Final accounting given of Dr. B. M. Rhetta's estate

A last administration account, posted in Orphans Court, last week, effected the final settlement in the estate of Dr. Barnett K. Rhetta Sr.

The account turned a $7,538.15 item over to his widow, Mrs. G. Clare Rhetta, to whom his entire $159,000 estate was willed.

The $7,538.15 had been retained in the event funds were needed for taxes and accounting.

Dr. Barnett K. Rhetta Jr., son, was administrator for the estate.

• • •

JUST $24,919.23 of the estate was administered through Orphans Court, the balance of the physician's savings being held jointly by him and his wife.

Only exception to the joint holdings and those coming under Orphans Court was a $10,486.80 bank account in the names of Dr. Rhetta and his daughter, Dr. Helen L. Rhetta of Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Rhetta owned jointly properties at 2139 Druid Hill Ave., 1734 McCulloh St., 1532 N. Carey St., 1124 Riggs Ave., 2337 Druid Hill Ave. and 2130 Druid Hill Ave.

• • •

THEY ALSO held installment contracts on properties at 1320 W. Fayette St., 2020 Druid Hill Ave., 2114 Druid Hill Ave., 320 Sanford Place, 2742 Elliott Drive and 1817 Braddish Ave.

Mortgages held jointly by the couple included those on properties at 2102 Auchentorly Terrace and 2740 Pennsylv. St.

And along with their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Rhetta Jr. they owned 2230 Carlisle Ave., subject to a $15,000 mortgage.

THE SENIOR Dr. and Mrs. Rhetta also owned government bonds worth $5,965.60.

They held joint deposits in bank totaling $20,809.76, and life insurances, with Mrs. Rhetta as beneficiary amounted to $11,288.82.

The $24,919.23 administered through the court derived from an automobile and office furniture valued, at $820.00; cash in the home, $3,585; an insurance policy of $18,831.87; and checks $145.07.

Also due the estate was a note of $9,428.29 due from Mrs. Gladys P. Rhetta and her late husband, William Rhetta of Chicago.

Bus accident

Three persons were treated at Provident Hospital Wednesday morning for injuries sustained in a bus accident at Reisterstown Rd. and Gwynns Falls Parkway.

They were listed as Mrs. Louise Walsh, 41, 4100 block Clifton Ave.; bruises, Miss Edith Morton, 43, 2300 block Cecil Ave., left shoulder painful; and Mrs. Odell Mack, 35, 1900 block Linden Ave., painful back.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

By MILTON E. BLICKSON

"TO OTHERS LET THE GLITTERING BAUBLES FALL. CONTENT SHALL PLACE US FAR ABOVE THEM ALL . . ."

Charles Churchill

Many of us from time to time allow ourselves a short flight into a fanciful world where, at our fingertips, are to be found money, power, and a thousand and one luxuries and creature comforts. Day-dreaming of this nature is a fairly common and, we suppose, a rather normal practice which is innocent enough unless one dwells too often and too long in a never-never land of wishful thinking.

Actually, a contented person seldom indulges in the dubious luxury of dreams beyond reasonable reach. Thus, the contended person who makes the most of the day and its offering, is in any practical sense, far above those who allow contentment to elude them.

On Monday January 26 the Maryland Baptist Convention raised over $9,000.00 for the Foreign Missionaries. The Rev. Walter E. Paige, Pastor of Faith Baptist Church, is chairman; Rev. W. L. Clayton, president.

Also in a practical sense, the loss of a loved one calls for a complete and comprehensive funeral service that attends to all dreary details. ELLIOTT FUNERAL HOME, 1139 N. Carolina St., stands ready to aid with a complete service to fit every purse. Phone EAstern 7-8500.

Borough Magistrate Francis Malloy had cleared the courtroom of all who could not find seats. He asked the woman if the confession was what she had told police, advising her that it could be used against her at a trial.

Without having an attorney, the woman answered yes about the statement, except the part which said that she "gave" her pistol to Morganthaler.

This she corrected saying he "obtained it from the car compartment." She said, however, that she knew of the proposed hold - up.

Later, after being held for grand jury action, Mrs. Beckley allegedly implicated Morganthaler in a New Year's Day hold - up in Delaware Township.

As a result of this information, another man, Joseph Friend, 41, of West Jackson Drive, Delaware Township, was arrested as a "receiver of stolen goods."

Delaware Township police said they have taken from Friend's apartment two television sets, property of two different South-Jersey motels. He is free, under $2,000 bail on the stolen goods charge.

• • •

IN THE meantime, Paul Morganthaler, 23, brother of the slain man, is also under arrest. Lawnside hold - up attempt, was an accomplice in the affair, is taken in custody at the Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, Camden, where he went to identify his brother's body.

He waived a preliminary hearing before Judge Malloy, Monday night when he was represented by Former County Prosecutor Delaney.

Anthony Morganthaler, 3rd., termed an "ex - convict," by police, was fatally shot through the heart by Mr. Newton. He is registered as a "crack marksman" in the National Rifle Association.

Mr. Newton's aim was probably assisted by extra heavy clothing he was wearing. A bullet from the bandit's pistol grazed him causing a slight wound of the right side. He lives with his wife Jewel, 42, next door to the gas station.

Her influence goes on beyond school

WASHINGTON

"She demonstrated outstanding ability in the improvement of the instructional program," said school officials in approving voluntary retirement for Mrs. Alice B. Finlayson, principal of Birney Elementary School.

Her retirement becomes effective Jan. 31 after more than 30 years of service in the District school system.

Mrs. Finlayson was cited by school officials for "the stimulation and guidance of her teachers to their best efforts to meet the needs and interests of their pupils and her insight into the individual needs of children.

She showed unusual insight into individual differences of her boys and girls and administered her school on that basis.

"Her influence extended effectively beyond the Birney School for the betterment of the school and community."

• • •

MRS. FINLAYSON said, "It seems as if I shall keep as busy as ever. Everybody seems to think that I have so much free time."

She referred to fellow civic leaders who already had taken their retirement for granted with additional demands on her time.

Mrs. Finlayson is public relations chairman of the Federation of Civic Associations.

SHE WORKS for the Urban League throughout the year as co-chairman of the membership drive. Her civic efforts go into several organizations and community groups.

She was chairman last November of the Federation Workshop Conference, which gather for youth and community brought some 400 persons together for youth and community improvement.

Her recreation committee is now working on the Awards Dinner that will be held March 17 in Baldwin Hall on the Howard campus.

Mrs. Finlayson entered the District school system as a Garrison-Cleveland teacher after graduation from Miner Normal School.

• • •

LATER, SHE earned the bachelor's and master's degrees at Howard University. Post graduate work was in sociology and psychology.

Because of her early demonstrative ability as a classroom teacher, Mrs. Finlayson received many promotions to schools throughout the city," officials said.

She was promoted to principal of Birney in May, 1944.

Mrs. Finlayson resides at 1910 Vermont Ave., NW.

The AFRO takes pride in joining colleagues, friends, parents and children in saluting her and wishing her many years of health and happiness.

Mother of 3 implicated in Lawnside fatal holdup

CAMDEN, N.J. — A statement was read in court last week implicating a 29-year-old mother of three children in the Lawnside hold - up attempt which resulted in the death of her male friend.

The attempted robbery occurred Sunday night, Jan. 18 at the gasoline station of Chester Newton on White Horse Pike. Mr. Newton was wounded by the gunman, but being a crack marksman himself, killed his assailant, identified as Anthony G. Morganthaler 3rd, 28-year-old member of a wealthy Germantown family.

• • •

THE WOMAN in the case, an expectant mother, is Mrs. Elsie Viola Beckley of California Ave., Clementon. The statement read by County Detective Phillip Large said that she was in the car which sped away from the scene at the time of the shootings.

Her husband, with his head in his hands, sat in the Lawnside courtroom as her alleged confession was read.

JESSE J. LEE, retired clerk of 1003 Wheeler Ave., right, is shown here with William (Billy) Hayes, city teacher. They were photographed at recent funeral services for Mrs. Helen A. Holland, beloved mortician. When this photo appeared in our Tuesday edition Mr. Lee was incorrectly identified as Jesse W. Redden, a member of the State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers. ON NAACP BATTLEFRONT

Cage star praised for fighting back

NEW YORK — Minneapolis Lakers' basketball ace Elgin Baylor last week received a telegram of praise from the NAACP for sitting out a game in Charleston, W. Va., Friday.

"Congratulations on your heroic stand against racial bias," read the message signed by the association's youth secretary, Herbert Wright. "Your action was one of courage" Mr. Wright continued.

"We trust that it will serve as a standard for all other colored athletes to follow," the telegram concluded.

Mr. Baylor, 23, a former All-American at the University of Seattle, and two other colored teammates — Ed Fleming and Boo Ellis — were denied accommodations at a local hotel when they arrived in Charleston Friday.

The Lakers lost the NBA game to the Cincinnati Royals, 95-81.

Nominations begin

NEW YORK — Nominations for the Spingarn Medal for 1958 will be received until April 1, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, announced last Thursday.

The medal is awarded annually by the NAACP to a colored American for distinguished achievement. It was instituted in 1914 by the late J. E. Spingarn, then chairman of the association's board of directors.

• • •

FOR THE first time in its history, the award for 1957 went to more than one person, the Little Rock Nine and their mentor Mrs. Daisy Bates. This also marked the first time that the medal was given to minors.

Among former winners are former baseball star Jack Robinson, AFRO publisher Carl Murphy, Marian Anderson, Judge William H. Hastie, the Rev. Martin Luther King, A. Philip Randolph, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, and others.

U.S. unit hailed

NEW YORK — The NAACP Thursday commended the President's Committee on Government Contracts for calling upon the building trades unions of Washington, D.C., to cease discriminating against colored workers.

Following a December conference with NAACP Labor Secretary Herbert Hill, the Committee called upon the district unions to hire colored workers seeking jobs on an extensive redevelopment project in the nation's capital.

Mr. Hill and Clarence Mitchell of the association's Washington bureau had filed complaints with the committee charging exclusion of colored artisans from jobs on the Washington project.

"By taking this action," Mr. Hill said, "the Committee now acknowledges discrimination by unions is within its jurisdiction. Formerly, the Committee maintained that it had jurisdiction only over employers who have contracts with the Federal Government."

Garrison to speak

NEW YORK — Lloyd Garrison, New York lawyer and descendant of William L. Garrison, the Boston Abolitionist, will be the principal speaker at a meeting observing the 50th anniversary of the NAACP in community ceremonies here in New York on Feb. 12.

The meeting, celebrating the golden anniversary of the civil rights organization, will also hear Arthur B. Spingarn NAACP president who has been active with the association since 1911, and Roy Wilkins, executive secretary.

Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors, will preside.

Bonsal named envoy to Cuba

WASHINGTON

Philip W. Bonsal of Washington, ambassador to Bolivia, has been appointed ambassador to Cuba, subject to confirmation of the Senate. The career foreign service officer once was ambassador to Colombia.

The 52-year-old native of New York is the son of the late Stephen Bonsal, author and journalist who won a Pulitzer Prize in 1945.

Prior to joining the Government service, Ambassador Bonsal was a telephone and telegraph executive in Chile, Spain and Chile from 1926-32. He joined the Federal Communications Commission in 1933 and has held his present post since Feb. 1957.

Mr. Bonsal was educated in the Philippines and Switzerland. He also attended St. Paul's School and Yale University where he received an A.B. degree in 1924.

Segregation falling apart in old South

WINSTON - SALEM, N.C. — Segregation is beginning to fall in the deep South, according to Southern Regional Council official in an address here recently.

Speaking at the 46th annual Founder's Day observance of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Mrs. M. E. Tilly, SRC director, said:

"The handwriting is on the wall for all of us everywhere. When the freedom of one person is endangered, the freedom of all is endangered. Breaking down segregation is not a victory for the colored people, but a victory for all of us."

The white woman noted that Georgia "felt secure with its segregation plans to place colored students out of the white colleges, but a Georgia judge knocked out all of this."

Liberals file new rights bill

WASHINGTON

Some 13 Senators, led by Paul Douglas (Dem., Ill.), Wednesday introduced a liberal civil rights bill to promote school desegregation. The six - point bill was offered last year but Congress failed to act on it.

The measure was offered as an alternative to the more moderate proposal as offered by Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Democratic leader from Texas.

One of the main points in the liberal measure is that it will make use of provisions contained in Part 3 which were deleted from the Civil Rights Act of 1957.

The deleted Part 3 of the Civil Rights Act would have authorized the Attorney General to sue upon signed complaints to secure equal protection of civil rights generally, including school cases.

• • •

IN ADDITION, the liberal bill would authorize grants up to $40 million a year for five years for school facilities in areas where lack of buildings or other equipment is the chief cause in keeping districts from compliance with the Supreme Court decision of 1954.

This provision also would allow funds to school districts for operation if funds were cut off by the state because of integration.

Among other points, it makes a specific finding by Congress that the Supreme Court decisions on racial segregation express the ideal of the nation.

• • •

THE SECRETARY of Health, Education and Welfare would be authorized to assist in developing community understanding of desegregation problems, calling for the appropriation of $2.5 million a year for five years to carry out the educational program.

Part 4 of the proposal provides that the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare shall assume responsibility for developing desegregation plans if all other methods fail.

And if the Secretary of HEW certifies that all of its efforts have failed, Federal authorities will be given the power to file complaints against school cases in connection with desegregation plans as prepared by HEW.

IN CONTRAST with the bill being sponsored by the liberal bloc, Senator Johnson's proposal is set up along the same lines as Federal negotiations are handled in labor disputes.

His compromise actions would give the Attorney General the subpoena power with reference to voting complaints and would extend the life of the Civil Rights Commission.

Joining Senator Douglas in sponsoring the liberal measure are Senators Humphries of Missouri and McCarthy of Minnesota, Hennings of Missouri, Morse and Neuberger of Oregon, Clark of Pennsylvania, McNamara and Hart of Michigan, Proxmire of Wisconsin and Dodd of Connecticut, all Democrats;

And also Republicans Case of New Jersey, Elliott of Colorado, Javits, of New York and Beall of Maryland.

Jobs increase in tri-state

NEW YORK—Non-agricultural employment in the tri-state middle Atlantic region (New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania) rose by 32,500 to a total of 1,594,700 in November, the peak for the year, according to the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Factory employment rose by 22,000 over the month as increases in the metals and machinery industries more than outweighed seasonal declines in nondurable goods.

Non-manufacturing employment was up seasonally to 7,795,800, an over-the-month increase of 11,600, with gains in trade and government offsetting declines in construction, finance and services.

Earnings of factory workers in the tri-state region rose to record levels in November. Weekly earnings in New York and New Jersey increased to $85.54 and $90.04. Weekly earnings averaged $85.02 in Pennsylvania.

A Thumbnail Sketch of the Messenger

Mr. Elijah Muhammad, "The Messenger of Allah" and Spiritual Leader of the Moslems in the United States, for nearly 30 years, has been passionately concerned with Justice and Freedom for the American Negro. For He long ago learned, and learned well, the lesson taught that no one individual can rise above the condition of his race. The Messenger has been a solitary man fighting for His ideals and principles. But He has never become discouraged or compliance with His eloquence, wisdom and inspiration are derived from the triumphant teachings of Allah.

Today he stands alone as the undisputed leader of the American Negro. For, even though there are truths which make many people afraid of the brilliance of His visions and wisdom, and many are scared to stand by His candor.

Yet in those who know Him intimately He has won their loyalty, given meaning to their lives, and articulated their aspirations for "The Betterment of His People."

To them, as a consciousness, He has become the Anointed Leader. The Messenger is a remarkable person and the most modest of public men. He has lived and suffered in the midst of the Negro's complicated problems.

The Messenger loves His People! To show His love and admiration He proposes to build a Medical Center. Not for His people only. This will be a non-racial hospital whose purpose shall be to help cure those millions of people who are now overflowing other well-known health institutions. The site has been secured. He also proposes to build an educational center on the Chicago South Side. However, the Messenger needs help to make this most beneficial idea a reality. Will you help? Your help! Your dollars contributed to the Messenger to help secure a medical and educational center are not only contributions but investments in your future and in the future of your children. Ballot and NAACP seen as best aids for full citizenship

NEW YORK — The Rev. C. K. Steele, president of the Inter-Civic Council of Tallahassee, Fla., admonished colored citizens to vote and and support the NAACP if they wish to further their stake in full American citizenship.

He was heard in a series of addresses in Greater New York City during a week's visit which ended in Newark, N.J.

The Rev. Mr. Steele is vice president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference of which Dr. Martin L. King is leader. Eleven members of the Inter-Civic Council are under $11,000 bonds and $11,000 in fines as a result of integration activities in Florida.

"We have gone too far to turn back now," Dr. Steele told a capacity audience at the main rally Tuesday at Cornerstone Baptist Church under auspices of the Brooklyn Baptist Evangelical Union, Rev. R. Arthur Reed, president.

"This is an hour of decision for America and the colored man must help her to make her decision. It is not a Southern fight, but the finest for the preservation of the nation. What we do is regarded around the world."

WEEKLY SERMON

Jesus made skillful use of parables 46 times

By Rev. CECIL H. HOLLAND
WASHINGTON

This sermon is closely related to series of sermons that we have been writing on why Jesus used parables, with the exception of deviating occasionally to write special sermons.

Jesus used parables for simplicity. If He had taught otherwise His teaching would have been vague, and, of course, more difficult to comprehend. He spoke many times by parables.

One authoritive source states that Jesus taught by parables 46 times, and used concrete things to explain spiritual meanings. He taught by parables skillfully, and yet effectively. He spoke with authority.

• • •

JESUS WAS not accepted by the so called righteous, that is, the Ecclesiastic leaders, for His teaching did not coincide with their philosophy, but the common people heard Him gladly.

Jesus is showing in parabolic teaching that hearing will not make us happy if we do not make conscience of doing. If we hear Christ's sayings, and do them, we shall be blessed. In this parable the hearers of Christ's word are divided into two classes; some that hear, and do what they hear, and others that hear and do not.

• • •

THIS IS the latter part of the Sermon on the Mount, and I, therefore, quote:

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock."

"And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell; and great was the fall of it." Matthew, 7-21-27.

• • •

IN THIS parable, Jesus is teaching a mixed multitude. He separates them as He will at the great day, when all nations shall be gathered before Him. He is still speaking in day, in Spirit, and through His ministers.

His teaching is always timely. If we hear His word and do not obey, we shall be liken unto the house which was built on sand; we shall fall.—But, if we hear Jesus' word, and obey, we shall be liken unto the house that was built on a rock. We shall be with Him forever.

• • •

TO DO CHRIST'S sayings we must abstain from the sins that He forbids, and perform duties that He requires. Our thoughts and affections, our words and actions, the temper of our minds must be conformable to His gospel.

This is what He requires of us. — "He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy... and to walk humbly with thy God." Micah, 6-8.

The builder that built his house on sand represents the man who places all of his hope on the world, but, the one that built his house on a rock represents Christ.

So, I would like to recommend to all, to build your hope on Him, for when the inevitable trials, tribulations, and temptations come you will be liken unto the house with a rock foundation. You will be able to stand.

Rites for prisoner

"I would like to see how the accident occurred. I can't do anything about it, but I sure would like to see.

"You know a dump truck goes up slowly and I don't see why he couldn't have dumped out or caught onto something."

These comments were made by Deonus Jenkins, 2209 block W. Fayette St., on Thursday, the day after funeral services for his son, Elias Jenkins.

The 22-year-old son, an inmate at the House of Correction, was fatally injured last Friday in a fall from a State Road Commission dump truck on Route 50 at the North River Bridge, police report.

None of the other prisoners were injured seriously, police said. Riding on the back of the truck were tossed out. Jenkins landed on his head.

Police said he was first taken to Anne Arundel County General Hospital and then to University Hospital where he died at 3:08 p.m.

The driver of the truck identified as James S. Gray, of Annapolis, has been charged with reckless driving and manslaughter, police said.

JENKINS, WHO was married and father of four children, was serving a three-year sentence (as of Oct. 25, 1957) on a conviction of an assault with intent to kill charge.

His family said he expected to gain his freedom sometime this year.

Warden William P. Sthmer said the accident occurred when "for some reason or other the body (of the dump truck) tilted up."

The family said they had a lawyer to look into the accident.

The victim's mother, Mrs. Grace Jenkins, said "I don't feel satisfied about it."

Methodist pastors make interracial exchange

WASHINGTON

A Washington Methodist pastor and a Maryland pastor were in an interracial change of pulpits on Sunday.

The Rev. I. G. Simpson of Mt. Vernon Methodist Church, 1919 West Virginia Ave., NE, preached to the white congregation of Newest Memorial Methodist Church, Greenbelt, Md.

The Mt. Vernon congregation heard the Rev. Walter C. Smith Jr., Newest pastor.

"HE WAS well received in our church and I was well received in theirs," said the Rev. Mr. Simpson. "There wasn't any empty seat in either house."

Each minister was accompanied by his choir. The Mt. Vernon group sang under the direction of Mrs. Bernice O. Dickens.

Mrs. Ruth McKenzie is organist for the Newest choir.
