KAPPA MEN, like many other Americans, have probably dreamed of making a killing on the stock market. Maybe that's why they had a full house at the Kappa Kastle Saturday night, April 11th, when John Patterson, senior partner in the Patterson and Company investment firm of New York, was guest speaker.

This was the regular April meeting of Baltimore Alumni Chapter, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. Mr. Patterson's topic was "Time for Tomorrow."

The speaker took the men through the intricacies of how to buy stocks and bonds with wisdom. The discussion covered the types of stocks and bonds, what to watch for in a bull market, etc. He pointed out how the average American is becoming more and more interested in investing his money wisely. Many amateur groups have been formed and meet regularly to plot their investment ventures with the advice and counsel of professional investment brokers.

At the end there was a question and answer session that proved to be very stimulating and enlightening.

The speaker was scheduled as part of the fraternity's new program of having a discussion session with a speaker after each regular meeting. Previous speakers have been Senator and Former Senator J. Alvin Jones and Harry A. Cole, "Reaching Our Goals Through Politics" moderated by Dr. G James Fleming.

Dr. Marcus Moore and Dr. Talmadge Pinkney, "The Doctor's View of Frigidity in Women," and Henry Parks, "Some Important Facts About Big Business."

Social work alumni meet at YW

The Baltimore Chapter of the Howard University School of Social Work Alumni will present the School of Social Work Faculty at a tea to be held at 4 p.m. on Sunday, April 26, at the Central Branch YWCA, Park Avenue and Franklin St.

Speakers presented will be Dr. Inabel B. Lindsay, dean of Howard University School of Social Work and Dr. Caroline Ware, teacher of community organization.

Dr. Lindsay will discuss her report on "Selected Aspects of Social Welfare are in Sweden and Norway."

Dr. Lindsay is a graduate of Howard University, holds the masters of arts degree in social work from the University of Chicago and the Doctor of Social work degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Lindsay has been a member of the faculty at Howard since courses in social work were introduced in 1935 and has served a dean of the School of Social Work since it was established in 1945.

Dr. Caroline Ware will discuss her forthcoming book on the Cultural History of Mankind."

Dr. Ware has taught community organization in schools of social work in Puerto Rico, Columbia and El Salvadore. In 1945, Dr. Ware joined the faculty of Howard University School of Social Work. She has been consultant to the section of Social Work of the Pan-American Union since 1951.

A discussion period will follow the presentation of Dr. Lindsay and Dr. Ware. Persons practising in the field of social work, those studying in the field, persons interested in social work, alumni and friends are invited to attend the tea.

Jolly Hostesses mark anniversary

The Jolly Hostesses Charity and Social Club of Wilson Park celebrated their fifth anniversary Saturday, April 11 with a cocktail party held at a North Ave. lounge.

Mrs. Mary Scott, the club president who is ill in Johns Hopkins Hospital, was unable to be present.

Guests of honor were the ex-president, Mrs. Geraldine Rogers Veney, and her husband, Leroy Veney.

Woody-Truendel rites held at St. Matthews

By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE

Miss Mary Hilda Moody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey to Moody of Baltimore, and James Truendel, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Truendel of Warsaw, Va., were married at St. Matthews Methodist Church, Saturday.

The Rev. U. D. Chambers officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was played by Mrs. Olita Burrell, organist. Robert Richardson was the soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly. The gown was trimmed in imported satin and featured the boat neckline and three quarter sleeves.

Her veil was of lace and she carried a lovely bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Frances Pleasant, her maid of honor, was gowned in a pretty pink net ankle length gown and carried a bouquet of colonial nosegay flowers.

The bridesmaids wore gowns made of organza in pastel shades of blue, green, orchid and yellow and carried colonial nosegay flowers.

The bridesmaids were: Misses Deborah Grey, Ann Tinsley, Viola Smith, and Jean Quick.

The flower girl, Maria Smith, wore a dainty white dress and carried a basket of assorted colors of rose petals. Wendall D. Moody was the ring bearer.

JOSEPH EGGLESTON was the best man. Ushers were Melvin Rowlette, Maurice Moody, Robert Swann and Archie Sturdivant.

The bride and bridegroom have both attended Dunbar High School and are active in St. Matthews Church. The couple is honeymooning in New York City and will be at home at 2316 Robb St. after April 15th.

A beautiful reception followed in the basement of the church. Guests enjoying themselves included: Messrs. and Mesdames Aaron Stewart, Randolph Hill, Earl Hagan, Robert P. Pink champagne, pink frocks cast rosy glow on gala dance

The array of chic pink frocks that adorned the Femmes Continentales were no pinker than the champagne which flowed from a fountain throughout the evening as the club members entertained, Friday.

Their annual formal dance was held in the Towson Armory, decorated, this year to simulate a garden, with a flowing fountain at center. The champagne fountain was off side.

When there's no place like home... reach for the phone!
Whatever your reason for wishing you were home, you can usually make the "trip" home in about 30 seconds by phone.
That's true whether you're working late ... away on a trip ... or just visiting a friend or neighbor.
The convenience of being able to call home is hard to measure in terms of nickels and dimes—but easy to understand in terms of peace of mind. One big reason why most people find a phone is worth so much more than it costs.
