MRS. BERNICE JOHNSON and four of her fourth grade pupils at Cherry Hill Elementary School No. 159 spent one last weekend together before schoolmarm, Mrs. Johnson sailed for Bonnholden, Germany midnite Monday, to join her husband, Sim Johnson. Mrs. Johnson managed to accomplish many things during her short career at teaching. She will continue teaching in Bonnholden. She is pictured above with house guests Sheila Browniey, Maria Hopp, Julia Morris and Leolia Brown.

Schoolmarm joins hubby in Germany

When Mrs. Bernice Johnson, of 1408 Linwood Ave., decided to join her husband in Bonnholden, Germany, the Baltimore school system lost a valuable member.

Mrs. Johnson, the former Miss Bernice Tubman, boarded the USNS Rose midnight Monday with recommendations from the Board of Education to teach in Bonnholden.

Mrs. Johnson, the former Miss Bernice Tubman, boarded the USNS Rose midnight Monday with recommendations from the Board of Education to teach in Bonnholden.

A teacher at Cherry Hill Elementary School No. 159 for one and a half years — the extent of her teaching experience — Mrs. Johnson managed to become what one parent described an "unusual teacher."

* * *

DURING HER short teaching career in Baltimore, she organized Troop No. 373 of Girl Scouts in her school and acted as group leader;

Demonstrated in fourth grade social studies once in the classroom for the South Baltimore area and once on television;

Organized and directed a school modern dance group of elementary pupils who appeared atthe Polish Home Hall for their Christmas Show;

Presented a television program, "Let's Be Fit," in November for the Department of Education;

Was elected secretary of her school's PTA group.

In addition, Mrs. Johnson is a member of the YWCA.

* * *

JUST TO prove that she was the kind of teacher children love, a big shiny apple wasn't enough to show how much they thought about her.

So on her last weekend at home, four of them were her houseguests.

In addition, "When I came in from picking them up," she said, "there was a surprise party here when I got back!"

After the party, the schoolmarm and her four little schoolgirls played away the rest of the weekend together.

A nice memory to carry to Bonnholden, don't you think?

THE DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Tubman (Ida), she has been married to Sp. 4 Sim Johnson for nine months.

Mrs. Johnson has two brothers and two sisters: Bernard, Larry and Minnie Vernadine and Barbara Tubman.

All of the family are natives of Baltimore and members of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church.

Members of her fourth grade class who were houseguests were Sheila Browniey, Leolia Brown, Maria Hopp and Julia Morris.

Friends present at the bon voyage party were:

Messers and Mesdames James Robinson Jr., Clifton Ball, and James H. Willis;

Mrs. Geraldine Phillips, Misses Lucille Coward, Joyce M. Shepherd, Lillian Fowlkes, Christine Fenderson and Margaret Wiggins;

Also Clarence Jones, Arthur Robinson Jr., Earl Quarles, Lew Bernard, Warren Morris, Moses Payne, Isaac Harmon, Reginald Johnson, Robert E. Howard, Sylvester Frederick and William North.

Carter-Poe wedding held

Miss Nannette Poe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Poe, became the bride of Philemon Carter, Saturday.

The double - ring ceremony took place in the home of the bridegroom, 1908 Division St., and was performed by the Rev. J. Lloyd Garrison.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents, 3004 St. Georges Ave.

* * *

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and net, ballerina length, the skirt of tiers of lace ruffles.

Her veil of net illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns showered with ribbon streamers. White brocade satin pumps completed her outfit.

Mrs. Justine W. McNeill, matron of honor, wore pale blue net and lace made with a fitted bodice and a ballerina-length skirt. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and ferns, and her shoes of ice blue satin. Joseph W. Alston was best man.

* * *

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Poe wore gold a lace street length dress with accessories to match. Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Thelma Carter, was chic in navy blue.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Poe or Kennett Square, Pa., and Mrs. Estelle Pillows of Buffalo, N.Y.

Local guests were:

Messrs and Mesdames Marshall Dorsey, Horace Gayles, Robert Sutton, M. Hayes, Charles Thomas, M. Harrison;

Messrs and Mesdames John Wilson, Henry Smith, M. Wilson, Joe Austin, William H. Carter, Andrew Smith, Clarence Carter Lee Hurtt;

Mesdames Coleen Scott, Alma Eggleston, Shirley Formey, Irene Jewel, M. Woods, William Wilson, Pearl Carter, Bertina Hayes;

Misses Iola Carter, Gloria Jones, Gloria Better, Vivian Hopkins; and Thomas McNeill and Johnny Bruce.

Garnett-Tinson wedding held

Miss Arletta Tinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tinson, 1702 Rutland Ave., was married on Sunday at St. Francis Xavier Church to Titus Garnett, district circulation manager of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers.

Miss Tinson was attended by her sister, Miss Phyllis Tinson as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Juanita Beamon and Miss Naomi Nelson.

* * *

THE BRIDE selected a floor-length gown of blue organdy with satin jacket for her wedding. Her veil was also blue.

Attendants were waltz-length gowns in pastel shades of lace and net.

* * *

OWEN LEE was best man for Mr. Garnett, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Titus Garnett.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Dorothy Ballard of Clifton Ave.

The newlyweds are at home at 1132 Homewood Ave.

"MY BACK IS KILLING ME"
—why put up with sluggish kidneys...when relief is often so swift and easy to obtain?
Backache, dizziness, lack of energy, restlessness, getting up nights, may be caused by functionally sluggish kidneys, mild bladder irritation.
For 50 years people have found swift, effective relief with DeWITT'S PILLS. This famous diuretic stimulant 1) flushes congestive waste material out of kidneys; 2) increases circulation of blood through the area; 3) reduces irritation of kidneys and bladder; 4) fights infection and resists reinfection.
You can see that DeWITT'S PILLS are at work when "the blue comes through." Get DeWITT'S PILLS today without prescription.

PLEASE HELP ME TO HELP MY SON

MY SON LEMEUL SMITH 17 years old, 6' tall, 210 lbs.

MRS. MILDRED SMITH

This is the last thing I can do to help my boy. A jury has found him guilty of a serious assault. He might be sentenced to 20 years in the Penitentiary. I'M SURE HE'S INNOCENT. At his trial the jury did not believe he was playing on the outdoor basketball court at Douglass High School during the morning of July 30, 1958, when the assault was committed. He wore dungarees, white tee shirt and white shoes. If you played with him, or know anyone who did please telephone me.

Teacher changes at Douglass High

By BETTIE GILLIS

There have been some changes in the faculty here at Douglass High School.

Mrs. Mae Wright has been appointed head of the English Department at Lemmel Junior High and Mrs. Catherine Tate now chairs the science department of the same school.

Also transferred were Miss Joellen Lofton, English teacher and Mrs. Ann Pickney, librarian, who was replaced by Mrs. Alma Gray. Mrs. Thelma Lawrence returns to the English department after a brief illness.

New teachers at Douglass are Frederick L. Joyness, from Patterson Park High School, and Robert Mitchell, transferred from School No. 180 in Cherry Hill.

An earlier transfer was that of Miss Essie M. Hughes, former cover-coordinator, now special assistant to the principal at Clifton Park Junior High School.

* * *

NEW OFFICERS OF the Student Council are Cecil Wheeler, president; Leo Burroughs, vice president; Barbara Coleman, secretary, and Irma Keeter, treasurer.

Graduation took "Douglass Courier" editors Betty Clark, Alfreda Wiggins, Roger Brown and Margaret Richardson and they have been replaced by Morris Street, editor-in-chief; Edwin Leverette, associate editor; Bettie Gillis, news editor; Patricia Dorsey, editorials; Brenda Wood, feature editor; Robert Brown, Donald Smith, sports editor; Len Murphy, photography and Thomas Carney, artist.

Douglass girls are anticipating the Simplicity Pattern Fashion Show scheduled for Feb. 18 in the school auditorium.

Hepbron hearing on Thursday

ANNAPOLIS — This coming Thursday has been tentatively set for the public inquiry here into the administration of Baltimore's police department under Police Commissioner James M. Hepbron.

The hearing will be in the hands of Baltimore's 36-member House of Delegates representatives, of whom Marvin Mandel, 5th District, is chairman.

Jerome Robinson, veteran 4th District House member, released on Tuesday a 12-page statement of charges against Mr. Hepbron and his administration, which he alleges arises from:

1. Flouting of civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of Baltimore;

2. Errors in judgment and administration;

3. Concepts of policing which, because of brutality and insensitivity, are shocking to decent thinking people.

* * *

THE ROBINSON document lists 17 major charges against Mr. Hepbron and his administration. They include:

1. Illegal taps of private and public telephones; 2. Mass arrests; 3. Planting of evidence; 4. Early morning arrests of innocent citizens.

5. Holding a stolen car complainant incommunicado (this refers to the Northwestern District case involving Sgt. Henry Scott); 6. Suspension of personnel without preferring charges and affording prompt hearings;

7. Placing his friend and neighbor in charge of the K-1 Corps at an excessive salary; 8. His intention to use police equipment; 9. Failure to conduct vigorous investigation of allegations of misconduct and malfeasance on part of members of his Rackets Squad;

9. Failure to properly supervise and control Rackets Squad; 10. Yacht trip to Annapolis; 11. Friendship and Annapolis motorcade; 12. Friends in on wire tap room;

13. Green Spring Ave. assault by police officer on 15-year-old boy; 14. "Slipshoeing" by members of the police department, in the wounding or killing of suspects or prisoners;

15. Two young girls, age 9 and 10, used as human bait in a suspected morals case; 16. Bainder case, involving alleged treatment by a policeman to an attorney; 17. Allegation that a recent grand jury suggested a retire-to-duty commissioner because of doubt of the administration of the police department under Mr. Hepbron.
