TOURIN' TURNER STATION

Dr. Prentiss Daniel speaks for Turner Station church

By E. S. McDANIEL

The Balnew-Sparrows Point Branch of the NAACP held its regular monthly meeting at the Community Center on Thursday, March 12 with the first vice president the Rev. James A. Everett, presiding. The special guest of the evening was Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Maryland Conference and the Baltimore City NAACP AND THE Baltimore City NAACP.

This organization over the years has done so much for the advancement and the welfare of the minority. It has equalized teachers' salaries, opened recreation, changed transportation, opened housing, changed the policies of the stores down town, checked police brutality pushed school integration; in short, it has opened many doors that have been shut in the faces of the colored people.

The NAACP could not open up channels without money to employ lawyers to fight these legal battles. Since you are reaping the benefits of these fights, don't you feel that it is your duty to take out a membership to help with this great work?

Mrs. Katherine Pounds is president, Mrs. Madelyn Jones, secretary, and Mrs. Estelle C. Hill, treasurer.

STUDENTS IN grades 7, 9, 10, and 11 of the Sollers Point High School will select paintings from their work to send to the American Red Cross for International Art Exchange.

The paintings will be on exhibit at the school during the week of March 23 and Monday, April 6. After the exhibit the pictures will be sent to the Junior Red Cross for distribution in the schools overseas.

Mrs. Lucille Venture is the art teacher and Charles W. Fletcher is the principal.

Dr. Robert Prentiss Daniel of Dr. Robert Prentiss Daniel's college, Petersburg, Va. paid a visit to the community over the weekend as the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. James A. Everett and sons. The Everetts have been trying to get Dr. Daniels here for the past three years.

An ordained minister, an educator, a public service man, and world traveler, Dr. Daniel is affiliated with many professional, civic, fraternal and social organizations. His achievements have been so great that his name is listed Who's Who in America, Current Biography, World Biography, Who's Who in Colored America, Who's Who in South and Southwest, Who's Who in American Education, Leaders in Education, and presidents of American Colleges and Universities.

THE MORNING SERMON at the New Shiloh Baptist Church was delivered by Dr. Daniel. There were visitors from Morgan State College, Coppin State Teachers College, teachers from our school system, and representatives from the Department of Recreation of Baltimore. It is a known fact that no one regretted being in the audience.

LITTLE LESLIE WHITMORE, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Whitmore, Thelma Randolph, of 131 Honeysuckle Ct., returned to Johns Hopkins Hospital during the week for exploratory surgery. At press time it was not known where additional surgery would be necessary.

Wesley is a blue baby and has been through some rough experiences in his little life of six years. He has been in and out of the hospital several times. We have tried to give the little fellow every assistance possible so that he might have the opportunity to live as full a life as possible.

He is not able to walk to school like the other boys and girls. The Board of Education provides special transportation for him. A taxi calls at his home in the morning to get him and calls at the school in the afternoon to pick him up to take him back to his home.

Wesley is a pleasant little fellow with a smile. He enjoys riding around with his parents as they go about their busy lives. They are both busy in the activities of the church, working in the Sunday School and singing on the choir. Now that they have transportation, they do not have to leave their little son behind. He sits patiently and quietly in the pew during the services.

THE ELECTED OFFICERS of the Maryland Congress of PTA met at Coppin State College on last Saturday to outline tentative plans for the annual meeting which will be held at Coppin on May 1 and 2.

The executive committee of the Maryland Congress of PTA met on last Sunday at Bates High School in Annapolis to make the final plans for the annual meeting. An interesting program has been worked out for the meeting.

The nominating committee brought in its slate of officers for the next two years.

The present officers are: Leslie I. Gaines, president; Mrs. E. S. McDaniel, vice president; George Browne, executive secretary; Mrs. Thelma Cornish, assistant secretary and Mrs. Grace McDowell, treasurer.
