POLICE COURT

Magistrate Linwood G. Kieser, presided the following cases Wednesday at Northwestern:

"I don't know why I did it. I guess I just wasn't thinking." This statement was made by Henry M. Pelsey, 47, ship fitter, 2000 block Archerdale Terrace, who was given probation before verdict for larceny of a drink and cheese from a Mondawmin supermarket.

"I was hungry, and I didn't have any money," Robert Branson, 40, 1200 block Pennsylvania Ave., gave this reason for stealing a pound or sausages from a North Ave. market. He was fined $10 and costs.

Fined $10 and costs for being drunk on the street was Simon Mickens, 38, 200 block Hanter St.

A $15 fine was imposed on Kenneth L. Weinberg, 16, 1900 block N. Stockton St., for disorderly conduct.

Earl Eden, 16, 1800 block W. Mosher St., was dismissed from court charged with threatening with a knife Francis Ellington.

Magistrate Linwood G. Kieser, disposed of the following cases Thursday at Northwestern:

"Judge please don't send me to jail. I'll lost my home." This plea failed to save Joseph A. Gilmer, 1008 block Longwood St., from a 60-day sentence for disorderly conduct in a Walbrook Ave. bar.

"I just had my hand in my pocket, I didn't have a gun." This statement by McLellan Smith, Jr., 17, 3700 block W. North Ave., failed to save him from a 30-day jail sentence for assaulting and pointing a gun at Ronald Campbell.

Probation before verdict was given James Berry, Jr., 30, 1000 block Carrington St., for larceny of a $60 watch. He was placed under a year's probation and ordered to the address of Walter Lewis, Jr., 1308 block North Ave., accused with a $15 fine for disorderly conduct on Linden Ave.

"It was just a little misunderstanding, but I guess I accidentally scratched her in the confusion." Charles Lide, 38, 2200 block Rosedale St., paid $20 and costs before he was fined $10 and costs for disturbing the peace, and $25 and costs for assaulting and striking Miss Beverice Brown.

A $25 fine was imposed on Robert Morton, 34, 900 block W. Franklin St., for disorderly conduct.

Dismissed from disorderly conduct charge was Daniel Scott, 34, 1600 block Appleton St.

IN NORTHWESTERN Police Court Friday morning, fines came swift and heavy.

A 60-day jail sentence was given Edward N. Butcher, 1200 block N. Fulton, for causing a disturbance in a tavern in the 1300 block Biggs; Elijah Austin, 40, 1300 block Druid Hill Ave., was fined $500 bail for grand jury action on a charge of arranging wiring in his home to use electricity without registering on the meter.

A three-month suspended sentence and probation for 18 months was imposed on George A. Love, 1700 block Mosher St., for striking Mrs. Mamie Lee, 1000 block Dolphin, during a robbery.

Donald Antonio Gardner, charged in a 30-day jail sentence for Charles T. Jackson, 1000 block Argyle, accused of stabbing him in Durham Mains, same address with a brick.

And a three-month suspended sentence, probation for one year, and $50 and costs for Chauncey F. Hudson, Jr., 200 block W. North, charged with beating Mrs. Della Adams, same address.

Magistrate Linwood G. Kieser, Sr., disposed of these cases Saturday at Northwestern:

Probation before verdict was given Theodore Wilson, Jr., 600 block Jasper St., for larceny of a pair of sox plundered from a drug store.

"I wasn't in that house. I wasn't even near that street." Earl Thomas, 36, 300 block Pine St., gave this defense before being placed on $500 bail for a later trial on a charge of larceny of clothing from a house in the 300 block Dolphin St.

Harry S. Gordon, 2400 block Smith Ave., was fined $25 and costs for disorderly conduct.

A $25 fine was imposed on Winslow Lee, 200 block Franklin St. for disorderly conduct.

GIVEN PROBATION before a verdict for larceny of a package of bleach from a church was food market was Bobby Shackle, 800 block W. North Ave.

Nathan Brown, 3000 block Westwood Ave., escaped with a $15 fine for being drunk in the street.

A $25 fine was imposed on Robert Green, 1000 block Central Ave., for being drunk in the street.

IN NORTHEASTERN Police Court Saturday, these cases were heard:

A $25 fine was given Thomas I. Johnson, 28, 200 block Dewitt St., for threatening his wife, Mrs. Julia Johnson, 28, same address. Mrs. Johnson, 28, stated Mr. Johnson, 28, had threatened to "cut her throat" if she did not give him a good breakfast. Mr. Johnson, 28, was charged with disorderly conduct.

Probation before verdict was given Alan Helene J. Jones, 21, 1700 block Ashland; Walter A. Thompson, 47, 1000 block E. Lanvale; and Hazel M. Thomas, 38, 800 block Rutland, on his first counts on the charge of larceny of a car, 1300 block Eager, disorderly conduct, and assault and battery on Mrs. Ethel Jones, 21, 1700 block Ashland.

Jones, Thompson, and Thomas, 38, 800 block E. Rutland, were charged with disorderly conduct.

IN NORTHWESTERN Police Court Saturday, these cases were handled:

Probation before verdict was given Charles E. Green, 21, 1000 block Druid Hill Ave., charged with a charge of larceny of a car, 1300 block Eager, and Mrs. Ethel Green, 21, 1000 block W. Dolphin, charged with receiving stolen goods, on the charge of larceny of a car, 1300 block Eager.

Charges of disorderly conduct were brought these dispositions for these persons:

Walter L. Mosley, 35, 1300 block Druid Hill Ave., $10 and costs; James L. Williams, 18, 400 block W. Dolphin, 30-day jail term; William Stokes, 35, 1000 block W. Fayette, a $10 fine; John L. Jackson, 19, 400 block Gilmor, a $10 fine; John Dukes, Samuel Jones, 28, 200 block W. Lexington, a suspended $10 fine.

Frederick J. Hill, 18, 100 block N. Carey, and Lawrence W. Hatfield, Jr., 46, 1000 block Lexington, disorderly conduct.

Mrs. Mathilda Rogers, Lloyd L. Jackson, 1000 block Lexington, disorderly conduct.

Ethel Evelyn Faunce, 1400 block Druid Hill Ave., and Bernice Williams of the 1700 block W. Druid Hill Ave., were fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace in Druid Hill Park.

John B. Chatman, 30, 1000 block E. Eager St., was fined $15 and costs for disorderly conduct in the park.

Harold Mosbach of the 100 block W. Biddle St., pleaded guilty Tuesday to disturbing the peace and was fined $5 and costs.

Lena Dowell of the 600 block W. North Ave., was fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace.

* * *

AT SOUTHERN, Magistrate Samuel Gelnett heard the following cases:

Nicholas Barksdale, 34, of the 800 block Martin Dr., was ordered held for $1500 bail for action of the grand jury on Tuesday. The prosecutrix, Mrs. Ruth Ann Barksdale, said she was beaten up on E. Fremont Ave., where $25 worth of liquor was stolen.

Robert Keys, 200 block E. Charles St., was fined $25 and costs for stabbing James G. Riley of the 400 block Cornell St., with a pair of scissors.
