White cast to do Eartha Kitt play

NEW YORK (ANP) — The Davenport Theatre here will present a new version of "Mrs. Patterson," the Sebron - Greer - Johnson play that starred Eartha Kitt two seasons ago. The play opens Feb. 5.

STROLLING the AVENUE

Everytime the column listens to the music of Flink Johnson we can't help but be amazed at how much talent has been crammed into one individual.

Currently, Flink is appearing at the popular CHICK'S LOUNGE at Baltimore and Greene Sts. Just to test his musical memory we asked him the other night to play an obscure tune dating back to the year one.

Flink not only played it, thereby proving that his memory is hitting on all four cylinders, but he also threw in some lyrics which we had forgotten even existed.

From the blues of Bessie Smith to the classics and all the way to the tunes of Elvis, Flink knows them all and when you visit Chick's you can be sure that you'll see a music master at work.

Good music, good service, good drinks. That's the combination at CHICK'S and the welcome mat is out for you.

* * *

MRS. ROSA L. BRANCH of the CLUB PAREE is mighty proud of her "Social Security Night" which comes every other Wednesday night at which time the drinks are served doubles at the price of a single. Now how can you beat a deal like that?

To make the evening even more delightful there are three lovely harmonies with smiles that will warm you even with the cold weather that has made life miserable for the past few days.

Pinky Owens and his group are responsible for the good music and they have Miss Shirley Fields as the vocalist. Remember the CLUB PAREE when you are looking for enjoyment.

* * *

A WORD is in order about the LAS VEGAS CLUB at 128 N. Warwick Ave., where Pete "Crazy Horse" Martin and his ponies are blowing up a storm.

The group was recently seen in action at an Avenue nitery and the column can say without qualification that they are well worth hearing.

Drinks are being served at popular prices so why not stop in for a visit?

The tasteful and exciting music of Henry Baker is what you will be hearing at the CLUB ASTORIA, on Edmondson near Carey St., starting on Monday. Baker is a young guy with a lot of modern music ideas and his music is always listenable.

The ASTORIA has a lot to recommend it and rates high among the city night spots.

* * *

FROM WASHINGTON comes the attraction this week at Saturday's jazz session at CLUB TIJUANA. On the bandstand will be the Buck Hall group which has quite a sparkling reputation in the District.

Eddie (Lockjaw) Davis is the regular attraction and here is a gentleman who has recently cut an album for the King label.

Says Variety of the album titled "Jazz With a Horn."

"Backed here by Hammond organ and drums, Davis' work has an over-all sound like that of the Bostic combo, altho a shade or two more modern than that..."

* * *

WE'RE POSITIVE you'll enjoy the album but even more you'll enjoy seeing the artist work in person and the place is CLUB TIJUANA.

* * *

ANOTHER ARTIST who is represented on wax in first rate fashion is charmer Ethel Ennis at the RED FOX LOUNGE, Pennsylvania and Fulton.

With a voice that is as smooth as silk and warm as toast, Ethel sells a song in such a fashion that she seems to cast a spell over her listeners. The chanteuse is great and if you haven't heard her you should correct that right now.

And if you have heard her it's a sure bet that you will want to hear her again.

* * *

SINGING AT the CARNIVAL LOUNGE is Ben Washington, who has a distinctive and pleasing manner with a song. The Zane Cypress quartette makes the music. The address is Poplar Grove at Belmont.

Fellow who went to the CLUB CASINO on Monday night came away singing the praises of the Cornell Muldrow group and Tommy Mosley. The Muldrow unit lays heavy emphasis on the calypso type of number and what a wonderful job they do.

Cornell, who recently walked down the aisle, has a couple of original numbers that really rock. One of them is an item called "Bamboo" and when he starts singing it, the patrons just won't let him stop.

The romantic end of the proceedings is taken care of by healthy voiced Tommy Mosley who really belts a song. The guy is really good and his voice is bound to put you in the mood.

On Monday night the bill was brightened by Jimmy Melvin WHO LEANS TO THE ROCKA who leans to the rock and roll side. It was a great night and as we said our friend came away singing the praises of the show.

Incidently, the club also serves some wonderful food.

AT JONES' COCKTAIL LOUNGE there is the music of Jerry Nelson. The SPOT has Dottie Stearns and her trio.

The Tune Makers are the fabulous rock and roll group that you have been hearing about and they are at the COMEDY CLUB. No night out would be complete without a visit to the CROSSROADS at Pennsylvania Ave. and Fulton. That's it. Have fun.

Murrow to visit Jackie at home

NEW YORK (ANP) — Jackie Robinson, vice president of Chuck Full O'Nuts restaurant chain, will be "at home" when Edward R. Murrow calls "Person to Person" Friday on CBS television, 10:30 p.m., EST.

Jackie, a natural athlete, shot a respectable, 99 the first time he ever played golf. Now that he's retiring from baseball, he expects to find more time to improve his score. The Robinsons live in Stamford, Conn.

SMILES FOR CUSTOMERS—When you enter the Club Paree at 2714 Pennsylvania Ave., you'll find these smiles waiting for you. They belong to the trio who dispense the drinks behind the bar. The names are Sylvia, Marie and Talla. In addition to the pleasant welcome from the ladies the club also features live music.

Ring results

NEW YORK.—Harold Carter, Linden, N.J., d. Bob Baker, Pittsburgh; heavyweights.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Gil Turner, Philadelphia tko'd Jimmy Morris, Miami (6); middleweights.

PORTLAND, Ore.—Bob Satterfield, Chicago, ko'd Dale Hall, Los Angeles (3); heavyweights.

To map CIAA tourney plans at Jan. 27 meeting

DURHAM, N.C. — Plans for the 12th annual CIAA basketball tournament to be played at North Carolina College, Feb. 28, March 1 and 2, will be discussed at the second meeting of the tournament planning committee here on Jan. 27.

Chairman L. D. Smith of Virginia Union University, presided at the initial 1957 session last Sunday and announced reduced rates for the Thursday afternoon session on Feb. 28. Prices were formerly $1.25 for the two afternoon games. This year the fee has been sliced to $1.

The Jan. 27 meet starts at 11 a.m., with an executive session. A community and college advisory group has been invited to meet with the committee at 12 noon.

* * *

IN ADDITION to Smith, members attending the first meeting were T. L. Hill, Morgan; Joseph Thompson, St. Paul's, and Floyd H. Brown, NCC. Ex-officio members present were Basketball Commissioner F. G. Burnette and CIAA publicist Charles A. Lee of Durham.

Harry Jefferson of Hampton Institute, the other official member of the planning committee, was attending the NCAA meeting in St. Louis, Mo., and was unable to get to the first session. He's expected on Jan. 27.

THERE'S A LUCKY picture in this and every edition of the AFRO. Look for it. If your head is circled, you can collect 55 cash by calling at the AFRO City Desk before the next edition is out.

TAKES HER OUT TO BALL GAME—Frank Robinson, National League "rookie of the year," was out to see his school, Xavier, beat Cincinnati in basketball last week. He took along Sue Forney, of Cincinnati. Miss Forney, unmoved at first, warmed up to the action later. Both seemed to enjoy the outcome.

CIAA teams to play all colleges soon says coach

Maryland State College, Howard U., Lincoln U., and Morgan College may soon begin scheduling intercollegiate activity with predominantly white schools in their areas, according to action taken at the recent National Collegiate Athletic Association convention.

Coach Tom Johnson of Howard said there is possibility of more interracial team activity following the transfer of Maryland State from Group Three to Group Two of the NCAA regional set - up. Mr. Johnson attended the meet as a delegate.

Maryland State will now be able to contact conferences in Western Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York for possible contests in all sports.

* * *

"SHE COULDN'T DO it in the old Group Three because most of the schools are in southern conferences," Coach Johnson stated.

The predominantly colored Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association is an affiliate of the NCAA, which met 10 days in St. Louis Jan. 5-12.

Most of the 17 CIAA schools are in Group Three of the association.

Elizabeth City and Winston-Salem Teachers College were also admitted to Group Three at the meeting.

Coach Johnson also attended the American Association of College Baseball Coaches and the American Football Coaches Association conventions, meeting in conjunction with the NCAA.

* * *

THE FOOTBALL coaches amended Rule Four of the NCAA rules to provide that athletes receiving aid should not receive more than normal educational expenses including governmental aid. Many coaches objected because they said the limit would include GI aid.

Mr. Johnson also served with a committee writing a book of NCAA rules for college basketball.

The coaches passed a resolution urging that the conference adviser youths approached by professional baseball scouts.

The NCAA recently repealed the regulation preventing the approach of college baseball players by big league scouts.

Jackie makes it official

NEW YORK — Jackie Robinson has made it official.

The controversial star of the Brooklyn Dodgers became the ex-controversial star on Tuesday. He dictated the required letter of resignation to Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants, requesting voluntary retirement.

Robinson completed the letter to Stoneham in exactly four minutes. Shortly afterward the letter was taken to the Giants, West 42nd Street offices by special messenger.

The text of Robinson's letter:

"Dear Mr. Stoneham:

"After due consideration I have decided to request to be placed on the voluntary retired list as I am going to devote my full time to the business opportunities that have been presented.

"My sincere thanks to you and to Mr. Feeney for your wonderful cooperation and understanding in this matter.

"I assure you that my retirement has nothing to do with my trade to your organization. From all I have heard from people who have worked with you, it would have been a pleasure to have been in your organization.

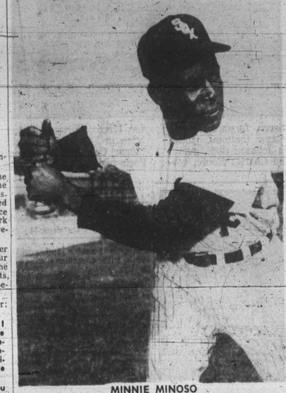
"Again my thanks and continued success for you and the New York Giants.

Sincerely,

JACKIE ROBINSON."

Stoneham in turn forwarded the letter to Warren Giles, president of the National League. And Giles sent it along to Commissioner Ford Frick for final action.

That makes Robinson an "ex."



MINNIE MINOSO

Minnie tells Sox their offer for wrong Minoso

CHICAGO (NNPA) — Orestes (Minnie) Minoso personally notified the Chicago White Sox that he is dissatisfied with the pay offered him for 1957.

It had previously been reported from Havana that Minoso would reject the contract the Sox had sent him, but Minnie made his objections official in a brief letter addressed to Chuck Comiskey, vice president in charge of salary negotiations. It follows.

"Dear Mr. Comiskey

"Dear Chuck:

"I am sending this contract you sent to me because I guess you were wrong about it. It looks like a contract which belongs to me for year of 1953 or 1954, not for Minoso after fine 1956 year I have.

"I can't think that this contract belong to me. It belong to another player on the club. This salary has expired and is $37,000.

"Please send me correct contract.

"Excuse me,

"Orestes Minoso."

The White Sox admitted editing Minoso's letter. They substituted "more money" for the exact amount the left fielder suggested he is worth. For the last two seasons Minoso has drawn $32,500.

"Minnie likes to put on a little show before he signs," said Comiskey. "He also likes to talk big figures and sometimes he adds an extra zero. I don't think we'll have any trouble."

Comiskey said he will send Minoso a new contract. He declined to reveal what Minnie is requesting, but admitted that it was in the neighborhood of no good for me next season. Contract for me should have more money than one sent by mistake for next season.

Hawks defeat Lincoln 80-53

PRINCESS ANNE, Md.—Maryland State picked up momentum here Saturday night in its quest for honors in the CIAA basketball race by downing the Lincoln University Lions 80-53.

Backed by the double figure performances of Franklin Carr, Carl Greene, Joe Robinson and John Sample, Nay Taylor's Hawks were never in serious danger throughout the first half that ended 35-32.

Lincoln tried desperately to stay in the picture, but the one Tae Ellis was not enough and the Hawks scored 45 points to the Lions' 21 during the second stanza.

Ace for the night was Tae Ellis, with 19 tallies. Franklin Carr was runner-up with 17. Greene had 16, while Robinson and Sample picked up 13 and 11.

Fayetteville rallies to edge Union, 67-66

RICHMOND

The bucking Broncos of Fayetteville State Teachers College refused to be tamed in their first meeting with Virginia Union and rimed the Panthers, 67-66 before 1,000 fans in a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association conference Friday night at the Belgian Building.

Fayetteville consistently hit the nets to overcome Union's 34-24 halftime lead.

Led by Forward Morgan and Center Johnson who racked up 12 and 21 points respectively, the Broncos tied the score 58-58 with six minutes left, and went ahead with seconds remaining.

ALEX HARRIS paced the Panthers with 19 points breaking through constantly for the take. Junius Pretty scoring 14 and Carl Smith with 10 points figured well in the Union scoring picture.

The Panthers will take on Baltimore and Coach President Don Kellett and Coach Webb Ewbank at the time that he wanted to resume in 1957.

McMillan was the Colts' thirteenth draft choice in 1954. He specializes in defensive backfield play. At John Carroll, he twice led his team in scoring, 1952 and 1953, and saw service at both halfback and end.

Promote fund to aid Louis

CHICAGO (NNPA)—A drive to raise enough money to square the back income debt of Joe Louis, former heavyweight boxing champion, was launched here Tuesday by two Norfolk, Neb., businessmen.

Jack Dempsey, another ex-heavyweight champion, has agreed to serve as honorary national chairman of the Joe Louis Fund, Inc.

Originators of the idea are John Youngbein, owner of a flight service, and George W. Reeves Jr., president of the North West Pipeline Co. They had met Joe Louis when they incorporated the fund last October in Denver, Colo.

The hope that boxing fans will respond to appeals over national television and radio hookups between rounds of boxing shows.

* * *

CONTRIBUTIONS MAY be sent to the Joe Louis Fund, Box 1174, Chicago. The La Salle National Bank will handle the funds.

Aaron Payne, Louis' attorney, explained at a press luncheon here Tuesday, that the Internal Revenue Service claims Louis owes in back taxes and penalties "about $1,119,000," which increases $278 daily by interest.

Officers of the fund have conferred with Internal Revenue Service officials and are hopeful that the debt may be wiped out by a compromise settlement.

McMillan joins fold of Colts

Defensive halfback Charles (Chuck) McMillan, who played with the Baltimore Colts in 1954 and then spent two years in the Army, signed his 1957 contract today, McMillan, a product of John Carroll University in Cleveland, is the fifth player to come to terms.

McMillan was discharged from the service last fall but it was too late to join the Colts for the 1956 season. He visited in Baltimore and told President Don Kellett and Coach Webb Ewbank at the time that he wanted to resume in 1957.
