Dr. Butcher to speak

WASHINGTON

Dr. Margaret Just Butcher, noted author and professor of English at Howard University, will be the keynote speaker for the 31st annual Founder's Day commemoration of Alpha Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, on Feb. 15 in Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel.

The theme of the program is "Pride in the past, Gratitude for the present, Faith in the future. — Forward to a new era of service."

Bantu cleric, 45, studying journalism

BOSTON — A 45 - year - old Bantu minister from the Union of South Africa, now studying journalism at Boston University, firmly believes the African people will not yield to the "glitter of Communism" because of their strong religious heritage.

He is the Rev. Arthur S. Grootboom, a minister of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, member of the Betonkeng tribe, and one of the founders of its high school.

The vivacious, well - spoken minister who taught for 20 years in the elementary schools of his country, feels his people will never accept "any doctrine that embodies as one of its principles, the denial of God."

He added that the United States could do much to save the African people from being wooed and won by Russia, however, "by helping to train African technologists and by giving aid to the independent states in Africa."

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

By MILTON E. ELICKSON

"EVERY MAN IS LIKE THE COMPANY HE IS WONT TO KEEP . . ." —Euripides

This is another way of saying, we suppose, that "birds of a feather flock together."

Good or bad, honorable or no, people tend to gravitate toward others who share common ambitions, beliefs and ideals. Generally speaking, people seek out companionship where they know that like attitudes are to be found, where a sympathetic audience for their strengths or weaknesses is readily available.

Whatever standards an individual may answer to, it is the main with others of like a reasonably safe assumption that this person will associate mien and character.

Prayers and cards for our friend and one of Baltimore's oldest morticians, John M. Johnson, who is in Ft. Howard Veterans Hospital. Wish him a speedy recovery.

It is more than a reasonably safe assumption, by the way, that you will receive every consideration at ELLIOTT FUNERAL HOME when you need it most. Understanding services that attend to all details are standard at ELLIOTT FUNERAL HOME, 1129 N. Caroline St. Phone EAstern 7-6590.
