

A. Oh yes, cause I was born there in Knoxville.

Q. Now during that period of time beginning at about 1910, who lived on the property that we are taking testimony about?

A. Sarah Norris.

Q. And did you understand that to be her property?

A. Yes, as long as I have ever known the woman.

Q. And was it known generally in the community as the Sarah Norris property?

A. Yes it was the Norris property.

Q. And did she live on the property?

A. She lived on the property.

Q. Did her family live on the property with her?

A. Yes there was people who lived with her, her sister so far as I know of.

Q. And did she treat the property as her own property?

A. Yes, as her own property.

Q. She held in out in the community as her own property?

A. Her own property.

Q. And did she hold it out in the community to be her own property during the entire period she lived there to the best of your knowledge?

A. Yes sir.

Q. So far as you know did she pay taxes on the property?

A. So far as I know she did because she called it her property.

Q. Now when did you move away from Knoxville?

A. Well I moved to Frederick and then to Baltimore.

Q. Now did you despite having moved away from Knoxville did you continue to visit Knoxville?

A. Oh I went back and forth you see my husband's mother and father lived two doors from the Norris property, his sister lived in one house and our names were Norris and then the Nelsons lived the next house up and I was back and forth all the time because you see my people was from Knoxville.

Q. And during that period of time, did Mrs. Norris and her family continue to live there and treat the property as their own?

A. As their own.
