Schoolboy 5's in crucial week

The most vital week of the 1959 campaign gets under way this afternoon (Friday) on three fronts in the Maryland Scholastic Association basketball race.

Hopes of three contenders for the Division 2 title hinge on the results of games scheduled between now and next Tuesday evening, what with the three top rivals faced with crucial and, more than likely, decisive contests.

* * *

CITY COLLEGE is atop Division 2 at the moment with a 7-1 record, one-half game ahead of second place Carver. In third place in the standings, Dunbar.

City, unbeaten through the first semester, took it on the chin Tuesday when Mt. St. Joe eked out a 31-30 decision. The defeat gave hope to the other two contenders, both of whom had predicted things would be rougher for the Collegians following their loss of Maceo Williams via February graduation.

Having been squelched by the Saints, City is now faced with the not-too-pleasant task of meeting Loyola, Dunbar and Carver in successive skirmishes. The Collegians tangle with Loyola today (Friday) at Loyola. visit Dunbar Tuesday, then play host to an ambitious Carver quint next Friday.

* * *

DUNBAR, ON the other hand, was shocked by the 57-42 lacing Douglass handed out Tuesday, even though the Poets didn't suffer from it in the standings. Douglass is in Division 1, consequently neither hurt Dunbar nor profited herself from the triumph — except, of course, from a morale standpoint.

The Poets return to their division today and should have little trouble with Edmondson at Edmondson. This contest may be just what Sugar Cain's youngsters need to get back on the beam in time for the City invasion next week. Still their troubles won't be over, however, as the Poets must visit improved Mt. Joe after the tilt with City.

* * *

CARVER APPEARS to hold the edge in scheduling. If Sodie White's Trainers can get over St. Joe today (Friday), they will enjoy the distinct advantage of opposing the not-too-dangerous Edmondson five Tuesday at the same moment that Dunbar and City are battling each other.

Moreover, the Whitemen may benefit from the fact that their visit to City on next Friday will mark the fourth tough assignment in a row for the DiFassio forces. By then City may be softened up considerably.

DOUGLASS, ON the other hand, is out of the Division 1 race, but just may loom as a "spoiler" for the title contenders in their bracket.

Mack Payne's youngsters are an improved lot as attested by their game with Carver last week. In that one the Ducks took their favored rivals right up to the last two minutes before being licked.

Against Dunbar Tuesday, they didn't stop.

After Mervo today, Mack Payne's lads take on Poly Tuesday, then wrap up the season with Patterson Park on the 27th. Poly is in second place, Patterson in first place in their division — SAM LACY.

Morgan entered in two meets

Two meets in a row will keep the Morgan State College track team busy this weekend.

The Bears will run tonight (Friday) in the Philadelphia Inquirer Games and again tomorrow (Saturday) in the New York Athletic Club Meet in Madison Square Garden.

The two meets will find Paul Winder, a mile relay team, and a two-mile relay team in action team for the Bears.

Winder, nosed out last week by an inch, will compete in the 50-yard dash.

The mile relay team of Si Keller, Tom Anderson, Hosea Smith, and Nick Ellis will run against Manhattan and Villanova.

The Bears have been trying to catch up with Manhattan all season and almost made it last week losing the contest by a yard.

Lou Smith, Bob Ridley, Ronald Merriweather, Lee Martin and Walter Cole will provide the foursome for the two mile

AWAIT MONDAY BELL — Boom Boom Lester (above) and Wayne Bethea, one-time heavyweight title contender, tapered off in local gyms over the weekend in preparation for their Monday night fight at the Coliseum. It will be Lester's first outing since he won the Maryland State heavyweight title from Bert Whitehurst last month. Bethea is on a comeback after losing rank as the No. 5 challenger to Floyd Patterson.

Bears rout Bisons, 96-60

The Morgan State College basketball team steamrolled over hapless Howard University, 96 - 60, at the Hurt Gymnasium on Wednesday night. Howard's basketball team was completely outclassed.

The Bears will meet Lincoln tonight, (Friday) and Winston-Salem tomorrow here.

From Morgan's opening 7-0 lead that was scored by Bob Walters, Howard never had a chance. Within the first five minutes of play, every member of Morgan's starting five had scored. When the Bisons called time after 6.37 of play and the score against them at 18-9, the crowd sensed that Howard was already under the influence of knockout blows.

MORGAN had jumped into the lead on exceptionally balanced team play. This is best illustrated among the point makers.

Harry Johnson, shaking his shooting slump, was high point man with 22 point; team captain Charley Brightful was second with 21, and Walters was third collecting 20. In rounding out the starting five, Cecil Bond had 15 points while Henry Briscoe tallied 14.

The only bright spot in the shooting of Howard's ball club was the 28 points collected by team captain Ernie Bell.

MORGAN led at half - time 49 - 35. During the second half, the Bears, behind the ball-hawking and shooting of Walters, completely buffaloed the visitors.

Howard called time after 4:15 of the second period. The score had jumped to 57 - 42. After 8:27 of play, Howard had fallen behind, 71-46.
