Solemnity, dignity mark rites Tuesday for Robert Tutman

"Our lives have been made richer by his devotion to the church.

"He had a sense of personal responsibility, a deep insight of what it means to walk with God."

So spoke the Rev. Frank F. Frye, pastor of Ames Methodist Church at funeral services Tuesday for Robert DeSherman Tutman, 64, 2122 Druid Hill Ave. who died Thursday.

Mr. Tutman, veteran painter and interior decorator, who had been ailing since 1954, died at Provident Hospital where he had been confined since March 27.

He suffered a stroke from which he never regained consciousness.

THREE HUNDRED persons were present at Ames at the 2 p.m. services which were marked with solemnity and dignity becoming the deceased man who was a lifelong, devoted worker in the Ames parish.

The Rev. Mr. Frye continued "Robert Tutman taught people by precept, by his own consecration to God.

"He touched the lives of all who knew him."

THE REV. MR. FRYE was assisted by the Revs. Edward G. Carroll, pastor of the Sharp Street Methodist Church and James L. Moore, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Carroll said

"When we think of Mr. Tutman we are certain there was a man who could claim he was a child of God."

The Rev. Mr. Moore, minister to Mrs. Tutman, the widow, and other members of the family, encouraged the bereaved survivors to take courage in the Christian life Mr. Tutman lived.

Also speaking was Mrs. Velva Purvis, representative of the Ames Church School where Mr. Tutman served as superintendent seven years and organized the group known as the Epworth League.

She said: "He was friend and counselor, and interested in the youth of the church. The organization was inspired by his understanding of young people.

"He was their friend. The rooms of Ames Church will always echo his words."

The Rev. Samuel Green, assistant pastor of the Ames Church gave the invocation. Music was the church choir with Mrs. Eleanor Moore and Wendell Wright, soloists.

CLARENCE ROBERTS, principal of Lockerman Elementary School No. 100 and close friend of the deceased man, read the obituary.

For burial Mr. Tutman was dressed in a navy blue business suit, white shirt and polka dot bow tie familiar to those who knew him.

The casket reposed on the church altar which was banked with 50 floral designs tributes of relatives and friends.

Noteworthy was the floral blanket which covered the casket and was designed with 500 deep red rosebuds, centered with four dozen white calalies and enscribed in gold "wife and children."

Draped around the casket was an 18-foot garland of red rosebuds embedded in green maidenhair fern from Mr. Tutman's grandchildren.

A 6½ foot cross designed of pink carnillas white chrysanthemums and carnations with crachaded white calalies was from Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norwood and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Valentine.

Mrs. Valentine and Mr. Norwood are members of the Sunmers Florist firm where Mr. Tutman's son, Steuart is associated.

OTHER DESIGNS included a huge basket of white gladiolli from Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Moss; a design of red gladiolli and white chrysanthemums from friends in the Tutman neighborhood and a spray of pink gladoli from the Frank Lewis family, undertakers.

From Mesdames Olivia Carter and Alice Hazzard close friends of the family, was a basket of pink and cerise snapdragons while the Wallace and Jones family sent orchid and gold tinted chrysanthemums, and yellow pompons. Spring flowers were from Mrs. Ruth Stokes.

MR. TUTMAN was a lover of music and a member of the Baltimore Singers, and the Ames Choir, a Sunday School teacher, president of the Epworth League which he founded and superintendent of the Youth Fellowship organization.

He also was a Bible School teacher at Ames Church steward.

Although Mr. Tutman was father of ten children and has 10 grandchildren he still found time to devote to neighborhood children and those of his friends. He was known as "the children's friend."

On this point the Rev. Mr. Frye revealed that as he was leaving Mr. Tutman's residence after giving him communion, a child on the street asked that other children keep quiet.

She said: "A man is sick there. I don't know him but my mother says he is a good man."

A NATIVE of Baltimore Mr. Tutman was born April 30, 1895, the son of the late Robert Sr., and Isis Tutman, who were also lifelong members of the Ames Church.

In 1919 he was married to the former Miss Viola H. Campbell of Atlantic City, N.J.

In 1925 he opened his painting and paperhanging business at 808 Pitcher St. later moved to Gilmor St. and then settled at 2122 Druid Hill Ave. where he operated the business for 32 years.

Many persons recall that Mr. Tutman tutored young people in painting and that they later became successful businessmen.

Mr. Tutman served as secretary to the trustee board of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America Local No. 344 from 1940 to 1941. He was president of the Baltimore Building and Trade Association, president of the Baltimore branch of Postal Alliance's annual spring cabaret party at Coliseum, 10 p.m.

Funeral services for Mrs. Fields

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilma Lena Fields, 39, of Marley Park, were held Thursday at 11 a.m. from the chapel of a funeral parlor in the 800 block N. Fremont Ave.

Burial was in the National Cemetery. Her husband, Willie Fields, is a veteran of World War II.

Mrs. Fields died Saturday at her home. She had not been in the best of health for some time. Death was attributed to heart failure.

Mrs. Fields was born in Winston-Salem, N.C. She and her husband were Jehovah Witnesses.

She was a great lover of flowers and had been working up her flower gradein in recent weeks when she felt up to it.

Other survivors include her mother, Mrs. Irene Blackman, and a niece, Yvonne Dorsey both of Marley Park. Also, other relatives and friends.

Arthur Carter

Arthur Carter, 12-year deacon of Faith Baptist Church, died Sunday at his home, 1418 W. Mulberry St. after a 10 month illness. He was 74.

Funeral services will be held Saturday 12 noon at Faith where he was a longtime member.

The Rev. Walter E. Paige, pastor, will officiate.

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Mr. Carter and his family came to Baltimore in 1915 where he worked as a self employed contractor.

He and his wife, Mrs. Mary L. Carter, celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary Dec. 28, 1958.

Other survivors include four children Mesdames Mattie Allen and Edith Scott both of Savannah, Ga., and Miss Ethel Carter and Calvin Carter both of Baltimore.

Funeral services were held Thursday, William Thomas Waters, 65, a native of Cambridge, Md., who died in Baltimore's Lutheran Hospital.

Death was caused by a hemorrhage and came shortly after Mr. Waters arrived at the hospital. He was a retired custodian.

A resident of Baltimore for 35 years, Mr. Waters lived at 2007 Sinclair Lane.

Burial was in the Baltimore National Cemetery. Mr. Waters was a veteran of World War I.

Born in Cambridge Dec. 2, 1894, Mr. Waters was the son of the late William and Laura Waters and a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Miss Corena Waters, New York and three sisters, Mesdames Cora Conaway, Eva Keene and Edith Carter, Cambridge.

Elder Hill

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Church of the Living God for Elder Esther Hill, 1210 Bloomingdale Rd., who died Sunday. Burial is in the Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Elder Hill is survived by a niece and atwo nephews.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

By MILTON E. ELICKSON

"THE KISS OF THE SUN FOR PARDON, THE SONG OF THE BIRDS FOR MIRTH . . . ONE IS NEARER GOD'S HEART IN A GARDEN THAN ANYWHERE ELSE ON EARTH. . . ."

This gracious thought points out the quiet magnificence of growing things reaching out to the sun and bursting into matured beauty.

There is little in the world that can surpass the peaceful contentment which a garden inspires. Indeed, it is a place for purposeful, creative efforts; a haven for quiet reverie.

A garden in a deeper sense, is usually more than a patch of man-made color, designed for the strict utility of decoration. We like to think it was man's recognition of the clean, wholesome goodness which springs so abundantly from a great mysterious power which is always nearer to us than we imagine.

We like to think also, that at a time of great personal loss ELLIOTT FUNERAL HOME might be called on to help lighten the burden with a complete funeral service that attends to all details. Comprehensive and understanding services are available at ELLIOTT FUNERAL HOME, 1129 N. Caroline St. Phone EAstern 7-6500.

MME. ELIZEBETH TYNES is back from Denver Colo. She wishes to meet all her friends.
