AFRO VISITORS—The Rev. and Mrs. Clarence M. Long Jr., Washington, visited the AFRO office in Baltimore on Tuesday. The Rev. Mr. Long, now pastor of Mt Airy Baptist Church in the Nation's Capital, was a copy editor for the AFRO before he entered the ministry 16 years ago.

'His every action motivated by love'

Eugene H. Mayo, for many L. H. Smith Lodge, No. 51 Prince Hall Masons, of which Mr. Mayo was a member, was pictured Tuesday as a man "whose every action was motivated by love."

The Rev. Marcus G. Wood, Providence's minister so described Mr. Mayo in delivering the eulogy for the 58-year-old mortician, who died last Friday morning at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Mr. Mayo's favorite Bible passage, asserted Dr. Wood, was the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians, which he termed the "love passage."

"ANY MAN who serves his community well, as did Brother Mayo, gives more than he takes," opined the Rev. Mr. Wood, who consoled the family with the assertion that "he lived a full life, he loved people and his love for the great hymns of the church sustained him in his final hours."

The body, in a bronze casket, surrounded by countless floral wreaths, was on view at Providence from ten o'clock Tuesday morning until the hour of the funeral.

Masonic rites were performed at the church and at graveside by members of the Joseph

A NATIVE of Wilmington, Del., Mr. Mayo was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mayo. He was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and earned his graduate degree at Columbia University.

Later he attended the Julliard School of Music and served as baritone soloist at New York's famed Abyssinia Baptist Church. He was also a graduate of the Simmons School of Mortuary Science.

He was best known in Baltimore as a mortician, having operated his own funeral home at 626 Greene St., from 1939 when he came to Baltimore until failing health compelled him to close it three years ago.

Interment was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Catherine Mayo, a teacher at Douglass High School; a sister, Mrs. Beatrice Lewis of Wilmington and two step brothers, Franklin and Joseph Thompson of Philadelphia. — CWM.

'Within the state of Maryland thousands are continually hungry'

ANNAPOLIS — "We most urgently request you to approve the budget appropriation which will close a small part of the gap between what is needed and what has been allowed."

This plea was made to the members of the General Assembly here Tuesday, in communications from the Maryland State Conference of Social Welfare on behalf of the State's Department of Welfare's 1960 budget.

A hearing on this budget has been set for next Wednesday.

* * *

THE COMMUNICATIONS to the General Assembly members read further, in part:

"The present food allowance is 24 cents per meal for an individual living alone, and as low as 15 cents per meal for members of large families.

"This means that Maryland's food allowance is far below the minimum of 55 cents a meal, which the United States Department of Agriculture has determined is necessary to health and nutrition.

"This means that within the State of Maryland thousands of people are continually hungry. "This means, in the words of a well-known physician 'low-ered resistance to infection such as tuberculosis; poor wound healing, and chronic infection; loss of vigor and emotional stress caused by chronic hunger.'

* * *

"THIS MEANS that rehabilitation — the ultimate goal as well as the ultimate economy —is very difficult.

"Hungry people find it hard to concentrate on anything beyond their hunger."

Average monthly grants for the past year were given as follows:

Aid to dependent children — $26.64; boarding care for children — $52.69; old age assistance — $55.44; assistance to needy blind — $59.56; general public assistance — $39.38; aid to permanently and totally disabled — $63.68.

* * *

THE WELFARE Department had requested increases monthly of from $7.72 to $11.78 in these categories.

Gov. J. Millard Tawes allowed increases of from $1.12 to $1.67 in all but the boarding care of children where a $4.38 increase was allowed.

Total state funds requested for 1960 amounted to $18,468,916. Gov. Tawes allowed $7,641,578.

Granville Jones, Dem leader dies

PHILADELPHIA

The Democratic organization lost a stalwart champion Saturday with the death of state representative Granville E. Jones, a veteran mortician.

Mr. Jones, 59, died at his home, 2233 Christian St., following an illness of several months.

A member of the General Assembly for 13 years, he was at the time of his death serving on three legislative committees. These were the Public Health and Sanitation, the Insurance Committee and the Professional and Liscensure Committee of which he was vice chairman.

* * *

A NATIVE of Baltimore, Mr. Jones operated a funeral establishment here for 28 years. The body will be on view at his home from noon to 3 p.m. Wednesday, March 11, with funeral services set for 7 p.m. at Tindley Temple Methodist Church, where Mr. Jones was a veteran member.

Burial will be on Thursday at Mount Lawn Cemetery. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Jones; two sons, Alfred and Sherman and two daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Bryant, of this city and Emma Tolbert of New York City, and five grandchildren.

Mrs. Milton L. Sollod, chairman of the coming event

By R. DELACY PETERS

Have you ever wondered how the admonishment "Mind your P's and Q's came into being?

It seems that in olden times taproom owners chalked on the walls of their establishments the number of pints and quarts put away by each customer. From time to time the score was checked and if a drinker was found to be in arrears he was cautioned to "Mind your P's and Q's".

We today heed with caution the approach of the Ides of March knowing that for Uncle Sam's income taxes we must mind our P's and Q's. Insurance companies, like MUTUAL BENEFIT, must also mind their P's and Q's in-so-far as Uncle's taxes on income are concerned. In recent legislation a revised house-passed life insurance tax bill would bring in an estimated $560,000,000.00 in taxes of the income of U.S. life insurance companies for 1958.

Frequently taxes due state and federal governments such as income taxes, inheritance taxes and various estate taxes reduce personal estates tremendously. Did you know that MUTUAL BENEFIT SOCIETY now owns plans of insurance that would shortly these various taxes that might reduce your estate and in this fashion would see that your heirs would receive all that you left them. So . . . in the unwinding your P's and Q's it might be well to check the score on MUTUAL BENEFIT'S ability to provide for you on all plans of Insurance. A Thumbnail Sketch of the Messenger

Mr. Elijah Muhammad, "The Messenger of Allah" and Spiritual Leader of the Moslems in the United States, for nearly 30 years, has been passionately concerned with justice and freedom for the American Negro. For He long ago learned, and learned well, the lesson taught that no one individual can rise above the condition of his race. The Messenger has been a solitary man fighting for His ideals and principles. But He has never become discouraged or embittered. For His eloquence, wisdom and inspiration are derived from the triumphant teachings of Allah.

Today he stands alone as the unacclaimed Leader of the American Negro. For, even though there are truths in His insights some people seem afraid of the brilliance of His visions and wisdom, and many are even shocked by His words, we know that intimately He has inspired loyalty, given meaning to their lives, and articulated their aspirations for The Betterment of His People." To them, as a consequence, He has become the Anointed Leader. The Messenger is a remarkable person and the most modest of public men. He has lived and suffered in the midst of the Negro's complicated problems.

The Messenger loves His People! To show His love and admiration His proposes to build a Medical Center. Not for His people only. This will be a non-racial hospital whose purpose shall be to help cure those millions of people who are now overflowing other well-known health institutions. The site has been secured. He also proposes to build an educational center on the Chicago South Side. However, the Messenger needs help to make this most beneficial idea a reality. Whose help? Your help! Your dollars contributed to the Messenger to help secure a medical and educational center are not only contributions but investments in your future, your children. Join us in this colossal venture.
