Gadabouting In Baltimore

Hamptonites, Fellowship spark week-end calendar

with Lula Jones Garrett

With Hampton Alumni holding a gala dinner party at Wilson's . . . and the Baltimore Fellowship an equally festive affair in celebration of its 20th anniversary at the Sheraton-Belvedere, Sunday's activities are cut out for the town's populace.

Fellowship's affair, beginning at four in the afternoon, will have Dr. Benjamin Fine, dean of the graduate school of Yeshiva University as speaker.

You will remember him as the Pulitzer Prize winner and education editor of the New York Times. In addition, Dr. Harry Bard of the city department of education will be cited.

Arthur Howe, Jr., who is to address Hamptonites, is the grandson of General Samuel C. Armstrong, founder of Hampton Institute.

The Alumni dinner is scheduled for five - thirty on Sunday, at Wilson's.

Mr. Howe has a distinguished background, leading to his present position as Dean of Admissions at Yale. In this capacity as dean, each year Mr. Howe has the task of selecting from some 4,500 applicants the freshman class of 1000 students at Yale. In addition, he and his associates allocate annually over one and a half million dollars in financial aid to one third of Yale's undergraduates.

Mr. Howe is a graduate of the Hotchkiss School, Rugby in England, and Yale. He is an officer of the British Empire (O.B.E.) and this designation with the rank of major was made by Lord Halifax in the British embassy in Washington.

Mr. Howe is vice president of the American Field service, and was named a fellow of Davenport College — one of Yale's ten undergraduate colleges. He is currently chairman of the board of trustees of Hampton Institute, and is a trustee of the Pomfret School, and the college entrance examination board. In addition, he is on the executive committee of the New England association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the board of directors of the Foote School in New Haven.

Mrs. Catherine Adams is chairman of the Founder's Day Committee, and the Alumni Association is headed by Henry C. Johnson.

The Baltimore Urban League Guild' has scheduled its annual Beaux-Arts Ball on Valentine Day (Feb. 14th) and this year will go to the Galaxy Room of Friendship Airport.

That, too, is going to be a busy night, what with Alpha Kappa Alpha sorors holding their Founder's Day observance and We Wives hosting their annual Valentine dance.

Mildred J. Simmons and Bernyce W. Welling are co-chairing the Beaux-Arts Ball and they've garnered Tiny Meeker and his orchestra for the dance music.

And looking even further ahead . . . the Cooperative Civic League will present Miss Bertha C. McNeil of Washington as speaker for the annual luncheon on Feb. 28.

Miss McNeil, formerly of the District school system, is now on the faculty of Howard University. She, of course, is widely-known for her work with the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

Or then, you may just take care of first things first and flaunt out to the Morgan State College Refectory, Saturday evening, for the Jumbo Card Party the M.J. Naylor chapter of the Morgan Alumni is having.

The committee, headed by Mrs. Ella Edemy, has garnered stacks of fine gifts as prizes . . . and hopes to garner $1,000 for the Student Loan Fund.

And that night (Saturday) perk on out to Friendship International Airport for a swing with Pi Beta Sigma Sorors, who will be holding their third annual Snow Ball.

IF A MARTINIQUE rushed up and breathed "Oh, thank you," this week, it was because they are simply overwhelmed at the support given their recent "Evening in Paris" affair.

As a result of the activity, the girls presented $300 to Mrs. Anna Mae Hunter for the Home for the Blind, at their business meeting last week.

The meeting was the first of the new year and was held in the Franklintown Road home of Mrs. Hester Greenway, where, over an elaborate repast, they discussed the cocktail dance and plans for the observance of their sixth anniversary on Feb. 8.

On the birthday date they will worship together at Douglas Memorial Community Church and later dine at Club Casino. Also in the making are plans for their annual champagne dance.

At the club meeting were Dorothy Lee Davis, Dorethea Foster, Irene Cooper Harris, Sue Moore, Alma Lyle Perry, Beatrice Smith;

Also Helen Tucker, Myrtle Thompson, Justina Chandler, and Ruth Payroux. Victorine Adams and Geraldine Lipscomb were unable to attend.

Pretty party of last week was that on Friday, when the Swashbu Club met in the palatial home of Dr. and Mrs. Luna Mishoe.

After a bit of chatting as they partook of appetizers, they settled down to cards.

Mrs. Sallie Nicholas and Mrs. Emerson Wooden garnered the ladies' prizes. Gentlemen's prizes went to Jesse Nicholas and Dr. H. Cardrew Perrin.

Then came an elaborate repast.

Members of the club are Mesdames Mattie Causey, Mattie Conner, Virginia Gunn, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Mayo, Dr. and Mrs. Mishoe, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Nicholas, Dr. and Mrs. H. Cardrew Perrin and Dr. and Mrs. Emerson Walden.

And elegant party of this week was that on Saturday when Mrs. Dora Hutchinson hosted at bridge, pinochle and luncheon.

"Twas her first party in her lovely Dennlyn Road abode . . . and the hostess was equally lovely in a grey tweed sheath garnished with jet beads and rhinestones . . . with jewelry to match.

Card prizes, first bridge prize went to Madge Hurst of Washington, with Ethel Henry taking second; Audrey Fuller, third and Elise Hunt, fourth. And a Pinochle prize went to Mae Williams.

Also playing were:

Catherine Adams, Lititia Ashe, Ethel Payne, Marion Croxton, Verda Welcome, Helen Lee, Vernlece Reynolds, Lillian Ross, Thegene Waters; Margaret Wheatley, Annie Thomas, Rhea Brown, Fannie Jenkins, Nellie Waters, Ella Ray, Kate Sheppard, Emma Sheppard, Eloise Richardson of Annapolis, and Eunice Hall.

Iona Collins assisted Dora in hostess duties.

AND NOW, let's talk about the younger generation and their doings.

The 14 "Charming Ladies" visited Roosevelt Training School on Sunday afternoon, along with their mascot, Wellington Thompson.

Their specific goal was Rehabilitation Cottage "B", the integrated cottage which houses girls from seven to 16 years of age, of normal intelligence, but a bit slow in learning and thinking.

There are not too many nonwhile young people at Roosevelt, at present . . . and those of color now there have a chief problem of lack of clothing for dress occasions and need for hair grooming . . . the latter not provided by the white hairdresser.

The Charming Ladies (teenagers themselves) carried with them, not only articles of clothing, but a source of much delight and gaiety by romping and playing with Cottage B girls, providing them the essential ingredient TLC (tender, loving care).

Making the trip on Sunday were Joyce Harrison, Beverly Briscoe, Dionne Nelson, Betty Jackson, Ida Walker, Helen Williams;

Also Doris King, Gloria Sheridan, Vivian Green, Frances, Barbara and Jean Hopkins, and Mesdames Edith Hopkins, and Selena G. Forehand.

Mrs. Forehand is sponsor for the group.

THE GUYS AND DOLLS club members were off to a delightful morning of music, Saturday . . . when they attended the concert for children, "The Worried Drummer Boy" . . . were thoroughly entranced by the interesting sounds from the percussion segment of the orchestra.

After the concert they gathered at the home of Cheryl Russell, who presided over a tea and then hostessed at luncheon (their favorite Saturday fare of hot dogs, potato salad, potato chips, celery and carrot strips, cocoa and pie ala-mode).

Enjoying the activities were Cheryl, who is president of the club; Keri King, the vice president; Cynthia Stewart, secretary; Patrice Pinkett, chaplain; Valdemar Washington, Quida Lee, James Green, Linda Young, Henry and Gale Bundy, Errol Taylor and Stephanie Lee.

Adults around to see the plans were smoothly executed

PRECEDING THE INTERMISSION at the formal supper dance given in the Alcazar, Baltimore, by Epsilon Omega chapter of AKA, last Friday night, sorors were directed by Margaret Jackson in the singing of the Alpha Kappa hymn.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID DANIELS were married in Macedonia Baptist Church, Baltimore, Sunday. The bride is the former Miss Frances Jones.

Deltas cite sorors as founders honored

Epsilon Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority celebrated their annual Founder's Day in the Honors Room of the new McKeldin Student Union Building on the Morgan College Campus, Saturday.

Soror Martha Gover, president of Epsilon Sigma made a presentation of a lectern and guest book to the new union in the name of and in honor of Founder Vashti Turley Murphy. Dr. Martin Jenkins, Morgan president accepted the gift for Morgan.

Besides special ceremonies in honor of Delta founders, sorors were honored who have made substantial contributions to the sorority. Refreshments were served from a beautiful table decked with candles and sorority colors.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne†)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Zeta, other 'Greeks' told to widen horizon

Greek letter organizations should reexamine their programs and revise their objectives to meet the new problems of this age, Dr. Parlett C. Moore, declared Saturday

Speaking at the Founder's Day celebration of Alpha Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, the president of Coppin State Teachers College, and vice regional director of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, urged his hearers to step beyond their present boundaries and meet the needs of the new space age.

Pointing out that social activities and scholarships, the areas most served, have made needed contributions, sororities and fraternities now need to broaden their programs to include human relations, housing, and crime prevention to make the most of their potentialities, said Dr. Moore.

Dr. Moore was presented by Soror Beatrice Mayo, past basileus of the chapter.

SOROR ELIZABETH DEMBY presided at the beautifully arranged luncheon held in the Harvey Johnson Memorial Center.

A tableau, "The Five Pearls," was enacted by Sorors Althea Cornish, Olivia Bates, Ovella Dorsey, Mary C. Frazier and Katharine Johnson.

Iotas to offer scholarships in business

Kappa chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority began plans, this week, for compliance with the national project, a business scholarship.

The national body, each year offers $1500.00 in scholarships for the study of business education. The applicants must compete through college entrance exams given to students all over the United States. The student standing highest receives a $1000.000 scholarship. Five other scholarships are given to the applicant standing highest in each region.

KAPPA CHAPTER sponsors six students each year in the contest. The students are selected by an elimination test which will be given on January 28, at the Cortez Peter's Business School, here. The examination is a scholastic aptitude test.

Information has been sent to the principal's and conselor's of schools to recruit students to participate in the contest.

Senior girls in the academic and business courses are eligible. The winner must pursue a business education in college.

TO MEET the challenges in a changing society business education must keep pace with the changing needs in today's economy is the thought of the sorority. Students must be encouraged to take more academic subjects especially science mathematics and English along with business subjects. This is true because management is demanding greater skills and abilities from its employees.

The committee at work includes Sorors Margaret Robinson, chairman; Willa Mae Scott Marie Lewis, Thelma Jiggetts, and Bertha Green. Soror Mable C. Waters is president of the chapter.

Tribute paid to Slimmerette

Mrs. Bessie Brown of 1533 Franklin St. says:

"I'm really thankful for Slimmerette. It was a God-send."

Says Mrs. Brown, "It's so easy, no hard or strenuous exercises, no rigid diets, and no disrobing, just good old relaxation."

Before Slimmerette, I felt just awful, because I was tired all the time, and highly nervous. All this was due to one thing, I was just too fat.

"Now after Slimmerette I am the envy of all my friends, and family," she said.

The above testimonial was received this week at Slimmerette Reducing Salon, Pulaski and North Aves. Mrs. Brown's before and after pictures appear in the Slimmerette ad this week.

MRS. VIOLET CHURN was speaker at the program which marked Founder's Day of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, Sunday. The program, followed by a reception, was held in Union Baptist Church and the Harvey Johnson Center.

Lambda Kappa Mu sorors hear Mrs. Churn on Founder's Day

Don't be flustered by world changes, but face them with fearlessness and confidence, Mrs. Violet Churn advised, here, Sunday.

Mrs. Churn, wife of the Rev. C. R. Churn, minister of Union Temple Baptist Church, was guest speaker at the Founder's Day celebration of Iota chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority.

"A few years ago we were confident that we knew about the planets, about the nations and peoples of the world. The seasons came and went in orderly manner. We were sure we were superior to Russia. But over night all of this changed.

"THE CHANGE is not to cause despair. Life had never been easy and to be taken for granted. In order to live we have to fight. What matters is what weapons we choose to fight with," said the speaker. Christianity, she told the group, points out the way.

Mrs. Churn urged humility, in accepting the concept of God and realizing that guidance is needed, and confidence making certain that we do not feel we have reached the apex and need go no further.

"Above all," said Mrs. Churn "Do not sell yourself short. There is no limiting the possibilities that a soul inspired by God can obtain."

$125 WAS PRESENTED to the NAACP on a life membership, and the balance of the $500 promised for the June presentation made by Mrs. Naomi D. Johnson, basileus, was accepted by Dr. Charles Watts, NAACP treasurer.

Also participating on the Founder's Day Program were the Rev. Baxter Mathews, pastor of Union Baptist Church, where the program was held; Soror Orella Dürsey, who gave a brief history of the sorority; Miss Lucille Burns, chic school marm who departs these shores two weeks from now for a year's further study in California.

On two successive nights, she was guest of honor at surprise parties in her honor. Virginia Sanders gathered three tables of bridge players Friday night, when Lucille was given a bachelorette shower.

Then on Saturday, Mary Lou Redd, Delores Augustus, and Emma Johnson were hostesses at another surprise party at Delores' Koko Lane manse.

Cars was the order of the night, but between sippables, and lobster and champagne, entertainment was furnished in the form of skits lampooning the guest of honor.

Aoout were: Mesdames Margaret Proctor, Louise Harden, Emma Michaels, Ruth Jennifer, Vivian Pendleton, Dorothy Randall, Gloria Phillips;

Alice Pinderughes, Vashti Matthews, Jean Cummings, Edith Davidson, Gladys Daniels, Myrtle Burns, Lillian Wilson, Juliet Carter and Miss Aurelia Parker.

MATTIE MUMBY (Mrs. Bill) was honored Saturday evening at one of the prettiest baby showers this season. Hostesses were Gertrude Venable who was actually fascinating in a stylish platinum wig and black chemise — and Priscilla Marshall — equally charming in green wool, the skirt of her frock being fitted and fringed.

And it was truly a surprise, for Mattie was so excited that for a moment guests feared her February stork date might be advanced.

Showering her were:

Mesdames Tina Parker, Lorraine Brice, Delores Triplett, Jimmona Dorcas, Kaye Carter, Marjorie Gilmore, Peggy Graves, Bernice Edmonds, Lavinia Brown, Etta Pegram, Meswilla Gibson, Margaret Holt, Evelyn Faulkner; Berine Gail Catherine Thompson, Alice Marshall.

Mesdames Marionna Simmons, Juanita Harris, Rebe Brown, Rose Hawkins, Betty Wooden, Mamie Barns, Estelena Showers, and Odessa Dyson; Misses Anita Harris, Serena Foster and Jerrelle Foster.

Janet Waters was elected president; Patricia Garner, vice president; Diedra Johnson, secretary, and Sadie Lettlier, treasurer.

The group in a very business - like manner organized rules they will follow for each meeting.

At their monthly sessions, they will play bingo, monopoly, and other games of interest. For the closing meeting in June, they made plans to have club pins and invite their friends for an outdoor barbecue.

After a lot of fun playing Bingo, and "I've Got a Secret," the young misses were served dinner. Each member received a token for showing good sportsmanship during the game period.

The members are: Sadie Lottier; Pamela Fredericks, Dedra Johnson, Patricia Garner, Mary Driver, and Janet Waters.

Mrs. Margaret Driver is the advisor for the group.

650 attend Livingstone alumni cabaret dance

Baltimore's chapter of Livingstone College's (Salisbury, N.C.) Alumni Association literally 'killed two birds with one stone,' Saturday night at the Alcazar Ballroom.

At their second annual alumni reunion, members of the chapter and more than 650 of their guests had a fanciful and delightful evening while earning money for the United College Fund.

The Baltimore chapter was organized in 1947 by Dr. Robert L. Gill, professor of political science at Morgan State College, as a result of a drive for funds of the UNCF during that year.

Dr. Gill was first president of this chapter until two years ago when Leslie Stokes, present head, took over the presidency.

LIVINGSTONE, a private college founded by the AME Zion Church in 1879, is one of 32 members of the UNCF, and its alumni chapters are gradually spreading to more and more states where their graduates are living.

Among the states represented at their cabaret party were New York, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Virginia, New Jersey, and the District of Columbia.

Altogether, there are approximately 30 active chapters. Other chapters are in Atlanta, Ga., and Charlotte, N.C.

A highlight of their dance-party Saturday was when Miss Katrina White, a chemist for the Department of Agriculture and Mr. Stokes, vice president, led the alumni in singing their school song in a friendship circle.
