MR. AND MRS. EUGENE WYATT were married in Baltimore, Saturday. The bride is the former Miss Ida Logan.

Wyatt-Logan ceremony held

Miss Ida Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence D. Logan, became the bride of Eugene Wyatt, at high noon here, Saturday.

The ceremony took place in the Good Sheppard Baptist Church with the Rev. Eugene D. Carter officiating.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in Chantilly lace, ballerina length. Her brief veil was held by a coronet and she carried white roses.

Miss Gloria Logan was her sister's maid of honor, and best man was George Logan, brother of the bride. The honor attendant wore pink lace, matching hat and shoes and carried pink carnations.

A RECEPTION for 150 guests followed the ceremony and was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Wyatt, a former student at the University of Maryland is a proof reader at the Waverly Press. Mr. Wyatt is employed at Western Electric. The newlyweds are at home at 2826 E. Federal St.

Mrs. Cleaver heads Zeta Phi Beta sorors

with Lula Jones Garrett

Mrs. Ruth Cleaver is the newly-elected basileus of Alpha Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

Others elected at the recent meeting of the group to serve with Mrs. Cleaver were Mrs. Katharine O. Johnson, second anti-basileus; Miss Ruth L. Russell, grammateus; Miss Eva Washington, anti-grammateus;

Mrs. Doris Howell, tamias (grammateus); Mrs. Mary C. Frazier, anti-poletis; Mrs. Mary J. Taylor, sergeant at arms; and Mrs. Emma C. Henson, chaplain.

An appropriate holiday program marked the session, at which members of Gamma chapter (undergraduates) were guests, and received gifts from the chapter. There was also the usual exchange of gifts between Alpha Zeta chapter members.

The out-going basileus, Miss Beatrice A. Mayo presented gifts to members in recognition of their regular attendance at meetings.

Gifts for one-year attendance were given to Mesdames Ruth Cleaver, Isolene Crowner, Beatrice G. Pitts, Mary J. Taylor and Miss Lillie A. Ross; for two consecutive years to Mrs. Mamie B. Williams; for three consecutive years to Mesdames Alice Hall, Katharine O. Johnson and Miss Florence V. Purviance; for four consecutive years to Mesdames Mary C. Frazier, Doris Howell and Beatrice H. Hall.

The chapter will observe its Founder's Day with a dinner on Saturday, January 17 at the Union Baptist Church Recreation Center.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Eleanor Colvin, Emma Fowlkes, Cecilia Jones, Hilda King, Addie Myrick, Magdalene Rice and Annie Johnson.

DR. AND MRS. M. L. Barksdale were hosts on Sunday afternoon at a dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Albert Freeman of Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Freeman is the former Mrs. Annie Piggott, of this city, and was on her first return visit since her marriage six years ago.

The party was in the Me-De-So Club, and delightfully manipulated by the Barksdales' daughter, Mrs. Roland Williams. Anethia (Mrs. R.) did her "ice-breaking" through a game in which each guest drew a dinner partner by matching the name tags pinned on during the cocktail prelude. There were other games including a memory test . . . at which Dr. Albert LaForest scored and took a prize.

There was a hilarious trio composed of Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Betty Ross and Mrs. Evelyn Bark-dale, which, did old harmony on "Down by the Old Mill Stream." And there were intellectual moments when Mrs. Williams introduced the new novel "Golden Apples," written by her aunt, Mrs. Estelle Hicks, formerly of Mobile, Ala. and now of Los Angeles, Calif.; a travelogue by Herbert M. Prisby, Arctic traveler, who talked of Alaska; and experiences of Dr. Bernard Harris.

Guests were:

Drs. and Mesdames Louis Harmon, Percival Smith, J. E. T. Camper, Mrs. Kinley Reeby, Bernard Harris, Jeter Jones, Drs. Raymond Hunt and Albert LaForest;

Messrs. and Mesdames Everett Ross, Casper Piggott, Benjamin Barksdale, Herbert Prisby, Roland Williams;

Mesdames Linwood Koger Jr., Margaret Wheatley, Mabel Smith, Beulah Fitts, Mattie Coasey, J. Logan Jenkins Violet Haywood;

Mrs. Koger assisted Mrs. Barksdale and Mrs. Williams in receiving.

TOWN LINKS added a special flip to their holiday party, Sunday afternoon, what with having a quartet of new members to welcome.

The dinner at six, in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Adams of Morgan Parks, was preceded by cocktails in the recreation room, and followed by games and cards.

Tables bore particularly charming decors and place cards, the art work of Lydia Mussenden and Pearlie Pennington, respectively. And the dinner (from fillet mignon to apple pie . . . from sparkling burgundy to champagne) had the Conway touch.

The games . . . take-offs on "The Price Is Right," and "This Is Your Life," were hilarious and prize awarding. And the girls looked lovely.

At the party were:

Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams (Catherine is president of the chapter), Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Gloster, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Adams, Dr. and Mrs. George McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Butler, Dr. and Mrs. Ted Phifer, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hicks, Mrs. Teresa Waters, Mrs. Audrey Butler, Lester Norris;

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. G. Pennington, Dr. and Mrs. Glenford Mussenden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michaels, Dr. and Mrs. William H. Watts, and Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy.

The wives in the latter four couples are the new members of the chapter.

Pauline Watts wore an entrancing shocking pink frock, the neckline cut in a deep V, which enhanced her pretty shoulders. Lillian Berry's choice was a sheath in ice blue satin, pearl trimmed.

Lydia Mussenden wore flame lace. In fact, lace was a favorite, with Catherine Adams in black lace and velvet; Yvette Murphy in black lace and chiffon, Pearlie Pennington in black lace;

Marie Hicks was elegant in American beauty satin, the gown featuring wide sashes at each hip, the sashes tipped in nine inches of fringe. Xaveria McDonald's choice was a magnificent midnight blue and black brocade with a pouf at the side.

Audrey Butler wore cut velvet . . . black over bronze. Etta Phifer, gold lame. Emma Michaels, black velvet with a white satin panel at the back and Helen Burrell, flame chiffon.

Dollie Walker had the Bidding Wheels at her Morgan Park home recently, for dinner and bridge.

Her guests included Helen Burwell (who, incidentally garnered first guest prize) Kay Carter, to whom went second guest prize; Jonnie Lamb, Mildred Frasier, Mary Harris, Jimmy Harris, Ruth White and Margaret Proctor.

"Wheels" about were Nicki Randolph, Julia McDaniels, Florella Clark, Mary Maddox, Bernadine Harrison, Arnetta Lottier, Ada Woodland and Mabel Grant.

Arnetta and Ada took club prizes.

THE FIRESIDERS held their annual round robin Christmas party Saturday night. Hostesses, Irma Dancy, Dorothy Brown, Helen Colbourn, Iris Mapp and Julia McDaniel kept the rest of the club in the dark about their plans and half the members meet at 7:30 at the home of Iris.

At Iris' home the group exchanged gifts amid her beautiful Christmas decor and sampled frozen cocktails. The hostesses still keeping the other members in the dark, had allowed each member to invite a guest to meet them at Helen Cathorn's.

There, they were met by Alice Murphy, Agnes Underwood, Mabel Denkins, Gwendolyn Woodland, Barbara Colson, Chita Shipley, Llewelyn Walker, Bernadine Harrison, Margaret Armstrong, Ivy Grange and Lillian Ross.

Club members present were: Ada Weaver, Francis Ashby, Ida Smith, Inez Reed, Bea Nixon, and Evelyn West.

At Helen's the group dined on a scruptious meal, amid gorgeous holiday decorations Johnny's door of black with Christmas decoration is the talk of the neighborhood.

The group then hied across town to Julia McDaniels' for cocktails, cha-cha lessons, good talk and cards 'til the wee hours. Later at Julia's a late snack ended the evening.

PHI DELTA KAPPAS of Gamma Chapter held a party for the "men in their lives" in the Fashion Academy on Saturday night.

The honorees, the Phi Deltameers, are husbands of sorors. The Academy was beautifully decorated, with tables having the individual touch of the presiding soror. There was continuous music, entertainment, food and drink, all of which added to the gaiety of the affair.

Gamma gals, Phi Deltaneers and guests about were:

Willie and Victorine Adams, Warren and Mildred Barkley, Dan and Ethel Brewington, Ivan and Alberta Briggs, Reuben and Romaine Jones;

Kenneth and Elsie Carter, Henry and Elmira Collins, William and Orangie Epps, James and Alice Ford, Virginia Hobbs, Richard and Delores Hunt;

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed, convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with rectal applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Tots and Teens give party for community center group

The children of the 6 to 8 Age Group of Tots and Teens entertained the children of the Lafayette Square Community Center of which Father Robert M. Powell is director, at a holiday party where both guests and hosts had a grand time.

Members of Tots and Teens recited, sang, danced, and played games which were to enter their guests a memorable occasion. Group singing made a hit with all. To climax the entertainment, two musical guitarists held the children in rapt attention.

After refreshments which consisted of punch, ice cream, cookies and cake, a menu which the hosts had prepared, gifts were distributed to the honorees. Sewing games, rockets, airplanes, dolls and other toys calculated to make any child happy had been chosen by the 6 to 8 age group.

CARRIE SCOTT had planned a quiet long rest, free from her usual gadabouting over the holidays, but the social bug bit her to the extent of what she termed a "little activity."

The spur-of-the moment party got under way with hurried telephone bids to "come in for a sip and a sup."

And in case you want something a little different do as Carrie did . . . try Sprats, delicious sardine-like fish (the men loved them).

She also had tiny chicken legs (which she picked up at the super market) baked deliciously in foil. Says she sprinkled a little lemon juice on them, bits of butter, onion salt, a trifle of rosemary, paprika to color . . . then baked.

She added cheezes, wine, the usual sippables, and had a party that the guests raved about, but chiefly, that was easy on the hostess.

Her guests were:

Leila and William Terry, Gwenn and Bill Spencer, Bernice and Elwood Brown, Louise and Jim Edwards, Myrtice and Roy Bennett;

Rowena and Bill Lewis, Peggy Riddick, Lois Holiday, Jackie Fassett, Albert Derbyshire, Bert Thornton, Charles Hinton, Wilbert James;

Willie Henry of St. Albans, N.Y. and Sadie Milbourne, who made that luscious hat that Carrie was wearing over the holidays.

MRS. RUFUS A. TUCKER'S New Year's Day card party was a gala affair. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. William R. Henry of Phila., Mrs. Letokia Dumas of Chicago, Mrs. Bessie Dinner and Mrs. Allen Atkinson of Washington, D.C.

Local guests enjoying the afternoon were:

Mesdames Carl Murphy, Evelyn Lane, Eugene Mays, Bernard Christmas Sr., Douglass Sheppard, Samuel Williams, Cliff Mackay, Bradford James, Paul Chester, Avon Wright;

Mesdames Arthur Jones, John Bishop, Clifton Gross, T. Henry Waters, Mattie Coasey, Fannie Jenkins, Mary Marshall Clark, Mae Allen, Thelma Ashe and Lena Dickerson and Miss Hermione Harton.

Mrs. Coasey and Miss Wharton won the prizes.

THE MIEL JEMAS held a gay evening full of fun during the holidays.

Petite Jean Johnson hosted the group. Games were played and there was much chattering over the gifts exchanged by guests from all parts of the state to special contact treats from Crisfield waters.

"We're quite proud of our hometown seafood and think of Crisfield . . . crabs, fish and oysters the best in the world. Crisfield is the seafood capital of the world, you know."

THE TAWES family expects to move to the governor's mansion at someume around January 14.

Mrs. Tawes disclosed that the governor's mansion is completely furnished but that she is privileged to take whatever furnishing she wishes on moving day.

She stated: "I know one thing that will go. That is my Hammond organ.

"I will get together with Mrs. McKaldin and we'll talk as one governor's wife to the next and we'll decide on the moving date."

Mrs. Tawes placed special emphasis on her living-room size organ due to go to the governor's mansion when she moves.

She explained: "Since I do not sing as much as I used to, I enjoy playing the organ. It is what you might say my favorite hobby."

MRS. TAWES is a mezzo soprano, has sung in the church choir since she was 15 years old.

At one time she did a year-long radio program and sang opera and sacred music broadcast from Salisbury, Md. a nearby town.

Not only is Mrs. Tawes an accomplished musician but she also is considered a good cook.

The crabmeat casserole of which her husband is so fond is her original recipe. She has published a cook book which is now famous.

It includes old Maryland seafood recipes handed down to her through generations and some recipes from a 100-year-old church cook book.

THE FIRST-LADY-TO-BE considers her grandchildren as her prize possessions, however.

"Our grandbabies are our greatest pride," she stated.

This reporter spent Sunday evening in November with the Tawes family and found the governor-elect and his wife at home with their grandchildren scampering about the large living room.

It was obvious that the children hold a warm spot in the Tawes household.

THE CRISFIELD house is a typical smalltown frame house located on the bank of the Little Annamesie River.

From the vast sunparlor there is a magnificent view of the broad river which empties into the Big Anamesic River.

DINNER AT HOME is a Tawes ritual. Shown above Mrs. Tawes serves the Governor-elect J. Millard Tawes in the dining room of their Crisfield home. Mrs. Tawes does the cooking, is proud of her crabmeat casserole which is her husband's favorite. Both of them like seafood, often have two or three kinds at one meal, according to the accompanying story by AFRO reporter Elizabeth Oliver.
