PALMA sets 5th contest

The fifth annual Lincoln-Douglass essay contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania Avenue-Lafayette Market Association as part of the birthday celebration of the two great Americans began on Friday, Jan. 23 and closes on Saturday, Feb. 14.

All entries must be postmark not later than midnight Feb. 14.

Pupils in the public and parochial, primary, junior high and senior high schools in Metropolitan Baltimore are invited to submit entries for prizes that will be awarded the winning essays.

The subject selected this year will offer the pupil the opportunity to state why he thinks Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass will live in history.

Essay titles are "Abraham Lincoln will live in history because..." or "Frederick Douglass will live in history because..."

• • •

A TOTAL of 18 prizes will be awarded in the several categories. First prize in each of the primary, junior high and senior high schools will be $15, second prize in each category will be $5, and third prize in each category will be $2.

Five dollar passes to one of the leading theatres will be given to the five honorable mention winners.

Libraries in schools attended by essay winners will benefit by receiving an amount equal to that won by the pupil.

The following rules must be observed by each contestant.

1. Essays must not exceed 100 words.

2. Essays must be written legibly (or typed) on one side of paper only.

3. Contestant's name and address, phone number, name of school and grade must be printed in the upper left hand corner of each sheet of paper used.

4. Entries must be addressed to PALMA Lincoln Douglass Essay Contest, 1347 N. Gilmor St., Baltimore 7, Md., and must be postmarked no later than midnight Feb. 14.

• • •

AS IN THE PAST contests, separate judging will be held for each school division; primary, junior high, senior high, so that young contestants will be competing within their own grade groupings.

Girls and boys are urged to complete their essays as soon as possible and to mail them before the deadline.

Announcement of the Lincoln-Douglass Essay winners will be made in the AFRO AMERICAN on Feb. 27.

Winners will also be notified by mail.

Tax consultant held on tax check forgery charge

James A. Boyce, 29, a tax consultant of the 1300 block Ashburton St., was placed under $2,500 bail Wednesday for Federal Court grand jury action, on a charge of forging and cashing another person's income tax return check.

Mr. Boyce, at a hearing before U.S. Commissioner Ernest Volkert, was charged with forging and cashing a $301 tax return check mailed to Miss Thelma Hunt, 2200 block McCulloh St., but directed to her at his office in the 600 block N. Fremont Ave.

Miss Hunt told Commissioner Volkert that she had sought Mr. Boyce's assistance in the preparation of her 1957 tax declaration, and was expecting to have a return of $79.

John H. Hanley, U.S. Secret Service agent, said Miss Hunt's check had been cashed by a woman, identified by Mr. Boyce as Miss Hunt, at a store in the 1200 block Edmondson Ave.

He said the tax forms listed a daughter as a dependent of Miss Hunt, though she told Mr. Boyce of no such dependent.

FURTHER testimony came from Miss Marie Jacobs, 2000 block Edmondson Ave., also a client of Mr. Boyce.

She said she had expected a tax return check for about $40.

Mr. Hanley said her tax form had been revised to show an aunt and a daughter as dependents, to hike the return check to $258.

Mr. Boyce appeared in court wearing dark trousers and an air force-type jacket with a fur collar, and gave no explanation of the woman who allegedly cashed the check bearing Miss Hunt's name.

Phone Co. spends over $45 million

Directors of The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Maryland have approved, during the last 12 months, expenditures totalling $45,128,000 according to an announcement by W. Griffin Morrel, vice president.

This includes $721,600 authorized in its January meeting for additional service improvements.

For Baltimore City, an appropriation of $25,800 was allocated for new cable to meet the continuing demands for service in the Northwest section.

Approval was given to spend $71,000 for cable to extend service to new housing developments in the east and south sections of Arbutus.

An expenditure of $70,000 will be made for cable along Belle Grove Road to increase the capacity of the telephone system in Brooklyn.

Illegal operation probe continues

Is there an arrest near in connection with an illegal operation performed on a teenage girl a week ago?

Police would neither confirm nor deny rumors to that effect on Thursday.

In the meantime, an investigation into the case involving the 17-year-old girl who was missing from her home for 12 days continues.

In addition, a second case was referred to the abortion squad on Tuesday following the death of a woman in East Baltimore.

• • •

IN THE FIRST case, the teenage girl was admitted to Lutheran Hospital on Monday after she returned to her home and complained of feeling ill.

According to police, the young woman alleges that she became ill as a result of complications from an abortion performed by a local physician.

She alleged that the operation was performed after $150 had been turned over to the doctor.

The patient, who is reported recovering, also told police she could not identify the doctor or the location of his office.

The teenager, a native of Philadelphia who had been living in Baltimore with an aunt since the May, said she had accompanied to the doctor's office by a man and woman who posed as her aunt and uncle.

Prior to the operation, the girl disappeared from her home and had been reported missing since Jan. 14.

POLICE WERE called in on the second case after a 31-year-old eastside woman was found in a coma on a bed at her home around 4:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Police reported they found the bed littered with newspapers.

From a bedside table they recovered two bottles of alcohol, a bottle of linament and an inhaler.

The woman was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in an ambulance where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

Anthony Carter, 3, buried Wednesday

Services were held Wednesday for three-year-old Anthony M. Carter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Carter (Lillian B.), at Daswell Temple.

The child died last Thursday at City Hospitals, where he was taken one week before his death.

According to his aunt, Mrs. Janet Alston, he died of pneumonia.

• • •

HIS PARENTS are natives of Maryland and his mother is the daughter of Mrs. Beulah H. Williams.

The Carters have six other children.

They are:

Carolyn, 15, Vernon Jr., 13, Phillip, 12, Timothy, 6, Lydia, 5 and Angelo, 2.

Burial was at Mt. Auburn.

Party guest makes self defense plea

"I acted in self defense."

That wasn't self defense. That was self offense.

Those were the opinions expressed by Samuel E. Burrows, 36, of the 100 block S. Stockton St., and Magistrate Howard Aaron in Southwestern Police court Wednesday morning when they discussed the reason for a shooting.

Burrows and Robert L. Kirk, 35, of the 1500 block W. Fayette St., were arrested Tuesday night following an altercation at a party.

WITNESSES testified that following a dispute over a woman, Burrows left the party and returned with a shotgun.

When Magistrate Aaron asked what the two defendants had been drinking he was told: "We had whiskey, beer and wine."

Posing a final question the Magistrate asked: "Did you have a good time?"

Both men answered: "We sure did."

Show scheduled on colored Americans

Book Fair, the recently opened bookstore at 2327 Pennsylvania Ave. at Cumberland St., will present a show on "The Life and History of the Colored American," Jan. 31 through Feb. 15.

The Rev. F. Daniel Dixon, proprietor of the bookstore, said the show, scheduled as a to include History Week, will be free to the public.

It will be conducted evenings, 7 to 9 p.m. and Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. Book Fair is open daily, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

No 3-family home at 2114 Allendale

The Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals on Tuesday disapproved a request to house three families at 2114 Allendale Rd.

Also rejected were requests to house two families at 2538 Boerman Ave., and at 15 S. Rosedale St.

Postponed until February 10 was a hearing on whether to allow three families at 2111 Allendale Rd.

The Zoning Board will consider the coming Tuesday a request to allow the construction of a grocery store at 1301 N. Bond St.

Late returns in Yule seal drive at a standstill

Late returns in the annual Christmas Seal Sale sponsored by the Maryland Tuberculosis Association have almost come to a standstill, according to William H. Shriver Jr., chairman of the Christmas Seal Sale for Baltimore City.

"That old joke about people forgetting to put their Christmas mail in the mail boxes isn't so funny to us," Mr. Shriver said.

"We've always depended on late returns to put our Seal Sale over the hump but this year the money just isn't coming in.

"At the moment, we're running more than $6,000 behind last year's figure. Baltimore is still one of the worst tuberculosis towns in the country and we need a great deal more money than we have now to operate our tuberculosis control program. If you haven't sent in your Christmas Seal money, please do it now.

"Your money will be spent for our chest X-ray programs, our special services for indigent patients, medical research and training for TB workers and patients.

"Delayed returns will be very much welcomed by the Maryland Tuberculosis Association at 600 St. Paul St."

In Memoriam 1

BRISCOE — In loving memory of my dear husband, ARTHUR E. BRISCOE, who died away January 30, 1947.
Three years ago, he breathed not a murmur.
For the comforter stood by his side, and whisper:
"Fear not, I am with thee."
With me thou shalt ever abide."
On the river a pale boatman hastened.
He heard the soft dip of his oar.
Then from earth and sorrow he bore him,
Across to that beautiful shore.
LOVING WIFE, LAVINIA

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my dear son, WILLIAM A., who passed away January 26, 1956.
A light is from our household gone.
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more,
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
MOTHER, SISTER-IN-LAW AND NIECES.

MITCHELL — In memory of my dear son, Pvt. Jerome Mitchell, who departed this life January 27, 1942.
No one knows the silent headache,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that goes in silence
For the one I love so well.
More and more each day I miss him
Hoping that the wound is healed.
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within my heart concealed.
MOTHER, MRS. MARGARET GERTRUDE M. BLACKWELL-MOTHER
