Mother of 3

national spotlight last week by fatally stabbing her daughter, Joan, 5, and drowning her two sons, Sidney, 20 months and Edgar Jr., 3.

The pretty 33-year-old, mother shocked seasoned officers and cynical reporters with her calm confession of the triple slaying.

Her command of the language and the logic she used in explaining and justifying her actions led some observers to believe that she was sane.

A Richmond housewife said "I think the poor woman is crazy. Anybody in their right mind wouldn't ordinarily kill three innocent babies just for the reason she says.

"I heard it being discussed this morning on the bus. I just don't see how the woman could say she was right in what she did and that God will forgive her.

ANOTHER WOMAN, the mother of four children, said: "As a mother, I am deeply in sympathy with the young mother, who because of conditions beyond her control could not keep herself from destroying her three young children.

"I sympathize with her for there was a greater force than any she had every encountered to cause such a action.

"I don't think the young mother is entirely insane, I think she is confused and needs help.

STILL ANOTHER MOTHER COMMENTED:

"I dont' think she was crazy because she thought of waiting and discussing the matter with her husband. It seems kinda like she was planning the murders."

"It takes a whole lot of doing, I imagine, to kill one child. Much less three, especially the way they were killed and the many attempts she said she made before the children actually died."

tinirs of 3307 Alto Road, a niece.

OTHER LEGATEES under the will are:

Mrs. Anna Monroe of 1735 Druid Hill Ave., who was willed $1000

George T. A. Gibson Jr., and William Gibson, brothers, and nephew of Mrs. Holland, who will receive the bulk of the estate, including the business; Herbert Nutter, willed $1000 and 10 per cent of the residue, which includes the funeral home.

Also Miss Cora Gibson, 1631 Druid Hill Ave., who was given all of the stock in the Noxzema Chemical Co. owned by Mrs. Holland, as well as her jewelry, silverware, linens, and other household effects; Mrs. Olive Freeman, 1715 Druid Hill Ave., $300.

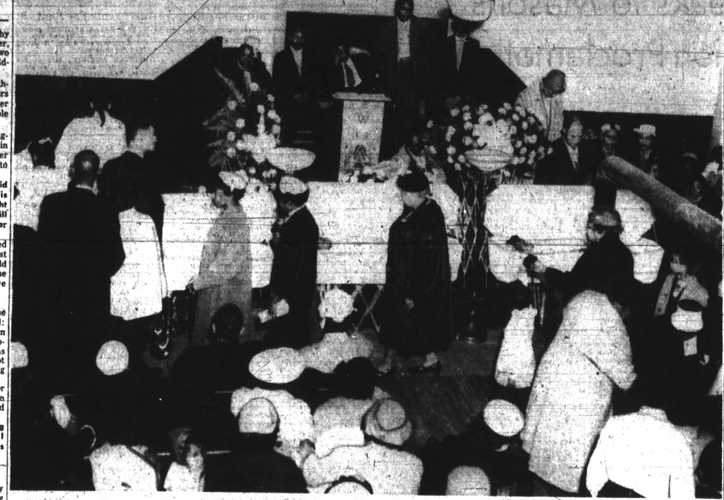
Provident Hospital and Maryland Baptist Home for the Aged also benefit under Mrs. Holland's will. Each will receive $500.

IN ADDITION TO 45 cent of the entire residue of Mrs. Holland's estate, George T. A. Gibson Jr. will receive a lot on Ivy Avenue in Morgan Park.

The remaining 45 per cent of the residue goes to William S. Gibson.

The property at 517 Robert St., willed to the senior Mr. Gibson, now deceased, will revert to the estate.

Also reverting to the estate will be the $1000 willed to the late Miss Marian Gibson and the $200 willed to the late Mrs. Ione Ford.



HUNDREDS OF PERSONS viewed the remains of the three Browder children whose funeral rites were held, last Tuesday, at Long Branch Baptist Church in Corbin, Va.

HOLLAND HEIRS—Named to receive the bulk of the estate of Mrs. Helen A. Holland, according to her will filed on Friday are three of the gentlemen shown in this photo taken on a recent funeral handled by the Holland Funeral Home. Left to right, Herbert Nutter, willed 10 per cent of the business and $1,000; George T. A. Gibson Jr., nephew, and his brother, William J. Gibson, each willed 45 per cent of the business; and Louis Nash, an associate of the firm.

DINNER-MEMORIAL meeting was held last Thursday by members of the Funeral Directors and Morticians Association of Md., at Wilson's Restaurant. Meeting was held immediately after funeral for Mrs. Helen Holland. Undertakers traditionally hold such a gathering after a member dies. Left to right, James Chew, Mrs. Katie Williams, James Morton, president of the Md. group; Mrs. Morton and Jeffrey Lowe, head of TT C. Matron describes niece 'in a blaze of fire'

"I heard her call, "Aunt Sarah," and I thought she was outside.

"I ran to open the bedroom door and she burst in. She was in a blaze of fire," said Mrs. Sarah Ricketts, 15 N. Gilmor St.

She was describing how her niece, Miss Marie Daniels, 21, awakened the household Monday night when her clothing accidentally caught fire.

"SHE CAME in about 11:30 (p.m.) Monday night and lit the hot water heater in her room," said her aunt.

"She was standing with her back to it and has slip caught afire," Mrs. Ricketts said.

When she heard the young woman's screams, said Mrs. Ricketts, she thought they came from outside the house.

As she opened the bedroom door, the woman, her clothes aflame, came toward her.

"She grabbed me around the waist. I was trying to get away from her so I could put the fire out.

"By that time, my husband had jumped up from the bed and smothered the fire with a coat," she explained.

"THE SKIN on her back was all burned," Mrs. Ricketts added.

Mr. Franklin Square Hospital Monday night, about 11:30 Miss Daniels was treated for first degree burns and released.

A native of Petersburg, Va., Miss Daniels has been a resident of Baltimore since 1956.

Two Carver High School pupils, Albert Murill, 16, 200 block Penrose Ave., and Weldon Satterfield, 19, 900 block Carrollton Ave. were dismissed Thursday at Northeastern by Magistrate Linwood G. Koger on charges of acting disorderly at a dance at Carver Wednesday night.

The boys were arrested after a complaint by school officials it was reported.

According to testimony of Benjamin Whitten, a vice-principal at Carver, the two boys were acting 'disrespectful,' making loud noises in the school and refused to leave when asked.

Mr. Whitten asked, however, that the boys be given a break so that no record would be placed against them.

Magistrate Koger complied, and upon the request of each boy never to come before him again, he dismissed the case.

'Customer' jailed in shooting

"He is really guilty of three charges rather than one."

Judge Edwin Harlan offered this comment in Criminal Court Wednesday prior to sentencing I. George Jolly, 33, 1800 block Pennsylvania Ave. to the maximum of 15 years in the penitentiary on an assault to murder charge.

Raymond Miller, 51, proprietor of a tavern in the 500 block Laurens St. positively identified Mr. Jolly as the man who attacked him in the 1800 block Division St. about 4 p.m. Dec. 2.

He told Judge Harlan the accused man beat him over the head with an iron bar when he entered his auto, then yoked him and shot him in the chest, the bullet passing about 3 in. from his heart.

HE SAID Mr. Jolly known to him as "Fat Daddy," was a frequent customer in his tavern.

Although Mr. Jolly denied knowledge of the crime, police said a .32 cal. revolver and a blood-stained jacket was recovered from the man's room after the attack.

Mr. Jolly, Judge Harlan was told, has a criminal record dating back to 1942.

—J. E. Wilkins

THE BODY lay in state at Foundry Methodist from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Wednesday. Visitors included Bishop and Mrs. L. Bromley Oxnam, Dr. Samuel Bullock, Mrs. Todd Duncan, Aubrey E. Robinson Jr., Thomas Parks, George P. Delaney, Lt. Lawrence A. Oxley, Victor R. Daly, Col. and Mrs. Campbell C. Johnson.

Among Government officials who paid their respects were George C. Lodge, who replaced Mr. Wilkins last year as assistant Secretary of Labor after Mr. Wilkins' resignation; James T. O'Connell, Under Secretary of Labor and Mrs. O'Connell, Mrs. Alice Leopold, head of the Women's Bureau; C. Archibald Carey, and Frank B. Johnson, President's Committee on Government Contracts.

FRIENDS OF the family who acted as aides at the church included James Mosley, real estate broker, and Mrs. Wallace B. Streater.

There were few flowers at the church, the family having requested that those inclined to should send wreaths to Chicago where the final rites were held.

Among messages of condolence received by the surviving were personal letters written by President and Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower.

IN ADDITION to his widow, Mrs. Lucile Wilkins, Mr. Wilkins is survived by three sons, J. Ernest Jr., a physicist with Nuclear Development Associates, who lives in White Plains, N.Y.; Julian, an attorney and John, general counsel for the International Corporation Administration.

Mr. Wilkins, at the time of his death, was involved in the Civil Rights Commission which is investigating disenfranchisement of colored persons in Alabama.

A staunch Republican, he was found dead at his home at 4708 Blagden Terr., NW, Monday. He had been under treatment at Walter Reed Hospital for hypertension and heart disease. He was 65 years old.

Local arrangements were handled by Frazier's Funeral Home.

Brooks Hays to speak here Sunday on racial integration

"The Christian Church and the Problems of Racial Integration" will be the subject of a talk on Sunday, Jan. 26, by former Congressman Brooks Hays of Arkansas.

Mr. Hays will speak at 4 p.m. at the Seventh Baptist Church, North Ave. and St. Paul St.

One of the moving forces in an attempt to solve the integration problem in his native state, Mr. Hays was defeated in the last election by a candidate linked to the forces supporting segregation.

Mr. Hays is president of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Suspect held in 'hey baby' death

William L. Smoot of the 700 block Greenmount Ave., was charged with homicide Monday at Central in connection with the fatal stabbing of a 32 year-old painter.

Magistrate Standley Richardson ordered Smoot held without bail pending a Homicide Court hearing.

The victim, John Heartwell of the 700 block Ensor St. died at Mercy Hospital last Saturday following an altercation at Monument and Ensor St.

Northeastern District, police reported that Mr. Heartwell who was in company with a lady friend at the time, became involved in a dispute using the strange man who yelled, "hey, how do you feel baby?"

A Thumbnail Sketch of the Messenger

Mr. Elijah Muhammad, "The Messenger of Allah" and Spiritual Leader of the Moslems in the United States, for nearly 30 years, has been passionately concerned with justice and freedom for the American Negro. For he long ago learned, and learned well, the lesson taught that no one individual can rise above the condition of his race. The Messenger has been a solitary man fighting for His ideals and principles. But He has never become discouraged or embittered. For His eloquence, wisdom and inspiration are derived from the triumphant teachings of Allah.

Today he stands alone as the unacclaimed Leader of the American Negro. For, even though there are truths in His insights some people seem afraid of the brilliance of His visions and wisdom, and many are even shocked by His candor.

Yet in those who know Him intimately, He has inspired loyalty, given meaning to their lives, and articulated their aspirations for "The Betterment of His People." To them, as a consequence, He has become the Annointed Leader. The Messenger is a remarkable person and the most modest of public men. He has lived and suffered in the midst of the Negro's complicated problems.

The Messenger loves His People! To show His love and admiration He proposes to build a Medical Center. Not for His people only. This will be a non-racial hospital whose purpose shall be to help cure those millions of people who are now overflowing other well-known health institutions. The site has been secured. He also proposes to build an educational center on the Chicago South Side. However, the Messenger needs help to make this most beneficial idea a reality. Whose help? Your help! Your dollars contributed to the Messenger to help secure a medical and educational center are not only contributions but investments in your future and in the future of your children. Join us in this noble venture. Contribute today. Put your donations in an envelope now.

In Memoriam 1

BAILEY — In loving memory of my Godmother, LUCINDA, who passed away January 25, 1958.
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head you did not bend;
I kept the watch with you, Dear Godmother
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain
God grant someday we will meet again
LOVING GODDAUGHTER,
CARRIE BLAIR

BANKS — In loving memory of our daughter, HATTIE MAY, who passed away January 30, 1957.
Dear daughter, you are not forgotten
Though on earth you are no more.
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
MOTHER AND FAMILY

BURRELL — In loving memory of our dear sister, MADELINE, who departed this life January 17, 1957.
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear;
Fond memories linger every day
Remembrance keeps her near.
And while she lies in peaceful sleep
Her memory we shall always keep.
SISTERS AND BROTHERS,
ADA BERTHA, ULYSSES, HENRY AND KATIE, and a devoted Friend.

WILLIAM H. BELL

MILLER — In loving memory of my dear husband, WILLIAM J. MILLER, who passed away January 25, 1957.
What would we give his hand to clasp
His pagget face to see:
To hear his voice to see his smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife.
And clasp each others hand once more
In Heaven, that happy life.
LOVING WIFE,
LENORE MILLER
AND FAMILY

NORTHERN — In loving memory of my dear wife and our beloved mother EMMA, who passed away January 20, 1956.

Three years have now passed and gone
Since our dear Savior called you home.
It seems as though it was yesterday
That you so quietly went away.
Your gentle ways and loving face
Time or eternity cannot erase
And even though we're far apart
You stamped your love upon my heart.
LOVING HUSBAND AND FAMILY
