Dr., Mrs. Jenkins at Ghana celebration

with Lula Jones Garrett

Morgan State College President and Mrs. Martin D. Jenkins were among the guests attending the National Founders' Day celebration of the Embassy of Ghana in Washington, D.C. Monday evening.

Ambassador and Mrs. Daniel Chapman received guests at the reception which also honored the birthday of Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah.

Other guests included:

Haitian Ambassador and Mrs. Ernest Bonhomme, Liberian Ambassador and Mrs. George Padmore, Gen. and Mrs. B. O. Davis Sr.; Dr. and Mrs. Edward Mazique, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Evans;

Dr. Rayford Logan; Professor and Mrs. Leo Hansberry; Dr. Merze Tate, Col. and Mrs. Campbell C. Johnson; Col. and Mrs. West A. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garvin; Mr. and Mrs. Belford Lawson, Madame Lillian Evanti;

Dr. and Mrs. Harold A. Haynes, assistant corporation counsel and Mrs. Hubert Parr; Mr. and Mrs. L. Herbert Honegan, NCNW Executive Elsie Austin, AFL-CIO editor-writer Ethel Payne, Mrs. Marion Jackson, Mrs. Nina Hilburn, the Rev. and Mr. and Mrs. S. Everette Guiles, Republican National Committee Minorities Chief Val Washington;

Also, Dr. and Mrs. A. Garland Smyer, Judge and Mrs. Andrew Howard, Mrs. Marian Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Tucker and Eugene Davidson.

POT - POURRI: Mrs. Margaret Hubbard, who recently retired after 23 years on the staff of the Barrett School for Girls, Glen Burnie is having such a round of parties these days that she is as excited as a child with a new balloon. Mrs. Blanche McDonald of Piedmont Avenue entertained at dinner for Mrs. Hubbard, on Saturday, with other guests including Miss Elizabeth Carr and Mrs. Margaret Franklin gifted the honoree with a beautiful hand bag.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford James were hosts, when they gave her a silver vegetable dish. And on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Rideout, Mr. and Mrs. William Powell and Mrs. Hettie Dolman gathered at Mrs. Hubbard's Annapolis, Md. home for another dinner party.

If, one day, Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins sits down and writes a will which says "Being of sound and disposing mind I had a ball with my money," don't be surprised. For no sooner than she has returned from one faraway land, she is off on another.

This week Mrs. Jenkins is back from a 6,000 mile trek into Canada, where she luxuriated at the swellicant Jasper Lodge in Jasper Province of Alberta . . . taking off from that base for eight - seeing trips each day.

One such trip took her, via snow mobile, to the top of the Athadasca Glacier. "There is simply no place quite as beautiful as the Lodge setting;... flower - dappled in the valley, surrounded by mountains covered in 200 feet deep snow," says Mrs. Jenkins.

And speaking of beauty... nothing aided her recovery, says Mrs. Jesse Nicholas, as much as the beauty of the sentiment, flowers and cards that came during her recent illness. And nothing, I assure Mrs. Nicholas, is as beautiful to her friends as to see her up and about again.

If folks in the neighborhood of Mount Street and Riggs Ave. are missing their beloved street crossing guard, Mrs. Fannie Scott, they need not be alarmed. Mrs. Scott (house wife and mother of three, too) has turned co - ed. She resigned on August 25 to attend Coppin State Teachers College with a view towards achieving her life ambition to teach school.

Turning eyes as they turn corners, these days, are Dr. and Mrs. Ted Fisher... in a stark white Jaguar. Inside it's soft red.

Back in the States, for a far too short a visit, are Dr. and Mrs. Clinton E. (Clementine) Knox and their son and daughter, who have been in France for the past two years. Between seeing relatives in Baltimore, relatives in Massachusetts, relatives in Pennsylvania ... plus State Department conferences for Dr. Knox, the trip is a bit hectic.

They will be in town, however until Wednesday. In the meantime they are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Jones.

AFRO Editor and Mrs. Clifford Mackay past from St. Louis. Mo. that they and the Granville Winbornes are "living it up" in Missouri.

SUAVEST PARTY on the local hearth this week was that buffet on Saturday night at which Mattie Connor feted her daughter, Dr. Bertha M Morton of Los Angeles.

Dr. Martin, who practices dentistry in the California metropolis, spent a month's vacation with Mrs. Connor at the latter's summer home in Cape May, N.J. and town house, here.

About were:

Mrs. Clarence Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter, Mrs. Ethel Day, Miss Dukye Wood, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Snead, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Davidson, Dr. James Davidson, Mrs. Myrtle Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Crosby, John Watkins.

Mrs. Romeo Bratson, Mrs. Eliza Robinson and Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adam.

Dr. Martin, after a point by Washington (she taught in the Dental School of Howard University for several years) returned to California on Sunday.

WHEN LAMBDA KAPPA MU sorors held their opening session Saturday night they conducted four Aoons.

Initiated were Dorothy Smith, Esther Jones, Bettye Sheldon and Frankie Hinchen. Imogene B. Douglas is dean of pledgees.

Prudeful possessions displayed were the plaque denoting paid up life membership in NAACP by the chapter; certificate of merit awarded Iota at the national conclave in Washington; certificate of merit for special services went to Mary J. Mitchell. Mary H. Owens, Zerita T. Skates and Ovella M. Dorsey. Basileus Naomi D. Johnson presented the awards.

To climax an evening of awards and speech making Soror Josephine Maxwell presented a reading entitled, "What Makes a Good Soror?"

Sorors present were E. Louise Anderson, Gladys C. Baird, Olivia Bates, Lucy J. Bond, Elsie Bowser, Eunice Brooks, Valerie Brown, Ethel C. Covington, Helen S. DeLeaver, Ovella M. Dorsey, Imogene Sorors present were Valerie Brown were elected as delegates to attend the Region al Conference in November.

The newly initiated pledgees were honored guests at a luncheon given by the AAA dining room immediately following the business session.

Sorors present were E. Louise Anderson, Gladys C. Baird, Olivia Bates, Lucy J. Bond, Elsie Bowser, Eunice Brooks, Valerie Brown, Ethel C. Covington, Helen S. DeLeaver, Ovella M. Dorsey, Imogene

DOWN THROUGH the years, Baltimore's most civic-minded young matrons have followed in the footsteps of their elders in carrying forward the work of the Cooperative Women's Civic League. Here, Mrs. Nathan Pitts pours tea from a piece of the magnificent silver service she brought home when she recently returned from Iran. At left, Dr. G. James Fleming of Morgan State College faculty.

WHEN 1,000-PLUS women turned out for the annual Flower Show, Fashion Show, Musicale and Tea that marked the seasonal opening of the Cooperative Women's Civic League in Baltimore, Sunday, most interested were two veteran members above. Mrs. Margaret Hawkins, right, was one of the women, who with the late Mrs. Fernandis, founded the League. Mrs. Fernandis, founded the League. Mrs. Veola Coleman was a very early member.

Bond Street Club takes 'Fantasia' show award

Roses, exhibited by the Bond Street Garden Club took first aim and Mrs. Helen Conway place in the annual Flower Show of the Cooperative Women's Civic League Saturday.

The show held this year, in connection with the "Fantasia," which featured a program as well as a fashion show and tea, took place in the Carver Vocational - Technical high school.

Other winners in the flower show, which had as chairmen Mrs. Bernard S. Harris Sr. and Mrs. Henrietta Holliman were:

Mrs. Abbie McNair, second prize, and the Andrew Chapel Church, third prize.

MRS. PEARL WILSON placed first in the dahlia division. Second prize went to Mrs. Douglas Camper, and third prize to Mrs. Annie Fitzgerald.

Under miscellaneous groupings, Mrs. Madeline Harding took first place; Mrs. M. Davidson, second; Mrs. Camper, third, and Mrs. Harding, fourth.

A second fourth prize went to the Barrett School for Girls which exhibited a collection of cockscomb.

MRS. JULIA BROOKS was first prize winner for table arrangements. Mrs. Anne Smith took second and fourth place prizes and Mrs. Webster Kendricks, third.

Mrs. M. Evans placed first in both canned fruits and canned vegetables, and Mrs. Julia Brooks, second in these two categories.

An exquisite decoration, a nine - foot bird cage, filled with a miscellany of flowers, dominated the cafeteria, where the show was held. It was the contribution of Norman Holt, Ashburton florist. Also exhibited, out of competition, were exceptionally beautiful arrangements of flowers by G. Luther Washington.

A foyer arrangement of flowers was shown by the Maryland Florists Association.

Judges for the show were Mrs. Houston R. Jackson, chairman; Mrs. Mary F. Burns, Mrs. Loretta Valentine, Mr. Washington and Mrs. Saul Perdue.

DURING THE SHOWING the Fantasia committee poured tea from two beautifully decorated tables.

Earlier, the program had featured Lou Bennett, organist, who charmed the more than 1,000 guests who attended with a program that ranged from spirituals to classics. Interspersed were monologues by James Chambers.

THE FASHION SHOW, a main feature of the program, was entirely of furs, with Mitchell, of Howard St., showing a range of capes, stoles and coats that ran from dyed rabbit to the most exquisite highstyled minks, chinchillas, etc. Also shown were fur - trimmed leather coats.

And along with these were furhats and bags by Mr. Albert of Mitchell's.

Mrs. Talmadge Hill was commentator for the fashion show. At the organ was Claude Grant, and the models included Mesdames Diana Kane, Christine Moore, Josephine Rogers, Janet Woolridge, Lelia Terry and Lucretia Whitten; and Miss Aurelia Parker.

Door prizes, an original chapeau by Mr. Albert, and a hand bag from Michellis, were led by a committee which was headed by Mrs. Maurice Adams, general chairman with Mrs. G. Luther Washington and Mrs. Hill, co-chairman.

The project was a benefit for League House, the McCulloh Street headquarters of the League and which serves as a community project for a large number of organizations.

Mrs. Ralph V. Cook is president of the League.

Miss Spruell bride of Gamelia Jackson

Fulton Baptist Church was the scene of the recent marriage of Miss Magdalene Spruell and Gamelia C. Jackson.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. F. Jackson. The alter was beautifully decorated in white with palms, gladioli and candelabras on each side.

The ceremony was proceeded by a half hour of nuptial music by Miss Chesine Medlone, soloist. Purcell Taylor was at the organ.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, Amos Spruell of Oak City, N.C., was attired in a gown of imported Chantilly lace over tulle.

It was fashioned with a fitted bodice, boat neckline and long sleeves ending in cella points over the wrists. The bouffant apron front skirt was of Chantilly lace scalloped over net bottom of ruffles which extended into small chapel train. Her finger tip veil of tulle was attached to a pearl crown pastel iridescence backed in fullness of illusion. Her accessories included white brocade shoes and a prayer book covered with white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Mary Booze was maid of honor. She was gowned in a ballerina length gown of nile with white velveray over taffeta with the very wide sash and bow topped at the back and streamers in matching taffeta. She wore a Mary Queen of Scott bonnet style hat with matching shoes. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids wore ballerina length gowns of white velveray over taffeta in rainbow colors with the wide sashes topped at the back and large bows and streamers in matching taffeta. They also wore Mary Queen of Scott bonnet style hats in rainbow colors and shoes to match.

They carried bouquets of roses and pompons.

They were Misses Hattie Spruell, Mary Davis, Evelyn Boyd, and Mrs. Earnestine Bruce. Dainty and sweet were the two flowers girls, Bonita Cody, niece of the bride and Debora Lee, who wore dresses on over skirts of white nylon outlined with pastel shades of pink and blue. They wore hats to match their dresses and carried straw baskets of colorful flowers.

JOSEPH BARBEUR was best man. Ushers were Amos Spruell Jr., brother of the bride; Lavern Jackson, James Cheeks and David Jones. Gilbert Cody, nephew of the bride, attired in full dress, served as ring bearer.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Arrena Spruell of Oak City, N.C., chose a light blue lace dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Lenora Muse of Lillian, Va., mother of the bridegroom, wore a soft blue lace dress with matching accessories. She also chose a corsage or orchids.

The ceremony was followed by a reception in the lower auditorium of the church.

Hostess were Mrs. Katrina Boyd, Mrs. Lorraine Greene, Mrs. Sarah Cameron and Mrs. Mary B. Jones.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Reaford Taylor and daughter of Richmond, Va., Miss Rubye Spruell, Henry Parker, Mrs. Hazel Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Rasland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montier, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Suggs and Miss Sarah Walker, all of Washington;

Mrs. Ella Monique of Pennsylvania, Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Jackson, Mr. and Mrs Selvia Basker, Mrs. Corethia Muse, and Miss Dianna Muse of Lillian, Va.;

Misses Mary, Joyce and Gloria Spruell of Oak City, N.C.

A number of pre-nuptial affairs were held in honor of the bride. After the reception, the bridal party, along with several guests, were entertained by the bride's sister, Mrs. Emery L. Cody, 4732 Kimberleigh Road.

The wedding was directed by James Dougherty.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will reside at 2205 Allendale Road.

SALUTE TO CLUB OF THE WEEK

Femmes Continentals aid hospitals and the needy

(FOLLOWING IS THE FIRST IN SERIES OF FEATURES ON CLUBS OF BALTIMORE. EACH GROUP SELECTED AS CLUB OF THE WEEK WILL RECEIVE AN AFRO CASH AWARD FOR ITS FAVORITE CHARITY. NOMINATE YOUR CLUB FOR THIS NEW FEATURE. WRITE: AFRO WOMAN'S EDITOR, BALTIMORE, MD. BE SURE TO TELL WHAT YOU ARE DOING ON PLAN TO DO AND GIVE NAMES OF MEMBERS.)

"Integration is a two - way street," said Femmes Continentals. So, last season they pitched in, collected funds and provided television sets for Franklin Square Hospital.

They have also aided Provident Hospital along with their favorite charity which is to provide aid for needy families.

"WE LIKE to help the 'little' people," explained Mrs. Charlotte Williams, this week. Sgt. Violet Hill Whyte is our main reference source. Often, we provide food and clothing for persons and families whom she selects because they are in dire need.

Mrs. Williams is a charter member of the club.

Of special interest to the club, also, is community health. Toward this end, the club contributes to most of the health drives.

This week, the club met and discussed plans for a cabaret party to be held in the Famous Ballroom on Dec. 27. It is from such benefits that they derive funds for their charity projects.

But Femme Continentals are no "Dull Jilla" from all work and no play. Their Pink Champagne Dance, at which they are hosts to several hundred guests each year, is now a Baltimore tradition.

MRS. GENEVA DYSON is president of the club this year. Other officers are: Mesdames Elizabeth Davis, vice president; Alverta Smith, secretary; Cornelia Lewis, corresponding secretary; Zelma Johnson, financial secretary; Susie Graham, treasurer; Natalie Phelps, business manager.

Members also include Mesdames Williams, Helena Hodge, Frances Martin and Jennie Donohue.

In Appreciation

The members of the Board of the Cooperative Women's Civic League take pleasure in expressing their appreciation and gratitude to all individuals, organizations and groups that contributed to its Fantasia for 1959.

The Board is also grateful for the fine audience that supported the project.
