BALTIMORE BEAT

Poets act like Colts, rise from the 'grave' to win

By SAM LACY
AFRO Sports Editor

They have "buried" the Dunbar High School basketball team twice this season, but as the Maryland Scholastic Association title race nears its close nobody in the city is more definitely alive than the never-say-die Poets from East Baltimore.

Dunbar was being fitted for her basketball "coffin" three weeks ago, after she dropped her second game in the Division 2 race, bowing to Carver High, 53-50.

She again was being laid out Tuesday afternoon as the game with City College — a "must" for the Poets — entered its final half - minute with City sporting a seemingly safe, 5 - point lead.

But the Poets refused to stay "dead" — both times.

TAKING A leaf from the book of the Baltimore Colts, who came back from what looked like certain oblivion to win the world championship in spectacular fashion, the Poets won consistently after their second setback in January. By so doing, they clung to a mathematical chance is a down to the wire fight with their two earlier conquerors — City and Carver.

On Tuesday, Dunbar erased that 5 - point deficit to beat back City and take over second place, just one game behind Carver.

BY THE same token, Carver was regarded as something of a question - mark when she absorbed a licking at the hands of City on January 23.

Inasmuch as this was only the third game of the MSA season for the Trainers, there was all indication to dismiss them as a serious threat for the division title. But they, too, bounced back winning every time they went to the post thereafter.

Knocking over Dunbar and Mt St Joe the Trainers were able to take over first place when City was tripped by Loyola last week. Then when the Poets toppled City Tuesday, the race to all intents and purposes, was narrowed down to a headon scrap between Carver and Dunbar.

ALL OF which sets the stage for a dramatic climax to the Division 2 scramble.

Carver, on top with a record of 8 - 1, tangles with City at City College today.

At the same time, Dunbar must visit Mt. St. Joe, which gained distinction earlier in the month by becoming the first team to halt the then unbeaten Collegians.

It all boils down to an electric finish, when Carver and Dunbar bang heads in the last game of the schedule, February 27, at Carver.

ELEGANT ELLIS — Keyed by a 49.2 anchor leg by Nick Ellis defending Morgan State College mile relay team captured the featured Liberty Bell race in 3:21.7 Friday night at the Philadelphia Inquirer track meet.

Winder, Ellis carry Morgan hopes in AAU

NEW YORK — Morgan State College track men go for stardards in earnest tomorrow (Saturday) night when they compete in the National AAU indoor track championships at Madison Square Garden.

Paul Winder, toe Pleasantville, N.J. flash who has been winning consistently in the sprints all season, heads the individual entries, Coach Eddie Hurt announced.

Winder will run in the 60 - yard dash together with teammates Pinkney Mercrady, Joseph Harris and Lawson Smart. Nick Ellis is the 600 yard entry and Randolph Tate, a freshman, will try the broad jump.

A MILE RELAY team a year ago, sparkling medley team, and possibly a freshman mile relay team will be the other Morgan entries.

The meet will mark the debut this season of the sprint medley team Hurt has selected for this team. Bob Rollins, Tom Smith, Mercrady, and Winder running anchor.

THE USUAL foursome will run on the mile relay team—Si Keller, Tom Anderson, Hosea Smith, and Ellis in the anchor spot.

This team finally caught in with Manhattan last week in the Philadelphia Inquirer Games and won its race in 3:21.7 time, just seven tenths of a second off the meet record.

The foursome ran well last Saturday but was nosed out by a fast Pittsburgh foursome in the New York A.C. meet.

Dunbar's 'little miracle' tops City in last second

Scoring eight points in the closed Leach for a drive, in consulted with coaches Cain last 30 seconds of play, Dunbar High School performed the "little miracle" of MSA basketball Tuesday afternoon by snatching a 50-55 decision from City College.

Counted out by everyone save themselves, the Poet cagers put on the most electrifying performance of the scholastic campaign to stave off extinction from the title race. Victory for them was a "must" and there was barely a witness in the Dunbar gym who believed they could pull it off.

But pull it off they did, so that today (Friday) Sugar Cain's scrappy aggregation is back in the thick of the fight from which they were thought to be eliminated after a January 29, loss to Carver.

ALREADY BOASTING a 58 - 51 victory over Dunbar on January 20, City was in front 51 - 50, going into the closing minute of Tuesday's contest. A time - out call gave Cain the opportunity to set up a full - press defense, whereby loss of the ball is not a signal to retreat to the backcourt but one to continue pressing to regain possession.

Charley Leach, easily one of the loop's most versatile performers, hit a one - hander. He followed with an immediate steal, and drove in for a layup to close the gap to 53-54.

WITH THE rest of the Poets getting the swing, City's rebound men, Steve Wainwright and Dick Snyder, became befuddled. Every time they came off the backboard, they looked up to see a determined Poet dogging their tracks.

The result was an errant pass that was captured by Willie Phillips near midcourt. Phillips let go and the cards swished to put Dunbar within one point, at the 22 - second mark.

Wainwright drew a foul and went to the line for two shots, one of which found the mark, and City led, 58-56, with nine seconds remaining.

A FAST break downcourt by THIS TIME the fans were moving out of the stands and onto the floor, making it necessary for time to be called while officials fix the clock. By the time order was restored, the clock stay had run out and the referee had not yet blown his whistle signaling the end of the game.

Coach Ray Allman, — SAM LACY.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itch and give relief from pain, without surgery.

In one hemorrhoidal case after another, this amazing improvement was reported and verified by doctors. Most sufferers felt the relieved promptness. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction in contraction (shrinking) took place.

And now! Amazing of all, this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were confirmed over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoidal conditions, some of little 20-years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or any ingredient of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — discovery of a world famous research institute. Miracle ointment Bio-Dyne is made available for healing relief to one in all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. CIAA division is doubtful for this year

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Despite rumors circulated for the past two weeks that Council of Presidents of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, might vote to divide the conference at its meeting held at A. and T. College on last Saturday, no final action was taken.

It is highly doubtful any structural changes in the CIAA will be made this year. That is the opinion of a spokesman for the Council who talked with reporters, following the all-day meet.

THE COUNCIL did set in motion a program which might lead to some changes next year, aimed at relieving some of the problems connected with its large unwieldy membership in which there is wide variance in the emphasis in intercollegiate sports competition.

At the meeting, which was reported "very harmonious," the group drafted the following resolutions:

"Resolved that it is the sense of this Council that the question of division within the Conference be studied. The Council invites the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association to select a committee to work with a committee from the Council of Presidents in the preparation of recommendations relative to a division of the Conference and structural changes related there for submission to the Council at its next annual meeting in 1960"

The group will meet in February, 1960, at Maryland State College, Princess Anne, Md.

A&T crush Eagles, 84-65; clinch 2nd CIAA cage title

DURHAM, N.C. — North Carolina College's hoopsters fell victims to the crushing attack of the A. and T. Aggies here Saturday night and dropped a lop-sided 84-65 contest to Cal Irvin's charges, who wrapped up their second visitation championship.

The Eagles with a CIAA log of 11 and 6 slipped down in the loop's standings, while the Aggies notched their 17th victory.

A CAPACITY crowd jammed NCC's arena to watch the bitter rivalry between the Eagles and the Aggies.

However, the Aggies wasted no time in running up a lead over the homecourt Eagles, piling up a 10-1 lead before the first field goal after 3 minutes of unsuccessful heaving. Carlton (Ding Dong) Bell dropped in the Eagles' first field goal on a jumper from the corner.

THE AGGIES, led by the sensational Joe Howell, a 6-6 senior from Philadelphia, Pa., built up a 19-point spread over the Eagles and led 37-18 with 2:30 left in the initial stanza. The first half ended with A. and T. out front 41-22.

Howell, captain of the Aggies, and an all-conference candidate, tallied 19 points the first half to pace the potent Aggie offensive attack.

WITH CAPT. Don Burke scoring ace Duke Martin, and Cal Alexander all with three personal fouls on them at the end of the first half, Floyd Brown had to use his reserves much of the second stanza.

Irvin went to his bench the second half and his reserves, Walt Holtsclaw and Hank Marshall, turned in stellar performances, with Holtsclaw scoring all 12 of his points in the last 5 minutes.

THE EAGLES, playing perhaps their last impressive game of the season, after showing brilliantly in the first meeting between the two clubs in Greensboro, could not get their attack rolling.

With Alvin Attles, the flashy crowd - pleasing backcourtman, and Howell fast breaking on them most of the evening, the Eagles' defense could not check the Aggie machine.

Finally, after 5 minutes of the last half lapsed, Brown's cagers went into a full court press, but that did not work on the fluid-like driving of Attles and Howell, both expert ball-handlers and dribblers. As a result, both Martin and Alex under fouled out of the contest with more than 5 minutes of playing time remaining.

Eagles release Bell on waivers

PHILADELPHIA (ANP) — Eddie Bell, defensive back and former University of Penn All-American footballer, has been released by the Philadelphia Eagles on waivers.

The 27-year-old player was contacted by the coach of the Hamilton Tiger - Cats, Jim Trimble, and offered "a pretty good deal." He is expected to sign a contract with the Hamilton team of the Canadian League.

BELL IS quoted as saying "the Eagles and I parted on the best of terms. "My only regret is that I could have played a little more than I did toward the end of the season."

Bell lives in Elkins Park (Pa.) and works as a lab technician with General Electric during the off-season. If Bell does sign a contract with Hamilton he will move his family during the football season.

Morgan bows, to end season tonite

Beaten Wednesday night for the tenth time in 15 starts, the Morgan State College basketball team was prepared to write "finis" to its poorest season in 20 years tonight (Friday).

Coach Marse Hill's charges, red hot in a 15-point shellacking 99-84 at the hands of Delaware State College, were hoping to gain some measure of comfort from a closing victory over Maryland State tonight.

In an earlier stto with th Eastrn Shore Hawks, Morgan suffered a 84-64 drubbing at Princess Anne. The game this evening, then, provides an opportunity for the Bears not only to wrap up the year with a win but a chance for revenge on their arch rivals as well.

DELAWARE MADE it look easy after a first half in which the Bears built up a 43-39 lead. Three and a half minutes after resumption of play, the Hornets had gone in front, 45-44. Morgan tied it as Charley Brightful hit a free throw, but Bob Pierson tallied from the floor moments later and the visiting Hornets were on top to stay.

Two youngsters who might be labbed "shorties" according to some the key figures in the Delaware triumph. They were James Dixon, a 5-11 sharpshooter, and Billy Arrington, a 5-7 playmaker.

Dixon, hitting from outside with deadly accuracy, paced the game's scorers with a spectacular 37-point output. And Arrington, with his knack of being at the right place at the right time, captured an unbelievable number of rebounds, stole the ball repeatedly and otherwise made life miserable for the home folk.

Harry Johnson jumped the Bears in front in the early moments, putting two baskets with one by Henry Briscoe to establish a 6-2 advantage.

the lead momentarily as Dixon got hot for three consecutive two-pointers, but Johnson had them bac in the van in no time. Scoring ten of his team's first 1 points, Johnson was largely responsible for the 18-15 edge the Bears held midway of the first half.

With Brightful and Briscoe getting sharp as the action continued, the locals opened a 9-point bulge, to 32-23, then enlarged it to 11 points, 40-29 going into the last fiveminutes of the period.

In that time however, Dixon, Pierson, Arrington and Charley Bratcher collaborated to close the gap to be behind four points, 43-39, at the brea.

BRIGHTFUL AND Cecil Bonds drew cheers from the fans as they pumped in shots to enhance the Bear cause. But thereafter Dixon raced two, Arrington one on a steal, Bratcher scored on a set and Noble collected two successive pivot shots to erase the deficit.

It was at this point that Delaware State's 19 were next to Dixon's top effort for the Hornets.
