charming male model, Clifton Hutchinson, to set the style pace for your man, as well as to enhance her beautiful creations.

Mrs. Doris Moore, a member of the faculty of School No. 230 recently attended the Reading-Study Center at the University of Delaware, Newark.

The two-day session had several reading specialists as consultants and used the theme "The Science and Philosophy of Reading."

Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Morgan State College and is at present doing graduate work at Loyola College. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Wedding reception for Delores Robinson, town teacher, and Henry Sands, Morgan State College student, took place in the Chesapeake Club, Saturday.

The reception apexed the whirlwind courtship that resulted in a secret marriage the past fall. When the bride's mother was told of the marriage she immediately began plans for the reception.

Out - of - town guests included the mother and sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Alice Sands and Miss Judy Sands of Jamaica, L.I., N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Patterson, Mrs. Hattie Oakes, Mrs. Grace Buchanan, and Mrs. Lucy Roy, all of Glen Cove, L.I., N.Y.; and Mrs. Bercille Fresenwriter of Batavia, Ill.

WHEN KAPPA CHAPTER, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority held its regular monthly meeting, Soror Pauline Brooks was hostess.

The report of Phi Group given by Soror Mildred Ayers, expressed gratitude to Herbert Frisby in sharing his experiences at the North Pole with the sorority members and their friends during the celebration of Negro History Week.

The surprise of the evening was at the point when Mr. Frisby was inducted into the Society of Living Makers of History. The sorority has now awarded 72 persons such an honor for outstanding contributions to the community and to Maryland.

Guests present included Mesdames Granville Wilmore, Cliff W. Mackey, James Gaskins, Misses Helen Pindell, Mary Utley, Messrs. Lee Ball, James Newton, and Clarence Ball.

Plans have been completed for six high school students to participate in the National Scholarship Contest which is to be conducted on March 14 at Polytechnic Institute.

Tentative plans were discussed of the spring cabaret party to be given in April for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Sorors Marion Ransome and Claudine Franks were elected as delegates to the Maryland League of Women's Club Luncheon. Soror Fannie B. Poulson is slated for corresponding secretary in the election and Soror Mable C. Waters is serving as chairman of employment.

A report was given of the progress of the sorority project at the House of Good Shepherd where Sorors Vivian Young and Mable Waters are teaching business education to the young people there. Sorors Gladys Ball and Anna White will be added to the staff in March to teach good grooming. The project is turning out to be quite successful and helpful.

Members present were Sorors Evelyn Wilkey, Margaret Johnson, Margaret Robinson, Gladys Ball, Anna White, Emma H. Brown, Jessie Nicholson, Caudine Franks, Mildred Ayers, Gladys Palmer, Sarah F. Diggs, and Vivian Young.

Hostesses for the meeting were Sorors Pauline Brooks, Mary Brittain, and Mable C. Waters.

Chi Wives were guests of Mrs. Carroll B. Lee on Monday, when they welcomed four new members, one a bride.

The bride is Mrs. William Ross. Other inductees were Mesdames Charles David son, Lonnie Green and Warren Lee.

Wives at the session included Mesdames James Hawkins, Walter Shervington, George E. Brown, Nelson Williams, B. N. Christmas, Clarence Reynolds, B. H. Christmas, Edward Mc-Daniels, Walter Davidson, T. W. Anderson and Richard Hunt, who is president of the group.

ANNE FITZGERALD SIMS, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Fitzgerald Sims, recently celebrated her nineteenth birthday with a "get - to - gether" of friends from three to seven in the evening at her home, 1118 Druid Hill Avenue.

For many of the guests this occasion served as a first reunion since their junior high school graduation in June of 1953. After bridging the gap of nearly six years with chit-chat, snapshots, music and dancing a delicious repast was enjoyed.

Among those who "dropped by" to greet the honoree on her natal day were:

Louise Brown, Anneva Campbell, Marian Dairs, Shirley Dixon, Alicia Johnson, Barbara Johnson, Malvadean Jones, Jerome Kelly, Gloria Kilgore, Maudeclaire McLeod, Mahion Oswell, Alirn Parker, Albert Pasteur, James Robinson, Rosa Lee Taver, Mrs. Lucille Fitzgerald, Miss Nannie W. Gray, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Mrs. Jessie Fitzgerald Lennon.

THE REV. MARCUS WOOD, pastor of Providence Baptist Church was guest speaker at the February meeting of the Mondawmin Child Study Group.

Members asked questions pertaining to the religious training of the child, which the Rev. Mr. Wood answered. It also discussed problems faced by the church in its efforts to develop a religious program to meet the needs of children and adolescents.

Five new members who joined the club were Joyce Neal, Bettina Baker, Mae Woods, Bernice Robinson and Thelma Rogers. New members were welcomed by the president, Carolyn Boston and were presented with red and white carnations.

An added attraction at the meeting was a gift shower for the hostess, Naketah Gregory. Since this was the first time that members had been to Naketah's new residence on Wabash Avenue, each took along a gift that she might use in her new home.

Other members attending the meeting were Alease Lockley, Vivian Bruce, Leona Carpenter, Magdalene Rice, Erma DeBeal, Dorothy George, La Moyne Matthews, Ruby Couch, and Gladys Brockington.

Mrs. Marcus Wood was a guest.

CATONSVILLE, Md. Md. Catonsville, My Home Town

Some folks leave home for fame,
Some see skies always sunny
Some depart in shame.
I care not what the reason
We boys travel east and west,
Or what the month or season:
Catonsville is best.
Catonsville is the glad town
Where something real abides,
'Tis not the money mad town
That all its spirit hides.
Though strangers scoff and down it,
And even jeer its name,
They leave and come straight back again.
It has a charm about it
No other town can claim.
Skies seem bluer than the skies of Pennsylvania.
The home girls seem truer and sweeter in some way;
Light hearted or depressed.
My home is the best.
(By Jack Heart, better known as Authur Hardy).

THE FLEMING ELEMENTARY School gave a donation of $500 The Turner Elementary School Health Committee is selling candy. The library group has given a dance. What organization will be next to sponsor an activity to benefit this worthy cause for the welfare of the community?

The regular monthly meeting of the Turner Station Health Committee will be held at the Sellers Homes maintenance office on Saturday, March 7, at 1 p.m. Persons interested in the project underway are invited to attend the meeting. If you have a donation to give to the cause please feel free to bring it on Saturday. Robert L. Abbott is the president.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Christ the Holy Catholic Church expresses thanks to all who cooperated in making its spaghetti dinner a success. This is another example of how the people of the area work together for the good of the community.
