God has planned

Beyond our powers to see.

Loving Wife,

KELLER — In memory of my husband, HERBERT, who passed January 19, 1955.

WESLEY—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, CHARLOTTE, who passed away one year ago, January 17th:
