Tito touring Africa

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia — Yugoslavia's President Tito arrived in this city last week as part of his "Asian African goodwill tour" which so far has covered over 20,000 miles.

President Tito last visited Addis Ababa in 1955. He is the guest of Emperor Haile Selassie.

"EVERY MAN IS LIKE THE COMPANY HE IS WONT TO KEEP . . ." —Euripides

This is another way of saying, we suppose, that "birds of a feather flock together."

Good or bad, honorable or no, people tend to gravitate toward others who share common ambitions, beliefs and ideals. Generally speaking, people seek out companionship where they know that like attitudes are to be found; where a sympathetic audience for their strengths or weaknesses is readily available.

Whatever standards an individual may answer to, it is the main with others of like a reasenably safe assumption that this person will associate men and character.

Prayers and cards for our friend and one of Baltimore's oldest morticians, John M. Johnson, who is in Ft. Howard Veterans Hospital. Wish him a speedy recovery.

It is more than a reasonably safe assumption, by the way, that you will receive every consideration at ELLIOTT FUNERAL HOME when you need it most. Understanding services that attend to all details are standard at ELLIOTT FUNERAL HOME, 1129 N. Caroline St. Phone EAstern 7-6590.

Dr. Butcher to speak

WASHINGTON

Dr. Margaret Just Butcher, noted author and professor of English at Howard University, will be the keynote speaker for the 51st annual Founder's Day commemoration of Alpha Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, on Feb. 15 in Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel.

The theme of the program is "Pride in the past, Gratitude for the present, Faith in the future; — Forward to a new era of service."

Bantu cleric, 45, studying journalism

BOSTON — A 45 - year - old Bantu minister from the Union of South Africa, now studying journalism at Boston University, firmly believes the African people will not yield to the "glitter of Communism" because of their strong religious heritage.

He is the Rev. Arthur S. Grootboom, a minister of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, member of the Befonkeng tribe, and one of the leaders of its high school.

The vivacious, well - spoken minister who taught for 20 years in the elementary schools of his country, feels his people will never accept "any doctrine that embodies as one of its principles, the denial of God."

He added that the United States could do much to save the African people from being wooed and won by Russia, however, "by helping to train African technologists and by giving aid to the independent states in Africa."

CAMPUS NOTES

Hail, hail, the campus crowd is still with us

By LAVANIA RICE

Let's talk about our friends little this week, huh?

Glenn McGill, ex-writer of "Hi-Fi Chatter," has returned to the City and is now attending Baltimore Junior College.

Alice Williams and Dolly Silver, two members of the very popular W.S.'s had the pleasure of taking in as members Alberta Morton and Damon Mosby.

George Allen, ex-Morganite is now attending the Virginia Theological Seminary.

THE PLACE TO find friends now-days is Morgan College's new canteen in the new McKeldin Student Union Building. The juke-box is steadily jumping and the sound of merry voices show how happy Morganites are to have "a place of their own."

There is more room now to do the "shag," and the "elephant walk" (elephant walkers do need room, don't they?)

Glen McGill our expert in the field of fashion says the newest fads are these shaggy sweaters and desert boots.

The girls are also quite keen in their sweaters and "French Twists."

The guys are going continental with their "Van Dykes" pointed goatee?" and tapered pants.

These imported sweaters guys are wearing are also strictly "boss."

S. and N. Katz is supplying an awful lot of coeds with engagement rings.

DIG THESE FAMOUS last words:

Walter Gill says, "Say! Like what's happening, ole chap."

Clift Henry says, "That ain't hardly right."

Vernetta Watson says, "Who, me" Gee! Whizz!"

Those cheers heard by anyone within a ten mile radius of Morgan State College Saturday were supposed to be the push that brought the team to victory.

JOHNNY GREEN'S party at his home, 3510 Woodbrook Ave. was "really swing something." Ask anyone who was there. They'll tell you. His record collection hot, hot, hot, too.

A few of the guests were: Arlene Irby, Art Williams, Frank Chester, Dorothy Massey, Jean Shands, Jerome Wilson, Rita Watkins, Ernie Peisen, Charoline Smith, Jerry Phillips, McNair Taylor, Paul Smith and Arthur Waters.

LET'S MOVE ALONG to the Personality of the Week!

Look who we found. — Leonard Randall Jr., a native of Annapolis, Md., and graduate of Bates High School.

Lennie goes to Morgan now and he is majoring in art. His great ambition—is to teach school on the West Coast.

A member of the Morgan football team, the guy is also interested in baseball. Likes painting, too.

Hummmm—an artistic football player. . . ?

See you next week.

33 colleges receive $577,000 from UNCF

NEW YORK — The 33 member colleges of the United Negro College Fund received a total of $577,000 as the final allocation of 1958 campaign proceeds, Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the Fund, announced. Earlier grants were distributed in June and November, 1958.

More than $1,843,000 was contributed to UNCF during its 1958 nation-wide appeal. Approximately 10 percent of the combined operating budgets of the colleges is raised by the Fund each year.
