"THE TRUTH IS ALWAYS THE STRONGEST ARGUMENT . . . ." Sophocles

When we listen to some of the many credos and philosophies which fight for our attention and acceptance these days, it is sometimes difficult to sort truth from untruth; truth from half-truth. Skillfully contrived and artfully delivered, untruths can sometimes present a powerful and convincing argument in their behalf. The gullible, the weak, and the shallow thinkers are often caught up in an alluring but dangerous web spun of false beliefs and promises.

However, a quick and ready argument, the strongest argument — truth — is available to any and all who take the trouble to seek it out and to use it.

The Eastside Community choir rendered a wonderful program at Koinonia, an interracial, non-denominational foundation. A training center, near Baltimore in Green Spring Valley. The name Koinonia (from New Testament Greek) means fellowship—The Eastside Choir is under the direction of Mr. John H. Miller.
