Basketball clinic at Webb attracts 200 spectators

The Buddy Jeannette Basketball Clinic went off with a bigsmash in the Dunbar High School gym with upward of 200 in attendance. Buddy and his teammate, Red Morrison, demonstrate fundamentals of good basketball.

The teen age department of Chick Webb sponsored a ping pong tournament for the purpose of finding and determining eligible participants, both boys and girls, for the City-wide Tournament to be held in March.

Participants in Wednesday's tournament at Chick Webb included Ruby Pennington, Betty Richburg, Mary Gresham, Mildred Hamlette, Carrie Stewart, James Simmons, Jackson Brown, Elderidge Ragsdale, Laverne Neil, Larry Young, Robert Stewart, Herbert Shofi, Herbert Williams, Charles Roy, George Stanley and Jasper Cheese.

JAMES LOUDEN, adult volunteer, is conducting a weight lifting class at the Chick Webb Recreational Recreation Center. This class meets every Tuesday at 7 p.m. All boys and young men interested in joining this class should visit the center at 623 N. Eden St. or call Dickens 2-3660.

Members already enrolled in the class are Benjamin Booker, Walter Melton, Willie Jackson, Robert Harvell, Artie Button, George Skipwith, Nero Howard, William Larry, Robert King, Raymond Coe and Chuck Neal.

Guy R. Bailey, public school teacher, is volunteering his services as the arts and crafts instructor for the Meteors and Missiles Crafts Classes. The Missiles (13 and 14-year olds) meet on Tuesdays at 4:30 p.m.

The Meteors club and 12-years olds meet on Wednesdays at 4:30. Copper enameling is the craft now being taught.

Any boys or girls between the ages of 10 and 14 who are interested in joining this class should do so immediately. Members already enrolled are Jean Johnson, George Skipwith, Freddie Dixon, Rudolph Brown, Leonard Doles, Mary Jackson, Josephine Malone, Leonard Lanier, Elsie Hopkins, Lillie Mae Williams, Marilyn Gladden, Alexa Washington, Stephanie Jackson, Laura Malone, Linda Perry and Doreen Lindsay.

The Chick Webb Wolfhounds, recently eked out a 28-25 victory over the Lancers, Boys Club at the Webb Pool After the meet, Mrs. Wiley Finch, Mrs. Ida Petty and Lawrence Smith served referees, assists in all of the competitors. Robert Hammerman is the Lancers coach and Wilbert Richardson coaches the Webbmen.

A teen cooking class has been formed at the Chick Webb Center under the volunteer leadership of Miss Phyllis Bailey. Members of this class, thus far are Arlene Miller, Bettye Rowe, Mary Jackson, Elizabeth Mack, Frankie Smith and Sarah Brown.

WITHIN THE past week the Chick Webb Eagles, a neighborhood Teen Age Club, downed the Lancers Boys Club (15-20) and copped the second round victory of the East Baltimore Monumental Junior League by outscoring the School No. 101 Vikings, 52-30.

Members of the victorious Eagles are Julius Williams, Ralph Leach, Nathaniel Pryor, John Macon, David Clifton, Alvis Gunn, Ralph Harris, James Ashworth and Richard Arrington. Sherman Desmond and Clarence Willis are co-managers of the team.

Final standings of the Chick Webb Center Ping Pong Tournament held this past week are in, and results are as follows:

James Simmons, champion, George Stanley, runner-up, Ronald Stewart, third, Jackson Brown, fourth; William Banks, fifth; David Cheatham, sixth, Leonard Logan, seventh, and John Oliver, eighth. Miss Elva Reaves and Clarence Willis are the leaders in charge.

ORGANIZATION OF Teen Council is now an active feature.

The Teen-age division of Chick Webb is looking for interested boys and girls between the ages of 15 and 18 years for the purpose of establishing a program of wholesome recreation for those falling in this age group.

All interested persons should contact the center, 623 N. Eden Street or call Dickens 2-3660.

"A GOOD COOK learns to make the best of what he or she has" so says Mrs. Fannie Newton, recreation leader and advisor to the Kiddie Kooking Club at Chick Webb. These words were never truer than on Wednesday, February 18th when the club met for its regular meeting. The project was the making of a chocolate fudge cake.

What with the flu causing some of the members to be absent, there came the added headache of some of the members ready to cook — but they brought no ingredients.

Not to be out-done by this situation, the group searched desperately for a recipe to include the ingredients on hand and they finally came up with one. A delicious sponge cake was made and completely devoured by the eight young cooks in attendance.

The cooks included Christine Steward, Sylvia Stewart, Sharon Sharp, Shirley McCoy, Stephanie Jackson, Deborah Miller and Aaron Sharp.

Rehearsals for the Easter program are being held at Chick Webb Center on Mondays and Thursday afternoons at 5 o'clock.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to participate. Anyone who is particularly interested in singing or speaking parts is asked to contact Mrs. Fannie Newton, leader in charge. T. Madison Garrison is center director at Chick Webb.

FIRST TRY AT FIRST — Larry Doby may have started a new career for himself when he switched from the outfield to first base his first day in the Cleveland Indians' spring training camp at Tucson, Ariz. Doby, who says he'll play anywhere that manager Joe Gordon needs him, is being watched by coach Red Kress as he practice for a few thrills.

Clipper scoring with a one-handed jump from the top of the bucket.

AL GOETZEL followed with another 2-pointer and Bob Levy sank a free throw.

Jim Lewis made it 2-0 before the Poets could find the range. That was Leach's free throw, the first one Dunbar converted after six straight misses.

WITH THE scoreboard showing a 9-1 Patterson lead, they put on the first of several "possession" stalls to hold the ball 1 minute and 55 seconds to the end of the first quarter.

Within the first minute of the second period, the Poets on successive hits by Peterson closed the tally to 9-5. But Goetzel and Dave Pierce pulled the Clipper out to 13-5.

AS THE CLOCK showed 3:45 remaining for the half, Patterson again started his "freez-im" tactics.

But this time the poet defense twice stole the ball to get in for buckets.

DUNBAR started her deperate run in the final quarter, by switching to an all-court press. And despite clever ball handling by Jim Lewis and Paul Petrysak, the East Baltimore youngsters were able to force the opposition into error.

By capitalizing on these errors and the timely insertion of little Cliff Owens the Poets pressed ever closer until they were within winning range for La Salle's climactic lunge.

Bernie Greene, Dunbar's thoroughgoing second Dunbar cager, threw in the final stanza, rebounding to complete the scoring.

In the opening game of the evening program, the Dunbar Jun. Junior Varsity turned back Mosher's JV five 42-35.

The second game of the 1953 edition of the Dunbar Poets through 1957 Morgan State College football team, has been signed by the Detroit Lions.

McArthur is a Baltimorean and a graduate of Dunbar High School where he was coached by William Cargill Cain.

Coach Eddie Hurt said he was pleased that McArthur has been given the chance to try his prowess at pro ball and predicted "He should make good."

"MAC, I think was one of the better running backs we ever had here. He has exceptional speed and a good change of pace. Once in the clear he's very difficult to stop," Hurt said.

The Morgan mentor said McArthur could be used in the backfield or at end. He was a 6-1, 205-pound product.

The football season's broadcast begins on April 5 when the Birds play their opener against the Senators in Washington.

squad turned in their uniforms. They were: Bernard Wilson, Cliff Johnson and Jim Buie.

Wilson, a 6 - 6½ pivotman dropped out of school; Johnson, who was generally regarded one of the finest backcourt men in the MSA, flunked out in his studies, and Buie was dropped by coach Sugar Cain "for disciplinary reasons."

Patterson's loss of Johnson was offset in some degree by the return of 6-5 Bob Lui. Academic difficulties cleared up Lui returned to the fold and has been a powerful fixture in the second half of Division 1 play.

PRIOR TO last night's inauguration of the series, Dunbar loomed as the slight favorite to run the crown.

There were two reasons for this feeling.

The first was the impression that Dunbar's competition in Division 1 was somewhat stronger than that faced in Division 2. Reason is that the 1958 champions faced only college Carver, Lacrosse and Mt. St. Joseph, whereas three Polytechnic, Douglass and Southern, the top teams in Division 2.

SECONDLY, local followers of the sport hold to the belief that the Poets were from behind too in first place. Dunbar was able to enter the playoff better prepared for a crucial series than her rival.

The Poets took six straight seasons and eight of the last nine Public School Athletic League crowns. Patterson's teams won the PSAL title in 1951, 1952, 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1957 and 1958. They were runners-up in the 1950 and 1951 campaigns.

Dunbar's teams won the PSAL title in 1950, 1951, 1952, 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1957 and 1958. They were runners-up in the 1950 and 1951 campaigns.

County school cage tourney opens today

BOWIE, Md. — The Maryland Public Secondary schools open semi-finals and finals in their annual basketball tournament here this afternoon (Friday) at Bowie State College.

The meet, a two-day affair, gets under way at 3:30 p.m., and lists eight contests through tomorrow (Saturday) evening.

PLAY BEGINS with a Class D semi-final bracket. In the first game, Carver of Lexington Park, opposes Fort Hill of Elkton, at 3:30. The second game pits Rannecker of Catonsville against Woodson of Charles County, at 4:15 p.m.

Class C semi-finals, scheduled for 6:45 beginning, cards Lincoln of Frederick vs. Belt Alton of Charles County, and Havre de Grace High vs. Robert R. Moton of Easton.

SATURDAY'S afternoon program sets the finals in Class D at 3:45, and in Class C at 4:45. These games, of course, match the two winners of Friday's contests.

The Class B finals at 6:45 p.m., will engage Sollers Point of Dundalk, with Salisbury High.

At 8:15 o'clock, Fairmont Heights and Bates of Annapolis will tangle for the Class A title.
