Five-state guests at Boswell party

with Lula Jones Garrett

Guests from five states and the District of Columbia joined Mrs. Alverta Boswell in that unforgettable surprise birthday party for her husband, Morris, Saturday evening.

Never were more interesting guests assembled or more beautifully arranged tables filled with more delectable foods and drinks to say nothing of the astounding number of lavish gifts, fetched to the honoree.

Here for the affair were:

Gene Bass, clinical psychologist, and Mrs. Bass, who teaches in the Goldsboro, N.C. system; Wilveria Bass, chemist, of the Columbia Annex, NYC; Capt. and Mrs. Marshall Bass, also of Goldsboro, who is presently stationed at Fort Meade.

The latter brought along their two lovely daughters, Marsha and Brenda. Also here was Pfc. William Bass of Quantico, Va.

Mrs. Geneva Hamilton (owner of the Hamilton Funeral Home) and son, Lamont, were also here from Goldsboro, as was Miss Berta Holloway, who is a restaurant owner in that city. Juanita Hall, also a chemist in the Columbia Annex, was here from New York; the William Basses, both teachers in Manhattan; George Atkinson of Jersey City, the Charles Boswells of Washington, and a group of local guests including:

Messrs. and Mesdames Martin Driver, Jacob Badgette, John Wheresly, Joseph Mebane, Jesse Hollingsworth, John Gaither, Jonas Scott.

Mesdames Marjorie Cole, Mildred Robinson, Eula Santana, Cora Gibson, Bessie Brown, Mildred Dobson; Misses Lou Granger, Bonnie Davis, Sadie Moten, Alma Barnes; William Valenthe, Joe James, James Lyles, Murray Scmoke and Arthur Warner.

The party was in the North Monroe Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Boswell.

AND THERE WERE guests from almost as many countries assembled when a trio of superb hostesses held forth on Saturday night in the home of Mrs. Charles Key.

The two Inezes (Mrs. Key and Drs. Dixon), along with Dr. Regina Goff, gathered friends to hear a lecture, illustrated with slides, by Mrs. Frances Howard, who recently traveled in Russia.

Mrs. Howard, who is the sister of Senator Hubert Humphreys and the wife of a famed Johns Hopkins surgeon, is also executive director of the United Nations Association of Maryland.

Her pictures pointed up the exquisite art in Russia, the fact that Russians are thoroughly sold on their country and that the people seem happy . . . though without joy.

Mrs. Howard was impressed by the lack of certain crime in the country, and totally non - impressed by the unfashionable and poor quality of the women's dress. And she needed only to exhibit her shots to tell the story of contrast in East and West Berlin.

Afterwards guests exchanged ideas for hours . . . over the supper of Russian dishes which showed the fine hand of Dr. Inez Dixon . . . and the sippables at which post J. Percy Bond was doing some expert manipulating.

About were:

Dr. and Mrs. Armin Mruck, Mr. and Mrs. Gerd Ehlich, Dr. and Mrs. Virgil Clift, Dr. and Mrs. Harshard Di Doshi;

Mr. and Mrs. Primdas, who came over from Washington, Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Wilks Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hucles;

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fisby, Mrs. Arthur Payne, Mrs. Frances White, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Butler, Mrs. Calvin Ashe, Miss Essie Hughes;

Mrs. Mark Patterson, Judge Josiah F. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Nicholas, Mrs. Mary G. Clark and Mrs. Phoebe Geff.

POT - POURRI Dr. Thelma P. Bando, of Morgan State College, is in Cleveland for the National Association of Women Deans' Convention, which is being attended by some 900 members. Will remain for the Personnel Guidance Association meeting.

Leaving Wednesday for Cambridge, Mass. was Edythe C. Cook. She is the guest of the Williard (Ruth) Simpsons. He's a real estate agent in Cambridge.

Starting on Sunday she will be visiting cousins, the Bruno (Patty) Leverings (he's an oyster man) of Davien, Conn. Traveling down to Albany, N.Y. on Thursday, she will be guest of the Russell Pennintons, and while in the area will do some shopping and be guest at the party given in Hotel Edison by the New York Chapter of Links. Mr. Pennington is a mortician in Albany.

From there Mrs. Cook will go to Montclair, N.J., to visit with Frances Spriggs . . . will be back in time for the birthday of her son, Thomas, to prepare him a party to mark his 20th birthday on April 13.

One of the town's better known families is pulling up roots . . . the D. Arnet Frisbys are leaving Arlington Avenue.

And one of the town's most charming couples, Dr. and Mrs. Virgil A. Clift of Morgan, occupied their new home last week. They've joined the colony just back of the college.

Mrs. Marion Gwynn Johnson, area director in the city school system, has been in her Dennlyn Ave. home for more than a week.

And now I hear that Algernon Prestwidge, was moved out of a management post at the Sphinx and into a contracting business has now moved out of the contracting business and into a management post at the Casino.

Four Debs honorees at reception-dance

Saturday evening, Morgan State College Christian Center reverberated to the sound of swishing skirts and the sight of youth in bloom as four of this year's Me - De - So debutantes were feted at a reception - dance by their parents.

Hosts at the gala affair were Dr. and Mrs. Donald G. Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Everette B. Harrison, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lewis. Honorees were Misses Peggy Brandon, Sheila Chapman, Bettye Ann Harrison and Diana Lewis.

The two levels of the Center were used — one for the reception and the other for dancing.

ALL OF THE DEBUTANTES chose ballerina length gowns for the occasion. Miss Brandon selected yellow organza. Miss Chapman, coral silver and chiffon. Miss Harrison, pink satin, chocolate and Miss Lewis, pale yellow organza.

Mrs. Brandon wore a gown of powder blue lace. Mrs. Chapman was garbed in blue printed wool, softly bloused. Mrs. Harrison's gown was of black satin and Mrs. Lewis chose rose lace.

The reception carried through a white and pink color scheme, even to the unique open book cake bearing the names of the honorees.

The ball room contained four huge pink hearts bearing the debutantes' names and flanked with red roses suspended above the band stand. Each of the 1959 debutantes was presented with a token gift of jewelry.

Guests were greeted at the door and directed to individual white leather bound guest books. Mrs. Damon Mills, wear ing black and pink sheath, introduced the guests to the receiving line which was composed of the debutantes, their parents and their grandparents.
