CAMPUS NOTES

Indian Madras, top fabric for spring

By LAVANIA RICE

To begin this week's episode, we shall have a few words from our fashion expert.

FASHION
By GLENN McGILL

Spring is here and so are the new spring clothes. A spring material that was quite popular last year in the northern cities is the Indian Madras.

Madras seems to be catching on quite well here, although it is relatively new to most people.

The unusual thing about madras is that the same pattern of material is rarely seen twice.

That should please the young ladies, but it should also please the men to know that they have a unique sport jacket.

* * *

MEMBERS OF Baltimore's "Beat Set" have happily awaited summer to go back to their low cut tennis shoes and skimpy dress.

The majority of the fellows around the campus will be pleased to start wearing their bermuda shorts and tennis shirts, although the non-cuffed tapered pants look neat.

BJ's 'Ye Business will go down since the fellows don't wear ties in the summer (rarely in the winter).

But several of the downtown jewelry stores will gain business from the various young men who have saved their tie money to purchase her that engagement ring.

PEOPLE

Jessie Bowers has joined several of his fellow colleagues by enlisting in the Air Force.

Charles Miles who recently returned home from Japan, has gone away again, this time to Kansas.

Frank Beaton, one of the outspoken collegians at Maryland State, is now president of the 'Beatniks' (Baltimore Chapter).

* * *

PERSONALITY of the week, Dorothy S. Ramson.

Dottie is a graduate of Douglass High School. She also attended BJC for a year majoring in arts and sciences.

She now attends Morgan and upon graduation, hopes to enter social work.

Dottie has several hobbies, but among her favorites are tennis, reading and modern dancing, which, I might add, she is quite skilled at.

In her spare time, she sews and tries out several hair styles, but inevitably ends up with the same one.

Being quite active in social activities, she is a member of the Social Debs and Charmettes.

She is also a sports lover, especially basketball.

Simply for the record.

Sam Cooke's "Everybody Likes The Chal Chal Chal" should be changed to "Everybody Likes the Backward Step."

The Place

On Saturday, Bernard Stokes invited several of the members around to have an emergency meeting.

Things were going well and several things were being accomplished, but as the evening progressed the meeting turned into a real hot jam session.

The members of this very business-like organization are McNair Taylor, Dorsey Skinner, Charles Miles, Helen Flemings, Beverly Johnson, Julia Slowe;

Gordon, Ayres, Robert Huggins, Arthur Waters, Dolly Sigler, Alice Williams, Jessie Bowers and several others.

* * *

More About Paulette

Norman Johnson and the former Alice Thompson will be celebrating their first anniversary on Friday. He is a student at BCC.

Alvin Claggett who is now stationed in Germany, will be back in town in a few weeks.

He is a resident of Dee Cee and a Kappa.

* * *

JUST ABOUT everyone but no one is planning to make it up to the Penn Relays in a few weeks.

So be cool and study hard, and do get all your back assignments caught up.

I really would like to see you there. ok? Bye, now.

Diggs School has anniversary

The Josiah Diggs School No. 162 held a birthday party Monday in observance of their sixth dedication anniversary of their school.

This has been an annual affair, reminding the principal and faculty of the occasion when there were "ten thousand children were either transferred or enrolled in this new, two million dollar building.

Greetings were offered by Mrs. Vivian Peyton, a solo was presented by Miss Jean Tucker, jokes were distributed to the group by Miss Ruth Clayton and music was furnished by Mrs. Elizabeth Mason.

The hostesses were Mrs. Margaret Murphy, Mrs. Vivian Peyton, Mrs. Dorothy Lee and Mrs. Ethel Davis, chairman.

Invited guests were Charles Mason, principal School No. 129, Mrs. Margery Prout, elementary specialist; Miss Florence Dennis, helping teacher and Mrs. Rubye Gill, teacher of instrumental music.

Mrs. Vivian H. Bundy is principal and James P. Matthews, vice principal.

Pupils take in business places

The fourth grade children in Mrs. Delores Stokes' class at School No. 105 ended their study of colonial Maryland with a program.

Mrs. S. Robinson's second grade class took a trip to a local bakery. They have taken trips to various other stores in the community.

Pupils making these trips were Alice Manning, Sandra Woodard, Denise Hudson, Deborah Fountaine, Rachel Newman, Stephanie Odom, Edwinia Bryant, Barbara Brooks, Deborah Lee and Charles James.

Also, Peggy Wallace, Prina Kearney, Keith Slowe, Ralph Slowe, Marshall Warren, Jerome Bruson, Jasper Edwards, Melvin Butler Gwendolyn Harris, Deleanor Mosley, Ronald Boyd, Sheila Hooper, Tyrone Jacobs, Lasharn Watkins, Leroy McFadden, Jesse Foster, Erle Foster, Willie Hilton and Marilyn Smith.

Award winner

Joseph Scarlett, instructor in chemistry at Baltimore Junior College, has just been awarded a National Science Foundation Fellowship for study at Florida State University for a summer institute of eight weeks from June 13 through August 7.

He will be a member of a special group of junior college instructors of science and mathematics and he will concentrate his study on the new theories, curriculum material, and techniques of teaching college chemistry.

Morgan to launch drive for $50,000 loan fund

Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, civic leader, Judge Morris A. Soper, and philanthropist Jacob Blaustein are among the honorary degree recipients of Morgan State College who have pledged support to the Alumni drive to raise $50,000 for a scholarship loan fund.

George C. Grant national president, disclosed today that all three of the distinguished alumni have sent in reservations for the kick-off dinner that will be held Sunday, April 19, 6 p.m., Morgan Memorial Refectory.

A table has been reserved for honorary degree alumni at the dinner at which the Rev. John Gardner, First Presbyterian Church, will speak.

Reservations for the dinner have been coming in very well, Chairman Grant disclosed, and expressed the hope for strong support of the dinner which opens a month - long campaign set for all of May in a national drive to boost the loan fund.

The fund is being established to enable bright but needy graduates of the college to secure loans for university training.

Subscriptions for the dinner are $25 per person. Reservations are being received in the Alumni Office, Morgan State College.

Working with Dean Grant on the steering committee are Miss Sallie Pompo, alumni secretary; Rufus Hackett, insurance executive; Dr. Nathaniel K. Proctor, professor of biology and president, Baltimore Chapter, Alumni Association; and Dr. Benjamin Jackson.

'Red Shoes' scheduled for April 24

"An abracadabra with the ribbon white, A hocus-pocus with the red one, too— It's all the magic the red shoes need To make a ballerina of you!"

This is but a bit of the whimsy and color to be found in Suzari Marionettes' latest musical adventure story "The Red Shoes" which will be given on Fridy, April 24, at William H. Lemmel School, 2801 Dukeland St.

This program is being sponsored by Baltimore Chapter Jack and Jill of America, Inc.

Symplifying the Suzari company's mastery of modern puppetry, the presentation of the ballet-fantasy "The Red Shoes" is offered in celebration of their 20th Anniversary.

The story has the charm and piquancy of old Denmark and is adapted from the classic by Hans Christian Anderson. Lilting folk-songs and dances, a gay circus scene, the antics of Ro-Ko-Ko the Clown, and the winsome Karen combine to make "The Red Shoes" fine entertainment for the very young and the young at heart.

Mark the date on your calendar of special events! Friday, April 24. Performances will begin at 1; 30 p.m., and 3:30 p.m.

Jake Cox helps select blue ribbon films

Jake Cox, director of the Audio-Visual Laboratory at Morgan State College, was one of approximately 150 experts selected to choose top educational films for the American Film Festival.

Mrs. Cox served as a juror at the Festival, which was held in New York City under sponsorship of the Educational Film Library Association.

The jurors, chosen from education, library service, radio and television and the motion picture industry, selected thirty-two films for Blue Ribbon Awards.

Earlier, the Morgan audio-visual specialist served with Dr. Effietee M. Payne, associate professor of health nad physical education, as co-chairmen of a pre-screening committee set up to eliminate films in the area of "Sports, Physical Education, and Recreation."

Mr. Cox, who also serves as instructor in education, is a graduate of Hampton Institute, holds the M.A. degree from New York University where he is currently completing work toward the doctoral degree.

Dr. Payne, although a specialist in health and physical education, has done extensive work in audio-visual education.

EDMONDSON NOTES

Student council elects officers

By MAXINE A. JOHNSON

The Student Council of Edmondson High School sponsored last Thursday to introduce the candidates for Student Council offices in the school year starting September 1959.

Speeches were made by the campaign managers of the students running for the office of secretary. There was no contest for the office of treasury because only one candidate showed a desire or this office.

Charlotte Gunderdorff, present president of the council introduced the candidates for the offices of vice president and president and they in turn —presented their campaign speeches to the student body.

Highlighting the assembly was a musical presentation by the EHS band.

Later the student body voted and the following students emerged victorious: for president, Uta Fellsbaer; for vice president, Richard Rose; for secretary, Marilyn Burnette, and for treasurer, Ann Hoefecker.

Class of '50 plans reunion

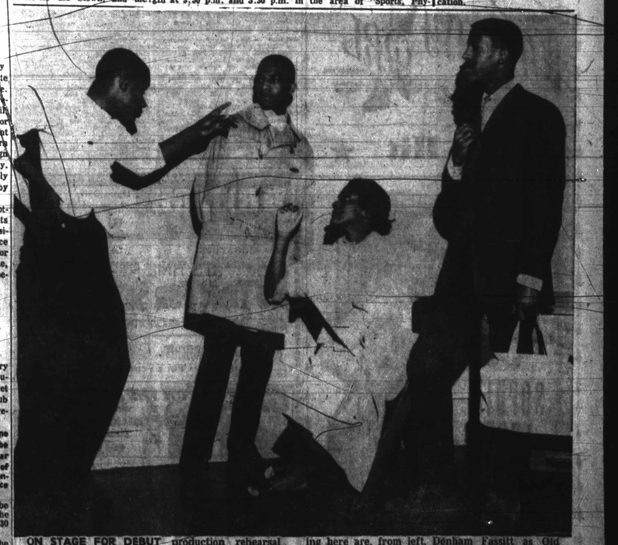
Members of the February 1950 graduating class of Douglass Senior High School met last Friday at the Sphinx Club to make plans for a class reunion.

The next meeting will be one of the most important to be held. Class members will hear reports from the chairman of the planning committee (Banquet) and from the finance committee chairman.

This business meeting will be held on the second floor of the Sphinx Club, promptly at 8:30 p.m., on Friday, May 8.

For further information, the following persons should be called: Clarence Sims, Cl. 4-1885; Mrs. Gladys T. Shannon, WI. 5-1550; Mrs. Marian T. Spencer, ID. 5-1115; Mrs. Alice J. Hall, ID. 5-3803.

THE MATTHEW A. HENSON COLLECTION opened at Morgan State College as part of the educational institution's observance of National Library Week. The staff of Soper Library opened the collection on April 6, the 50th anniversary of the North Pole, a date now proclaimed Matthew A. Henson Day in Maryland. Here Mrs. Lillian J. Brown, associate librarian and chairman of the Morgan Library Week observance, shows the diplomas awarded to the arctic explorer to students Vivian Fowlkes and Henry Pope. The display will remain open to the public throughout April.



ON STAGE FOR DEBUT production rehearsal are these members of the recently formed Madcaps, a Madison Avenue YWCA Dramatic Club. The first production, the one-act play "Where the Cross is Made," will be seen Saturday, April 18, at 8:30 p.m. at the YMCA. Cast members appearing here are, from left, Denham Fassitt as Old Captain Bartlett, Martin Jackson as Nat Bartlett, Sevelyn Hill as Sue Bartlett and Bobby Jones as Dr. Higgins. The play is an activity of the teenage department of the YWCA. A half hour talent show will precede the play.
