Man found dead in Madison Ave. cellar

George Newman, 24, 1200 block Madison Ave., was pronounced dead on arrival about 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at Provident Hospital.

According to the Medical Examiner's Office, Mr. Newman died of pneumonia.

Jessie Leak, 45, 1200 block Madison Ave., who found the body told police that at about 6 p.m. he went to his cellar to check the furnace.

He said he saw a man lying on an old mattress and thought the subject was asleep.

When he tried to awaken him, Mr. Leak said he discovered the man was dead and called the police.

The adress shown on Mr. Newman's identification cards, is a condemned house owned by the city.

Fashion Frolic at Grace Church

"Fashion Frolic '59" is the title of the children's fashion show to be presented at Grace Presbyterian Church Friday, April 17, at 7:30 p.m., sponsored by the parents of the Sunday school and under the direction of Mrs. Catherine Frisby.

The children will wear the latest fashions and they will also provide the entertainment during intermission.

After the show refreshments will be served.

Interracial group to meet Sunday

William Boucher III, executive director of the Greater Baltimore Committee, will address the Catholic Interracial Council of Baltimore at a meeting on Sunday, April 19, at St. Gregory the Great parish hall, Gilmor and Baker Sts.

Members of the Council will attend the 12:15 Dialogue Mass in the church prior to the meeting. Fr. Joseph Connolly, moderator of the council, will be the celebrant.

This meeting will also mark the termination of a drive for funds to augment the scholarship and treasury funds of the Interracial Council.

Bykota Club

"The Bykota Service Club, a group of 20 women is one of the oldest in Berea Temple, Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

"The Bykotas have as their major objective: "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

They are great believers in the brotherhood and toleration of mankind.

Just recently these women sponsored a worthy project, that of placing a sound system in their church. It cost nearly a thousand dollars.

A NEW CHARTER was presented to Boy Scout Troop 573 at First Mt. Calvary Baptist Church last Sunday. Guy D. Simpson presents the charter to the Rev. Lyndsai Pitts, church pastor. Onlookers include Scoutmaster Leroy Hayes Jr., Mrs. Carrie Canty, den mother; Stonewall Parker, assistant cubmaster and Charles Brown, cubmaster. Seated in front are den-mothers, Mrs. Jessie L. Brown and Mrs. Mattie Owens. The new Troop has 43.

Rev. Miller's farewell sermon at New Life slated April 26

The Rev. E. McKay Miller will deliver his farewell sermon at New Life Presbyterian Church in Turner Station during the 11 a.m. worship service on Sunday, April 26.

Pastor of the church since December of 1956, the Rev. Mr. Miller tendered his resignation during a special congregational meeting on Jan. 25. It is effective as of April 26.

The Rev. Mr. Miller said the prime reason for his resignation is that he intends to return to post graduate work, possibly at the Divinity School of Yale University.

However, he says he has under consideration several possibilities to which he is "giving some thought."

* * *

THE REV. MR. MILLER says he "expects to take something on the Eastern Seaboard about June 1" if he does not continue his formal education.

Meanwhile, he will remain in Turner Station until June, taking "a needed vacation."

He and his wife, Mrs. Vivian Louise Miller, a secretary in the Air Force Recruiting office at Fort Holabird, and their son, Robert Edward, reside at 309 Avondale Rd.

The Rev. Mr. Miller said he has enjoyed his work at New Life and that "the people have been very nice and kind.

"We've added quite a few new members and been able to realize a substantial growth."

* * *

THE REV. MR. MILLER came to Turner Station from the Zion Presbyterian Church in Charleston, S.C. where he served four years. Prior to that he was dean of the chapel and director of religious education at Harbinson Junior College in Drmo, S.C.

He attended elementary schools in Sumter, S.C., his hometown, and went to secondary schools in New Jersey. His undergraduate and seminary work was done at Lincoln University in Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Mr. Miller did graduate study for his Masters in religious education and sociology at Newark State Teachers College and Bloomfield College in Bloomfield, N.J.

ANNIVERSARY NOTED — This was the head table at the fifth anniversary celebration of the Pennsylvania Ave. Lafayette Market Association on Tuesday at Wilson's Restaurant. Left to right: Albert Besbris, chairman of the dinner committee; Leon Abramson, president of the City Council; the Rev. Marion C. Bascom who delivered the invocation; Wiley Daniels, master of ceremonies; Dr. R. Walter Graham, city comptroller; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Katkow (Mr. Katkow is the president of PALMA), and Reuben Levenson, president of the Neighborhood Merchants Association.

PALMA marks its fifth anniversary

"The members of PALMA are to be congratulated for the efforts they are making to provide a better life for the people in their area."

This was part of the message delivered by Dr. R. Walter Graham, city comptroller, to members of the Pennsylvania Ave. Lafayette Market on Tuesday night.

The occasion was the fifth anniversity dinner of the group held at Wilson's Restaurant and attended by 135 persons.

* * *

BASING HIS talk on the theme of cooperation between private business and the government, Dr. Graham pointed to the new Lafayette Market as an example of this type of cooperation.

"We have created a building for individual businessmen to work in and make a living and in turn to pay back to the city in rentals enough to justify the cost of the market."

Dr. Graham also emphasized his theory that while government should assist business, it should not control business and he pointed to Russia as the prime example of how a government can take over business completely.

* * *

PRESENT AT the dinner were not only the men and women who make up the membership of PALMA but many of their employees as well.

The largest employee representation came from Hendin's, Tommy Tucker, Northwestern, Silverman's and Samuelson's Loan.

A highlight of the meeting was the review of PALMA'S activities during the past five years given by the president, Herman Katkow.

Noting that the annual Lincoln - Douglass Day sale has been one of the now successful of PALMA's promotions, Mr. Katkow told the group that it grew out of an idea presented PALMA by Dr. Carl Murphy, president of the AFRO - AMERICAN Newspapers, during a meeting in his office.

* * *

MR. KATKOW also unveiled future plans of the group, with the cooperation of the merchants of Lafayette Market, to provide through the church es a weekly basket of food for a needy family.

He also spoke of the public relations aspect of PALMA, which he said could mean "a hand to a boy who takes care of other child or the getting of clothing and food for a family that has been burned out.

Another highlight of the meeting was the presentation by Charles Covington, veteran market man and a dynamic worker in PALMA, of honorary memberships to Maxwell Albert, Maurice Seyphee, Eugene "Big Daddy" Lipscomber, J. I. m Parker, Lenny Moore, Lenny Lyles and Capt. Wade H. Poole of the Northwestern District.

For the first time in its history PALMA made a special award and this went to Sgt Violet Hill Whyte for her work in the community.

Nathan Hendler presented a special award to Leon Abramson, president of the City Council.

Other special awards were presented to Mr. Covington, Nathan Hendler, Dr. Daile n Nathan Hendler, Dr. Daniel Chasson, Walter Hendler, Seamore Sussman, Stanley Samson for their outstanding work with Palma.

Mr. Katkow, president of the association, was presented a Polaroid camera from the association.

Albert Besris was the chairman of the evening and the Master of ceremonies was Wiley Daniels.

Miss Veronica Tyler was the guest soloist and her vocal presentations earned warm applause.

Lucky pic winner to save for convention

"I was eating dinner and reading the paper when I saw my picture in the paper. I was so surprised.

"I was fueling the photographer wouldn't put it in because my hair wasn't fixed, but now I'm glad he did."

Speaking was Mrs. Gladys W. Felton, 1334 Myrtle Ave., this week's AFRO lucky picture winner.

Mrs. Felton's picture was taken with other members of the Laurette Club at a testimonial honoring one of its members.

She is an employee of the cafeteria staff at Woodbourne Junior High School.

An active fraternal woman, she is the illustrious Commandress of the Daughters of Isis, Jerusalem Court No. 1.

Asked what she intended to do with the money, she replied:

"My fraternal organization is having a convention in Los Angeles this summer, and I'm going to save the money to help buy the ticket."

* * *

YOU TOO can be an AFRO lucky picture winner.

If you see your picture circled, all you have to do is bring it with you to our office at 628 Eutaw St. before the next issue of our paper hits the streets.

Blind matron, 67, seeks return of her lost dog

"Beauty" has disappeared, and a blind, 67 - year - old matron is grieving.

The matron is ill with a diabetic ailment, and "Beauty" has been her sole, constant companion, for almost two years now.

Who is "Beauty"?

Well, she is a part Boxer, part German Shepherd comrade of the matron, with a light brown coat of hair and a lighter brown patch of hair on the under side of her throat.

The grieving, blind matron?

She is Mrs. Georgianna Brown, of 415 N. Fulton Ave., confined to her home with the illness and loss of sight for five years.

What happened to "Beauty?"

"I don't know," Mrs. Brown told the AFRO sadly on Wednesday afternoon. "I sent the little boy my sister is raising to the store, and Beauty must have gotten out through the unlatched back yard gate.

"She is very affectionate toward children."

MRS. BROWN sighed, rubbed a hand across her sightless eyes, and then leaned forward to tell her visitor this:

"She always wakes me in the morning, and this morning I certainly missed her.

"I cried yesterday evening (Tuesday), after she had gone, and I cried last night.

"She is so spoiled, she is with me all during the day, and the minute somebody touches the front door, she lets me know.

"Believe me, I miss her so. I hope whoever has her will bring her back to me."

Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Louise Wilkerson, a veteran agent for the Mutual Benefit Society; a seven-year-old boy, who attends school, and an employed male roomer are the other occupants of the home.

* * *

"BEAUTY KEEPS me company," Mrs. Brown explained. "She would sit at my feet all day."

A widower since 1924, Mrs. Brown is a long - time member of Unity Christian Church, 500 block N. Stricker St., which she sometimes attends now when taken by Mrs. Esther Jackson, wife of the assistant pastor.

Also, she is a member of these fraternal orders:

The Sampson Brooks Elks Temple 682; Household of Ruth, Nora Taylor, 4171, of the Odd Fellows; Nazareth, Brilliant Star 27, Mt. Olive Beneficial Association, and Ideas Lodge 558.

* * *

"BECAUSE OF my condition, I can't go away and train with a seeing - eye dog," Mrs. Brown told her visitor.

"If I can't get Beauty back, I hope somebody will give me another dog like her."

So— this is the story of "Beauty," strayed or stolen from her home Tuesday.

Too, this is a brief picture of what "Beauty's" disappearance has caused— sadness for her has caused— much sadness and grief for her blind mistress.

Will you help her find "Beauty"?

A bewildered husband writes estranged wife

Tuesday morning a bewildered father entered the AFRO office and said:

"My wife has left me and my three children, and I've been looking everywhere for her.

"I want her back because the children need her, and so do I."

Almost fearful, he gave the reporter an open letter he had prepared. It read like this:

Dear Jackie:

You've been gone for five days now, and the kids and I are slowly going out of our minds.

"I've been running myself ragged trying to look for you, and take care of the children at the same time.

If you don't think much of me, at least show a little consideration for your children.

Stephanie told Clifton Jr. that you were never coming back and that they would have to go to a foster home.

They've all been crying like mad, especially little Tony. He misses you so much.

The Welfare Department told me that if you aren't back in two weeks, they are going to take the children.

Please don't let them take our children away, come on back home.

Whatever I've done, I'm sorry. Please forgive me and come on back home to the children and me. We love you.

Your loving husband,
TONY

Dear friends in the brotherhood of God, through the love of Jesus Christ and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. We ask the aid and cooperation of all mothers in encouraging their children to attend regularly the Sunday school of their choice. We feel this early training in the teachings of Christ is an investment that will contribute greatly to the future happiness of both parent and child. It is up to us, the mothers of Christ, to begin such a movement. May the inspiration of the Holy Spirit bless the people of all racial groups with love in this our endeavor.

Goodwill drive

The Maryland Motor Truck Association has loaned Baltimore Goodwill Industries 20 trucks to aid in the collection schools in Baltimore City and Baltimore County this week.

Collections which began Monday will continue through Friday after a drive in which some 70,000 Goodwill clothing bags were distributed by elementary, junior high and high school students, who were requested to take them home to be filled with usable, repairable clothing.

The Goodwill school clothing drive, according to Rev. John Payne, Executive Director of Baltimore Goodwill Industries, has been the means of developing civic responsibility among the students.

He continued, "essays are written, bulletins prepared, programming by student councils, and civic experience groups formed so that the student will learn about the part, he as a responsible citizen, must play in the community activities such as the Annual School Clothing Drive."

Celebrating a year of outstanding popularity... Pet Milk's
SUNDAY MORNING
America's only national Negro radio program
"It's been a great pleasure during this past year to bring you, on PET Milk's 'Sunday Morning,' such talented guests as the Dixie Humming Birds, the Swan Silvertones, the Staple Singers, the Roberta Martin Singers, the Davis Sisters, and the Ward Singers. They join me in thanking you for welcoming us into your homes.
"We hope you'll be with us again during the coming year's programs of your favorite spiritual and gospel songs."

Ford leads the sales parade...

...because it's America's "best-looker"
Trust Americans to choose the one new car that's beautifully sensible
This year, with a wide choice of designs, Americans have made their minds up overwhelmingly for the spectacular 59 Ford.
Ford has the classic simplicity that people of good taste prefer . . . wonderfully crisp and clean lines without brassy ostentation.
And just see how sensible this beauty really is. Discover how Ford is built for people. Notice how the extra-wide doors open all the way out . . . make it easier to enter. See how all six passengers—even the man in the middle—have the comfort of full-depth cushions. There's plenty of leg, hip, and head room, too.
Of course, every inch of every Ford is built for savings. Ford's standard engines, Six or Thunderbird V-8, thrive on regular gas, saving you up to $1.00 per tankful. Ford's new aluminized muffler is built for double life. You can save on oil, too . . . for Ford needs a change only each 4000 miles. And Ford's Diamond Lustre Finish never needs waxing.
With all this new beauty and economy, is it any wonder Ford's out front for '59? Come see the car acclaimed by all America . . . now on display at your Ford Dealer's.
For the most beautiful news of all, come in and check Ford's amazing low price... the lowest price of the top-selling three. And check the cost of economy, too. You'll find the savings are low, too!
