Registration drive picks up steam

By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE

Annual Choir Day will be observed this coming Sunday at Christ Methodist Church, Chase and Washington Sts.

Guest speaker at the 3:30 session will be the Rev. Frank L. Williams who was a former pastor of Christ Methodist and now is the pastor of Metropolitan Methodist located at Lanvale and Carrollton Ave.

The Rev. Mr. Williams will also present his choir and congregation. There will be a coffee hour between 6 and 7 o'clock. Chairman of Choir Day is Benjamin Davies with Mrs. Thelma Emnales and Theodore White assisting. The Rev. Hilton A. Parker is pastor.

Men's Day at Basil AME Church, Cockeysville, Md. was a huge success. The Reb. Nobel Tover, guest speaker, delivered an inspirational message on "What Is the Answer for Peace, Brotherhood and Fellowship Among Men."

THE SPECIAL meeting of the Voter's Council held the first Monday night was well attended by neighbors in the 3rd Legislative District.

The meeting was called to acquaint residents with some of the Legislative procedures in the general assembly. Guest speaker for the evening was to be Senator J. Raymond Bullington Jr. (D. 3rd), but due to other commitments in Annapolis, he was unable to attend.

Those present were rewarded nevertheless with the presence of City Councilman Leon Abramson, and four councilmen from the 3rd District, Richard D. Byrd, J. Joseph Curran, Henry R. Hergenroeder and John A. Pica.

All gave brief talks on some phase of legislative procedures.

Introduction of the speakers was by Raleigh E. Stokes, 12th Ward executive. Marshall W. Jones, president of the council, presided.

Others participating on the program included: the Rev. George A. Crawley Jr., pastor of St. Paul Baptist Church, William Smallwood, Mrs. Viola Jones, Mrs. Gloria Adams Jones, Marshall Jones, Mrs. Emma Rice and Pernel Jones.

A question and answer period was held at the end of the program. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Marie Smallwood of 424 E. Lafayette Ave. is doing a grand job driving neighbors to and from Registration Offices. This civic minded young homemaker is also ringing many door bells, both day and night. Get on her handwagon neighbors, she is on the right track toward a successful Registration vote drive which ends Jan. 31.

For information call any of the following numbers, CH 3-4886, LE 3-5080 or VE 7-3618.

Seen registering in the Eastside's register-to-vote campaign last week were Rosita Luck, Essie Chambers, Robert Brown, Miss Catherine Williams, Mrs. Australia Smith, Mrs. Rose B. Mobasey, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Jones, Mrs. Ethel B. Cox, George Gregory, Mrs. Alice Gregory and Mrs. Annabella Jones. The canvassing worker was Mrs. Marie Smallwood and the place was School No. 79 at North and Milton Sts.

Congratulations to the following neighbors:

The Rev. Mr. Lorenzo of 1408 Potomac St. celebrated birthday on Jan. 12 at Israel Baptist Church. The Rev. Graves will pastor Calvert Baptist Church, 532 W. Biddle St.

Mrs. Sara Scott, birthday celebrant, Mr. and Mrs. Reeseby Price of 1421 Linwood St., their 6th wedding anniversary.

THE COMMUNTERS Saving Club met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Adah Spencer, 341 E. 22nd St.

New officers were elected for the coming year and committees were formed. Elected were: Mrs. Ada Spencer, president; Mrs. Eliza Oglesby, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Thornton, secretary; Mrs. Rebecca Gregory, financial secretary; Mrs. Maggie Logan, asst. secretary; Mrs. Katie Henderson, treasurer; Mrs. Bertie E. Broen, business manager, Mrs. Maggie Hayes, chaplain.

The club does much community work.

Good Neighbor of the week!

Our good neighbor of the week is the lovely Mrs. Sara Trent of 1419 Linwood St. An ardent worker in her church, her civic club and a wonderful homemaker. Mrs. Trent is the wife of Robert Trent who is employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company. The mother of 15-month-old Milton, she still finds time to come to the aid of her neighbors when they are ill.

When Mrs. Trent was in Window because ill, Mrs. Trent went to all the homes in her block and collected donations for him.

A member of Mt. Olive Free Will Baptist Church and Federal Improvement Association secretary, her hobby is watching wrestling. She is also a member of the NAACP and a graduate of Dunbar High School and reads the AFRO twice a week. Mrs. Trent is a truly our good neighbor.

Neighbors, our sick and shut in list is growing. Please remember to send each a card of cheer.

PORTSMOUTH, Va. — Internationally famous Miss Marian Anderson was presented in concert before a capacity audience last Monday night in T.A. Willett Auditorium. The concert was sponsored by Martha Chapter 10, Order of Eastern Star.

HOW LONG MUST WE WAIT—Obam (Sidney Poitier), believing there is no hope for racial equality, ignores his wife, Renee (Eartha Kitt), and thinks seriously of joining his brothers' organization in their fight against the white man. A scene from World Horizons Productions "Mark of the Hawk," held over for 2nd big week at the Harlem Theatre, in Technicolor and SuperScope. The film stars Sidney Poitier, Juano Hernandez and John McIntire and co-stars Eartha Kitt.

CHERRY HILL NOTES

Cherry Hill church to mark 13th year

By MARJORIE J. WARD

Daniel N. Clark is the new director of the Public School No. 180 Recreation Center, Seamon Ave. and Cherry Hill Rd. He succeeds T. Madison Garri; son who was transferred to the Chick Webb Center in East Baltimore. Assisting Mr. Clark is Mrs. Augustus Cunningham, full time and McVin Washington, part time.

The activity that is most popular at this center is basketball. There are a number of leagues at the center which serve boys of all ages. Of special interest is the Unlimited League No. 1.

This league is composed of the following teams given in order of team standings: Rockets, won 7 — lost 0; Horsemen, won 6 — lost 1; J. W. D. won 3 — 5; Barons, won 2 — lost 5; Buffaloes, won 2 — 5; and the Emonon's, won 2 — lost 5.

THE LEAGUE leading Rockets (not the following ball players: Gordon, (a playmaker that is hard to handle); Ruff, (also a tough playmaker); Johnson, (former Dunbar great); Pulliam, (everybody remembers the Pulliam from Dunbar, he was one of their greatest); Amos, (a former Hampton cager who was known throughout the CIAA); Robinson, Wilson and Chiskoin, (these three are part of the reason why the Rockets are undefeated, they save the team strength under the backboard).

The five leading scorers in the unlimited league No. 13 as of press time are hereby listed.

Ruff of the Rockets, 73 points Steward of the Horsemen, 73 points; Gordon of the Rockets, 71 points; Jenkens of the J. W. D., 71 points, and Amos of the Rockets, 67 points.

The public is invited by the leaders and the teams of the Public School No. 180 to witness these very fine athletic contests.

CATONSVILLE NEWS

Tri-State Association plans two-day meeting

By SAMUEL TORSELL

The Mid-Winter Conference of the Tri-State Association of Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia, IBPOEW will convene in Catonsville tomorrow (Saturday) and Sunday.

Business sessions will be held in the Catonsville Elks Home Saturday.

Also on the first night of the conference, Catonsville Elks are planning many activities including a grand drawing at the Crescent Lodge Elks Home at 8 p.m. for their guests.

Mesdames Amy Warden, Francis Coe, Anna McCormick and Pearl Brown, grand treasurer of IBPOEW, in Catonsville, visited Staten Island, N.Y. recently when Mesdames Warden and Brown participated in the Women's Day program at Bethel Community Church there.

Worship service is scheduled for Grace AME Church, 11 a.m. Sunday.

VISITORS' DAY will be observed Sunday at the Morning Star Baptist Church.

Mrs. Clara B. Hall will celebrate her 84th birthday Wednesday with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Montrot Young of 1810 Freshman St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waul of Annapolis were guests Sunday of her sister, Mrs. May Jones, of Old Frederick Rd.

Central five snaps 26-game loss streak

WILBERFORCE, O. — Central State College Basketball Team broke a 26-game losing streak by defeating the West Virginia Yellow Jackets, 80-74.

The Marauders were paced by sophomore Turner Russell who connected for 28 points. John Anderson of West Virginia was the game's high man with 30 points.

Central State's record now stands 1-9 for the year.

Mrs. Umphery, multiple sclerosis victim, loses 8-year fight for life

Mrs. Maizie Umphery, 38, 2271 Reisterstown Rd., an 8-year-battle against multiple sclerosis ended Tuesday.

Mrs. Umphery died Tuesday in Montebello State Hospital where she had been confined since last April.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at Grace Presbyterian Church at 12:30 p.m.

The pastor, the Rev. R. T. Newbold, will officiate.

* * *

A 1942 graduate of Connie Saxon Teachers College, Mrs. Umphery taught at Beale Elementary School, Gilmor and Presstman Sts. and Biddle St. Elementary School, Biddle near Pennsylvania Ave. before her illness.

She was the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Walker. The Rev. Mr. Walker was longtime pastor of Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO, the former Miss Walker was married to E. Robert Umphery, now a teacher at School 146.

They have two children, Sheridan, 14, and Beverly, 12.

* * *

IN AN INTERVIEW with the AFRO two years ago, Mrs. Umphery said in discussing her illness.

"They don't know the cause or the cure; I had it two years and didn't know I had it." She was stricken in 1950.

However, from her wheel chair, she said pleasantly.

"If we walk with Christ in the sunshine, he will walk with us in the shadows. I know I am in God's hands."

* * *

BESIDES her husband and children, Mrs. Umphery is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Elouse Percival, a supervisor in the Public Welfare Dept. in New York.

Mrs. Rosa Murray, a teacher at Rosedale Elementary School.

She also has two brothers, William T. Walker, a teacher in Buttersville, Ind.; and John H. Walker, a New York lawyer.
