Baltimore County News and Views

By DORIS BAKER BROWN

To my Baltimore County News and Views readers:

Thank you for your sincere and encouraging notes, messages and phone calls. Through what better medium could I have learned how much you enjoy my column? I appreciate your taking the time to be so thoughtful.

Yours is a community where children, because of the age in which they live, are swept early into life's rapid pace, yet still maintain their youthfulness; a community where busy adults still pause to smile and give a cheery "hello" to friends or to the community's newcomers.

You are a happy, creative and interesting people, contributing much to all walks of life and the cultural aspects of your community. You thank me for writing about you. I thank you for allowing yourselves to be written about. It is a pleasure to serve you.

Baltimore County school marms who are members of the Maryland League of Women are still talking about the wonderful journey to Annapolis last Saturday.

We all know by now that the club ladies lunched at fabulous Carvel Hall. But how many of you know that one of the guides who conducts sightseeing tours through the Naval Academy is colored and has worked in and around the academy for 46 years. The gentleman's name is Marcellus Hall.

WHEN ASKED what about the Naval Academy impressed them most, the ladies couldn't decide whether it was the "wedding cake dome" in the center of the chapel, John Paul Jones crypt or the stirring sight of 3,910 handsome men marching to dinner.

Baltimore County teachers seen among the many Maryland League of Women members in Annapolis were Mrs. Iona Smith, Mrs. Ardella Ross and Miss Barbara Jackson.

Incidently, Miss Jackson's mother, Mrs. Marie Thomas of Annapolis, was one of the official hostesses.

UNIQUE IDEAS are constantly being thought of. At a Silver Tea Party sponsored by Emma Williams Temple, Daughter of Elks, Catonsville, all the past daughter rulers who had served the chair and were present at the tea were presented a silver dollar as a keepsake and token of appreciation.

The oldest charter member present, was also presented a silver dollar.

Tea was poured by Mrs. Irene Green and Mrs. Violet Wise. Mrs. Anna McCormick is daughter ruler of the Temple. Two deputies were present, Mrs. Rosa Fields, district deputy and Mrs. Mary Robinson, special deputy. The Silver Tea Party was held at the Morning Star Baptist Church.

Speaking of Elks!! Catonsville can well be proud of Mrs. Gladys E. Johnson, one of the most outstanding Elks in our State. Mrs. Johnson holds the office of Adjutant of Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and the District of Columbia in Military Department of the I.B.P.O.E. of W.

She is also a past daughter ruler of Emma Williams Temple No. 358, past loyal daughter ruler of Peace and Harmony Council.

When the Elks Convention was held in Atlantic City this past August, Mrs. Johnson, better known to members of the Elks as Lt. Colonel Johnson of the Military Department, resplendent in her white uniform was there also, drawing admiring oh's and ah's as she and her group strutted up the avenue.

Mrs. Johnson is also a member of the Grace AME Church and a dedicated community, civic, church and fraternity worker. Catonsville has been Mrs. Johnson's home for 46 years. Congratulations Mrs. Johnson. Not only are the Elks proud of you; everyone in your community is.

BY THE BYE, big plans are shaping up for the Elks Mamoth cocktail hour Nov. 8. Mark that date on your calendar won't you?

It can never be said that Mrs. Josephine Burton's birth date Sept. 27, was forgotten!! Imagine the joy she experienced when she walked in the living room of her son and daughter - in - law's home, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore C. Burton, 302 Winters Lane, and was greeted with the sound of many voices singing happy birthday!!

The Burton's had gone all out to prepare a surprise party mother would never forget. The happy expression on Mrs. Burton's faces said she would never forget their thoughtfulness.

To further help Mrs. Burton celebrate her natal day, she was guest of honor at a luncheon given by her sister, Mrs. Laura Simms.

Mrs. Burton resides at 208 Winters Lane and has lived there for 46 years. She is a member of St. Marks Catholic Church.

Rev. Thompson has come to Mt. Olivet, the Mt. Olivet Memorial Circle has been organized. When Mt. Olivet's new church hall is dedicated it will be named the Mt. Olive Memorial Hall in memory of charter members of the church.

Members of the Mt. Olivet Memorial Circle are Mrs. Rosa Ile Hall, president; Mrs. Amy Warden, vice president; Mrs. Lorener Pye, secretary; Mrs. Agnes Allen treasurer and Mrs. Sandy Scott, chaplin.

Readers out Towson way are looking forward to the third Sunday in October. That's the day the Missionaries of the St. James A.U.M.P. Church will celebrate their 36th anniversary.

The Rev. Calvin Jones from Havre de Grace, Md. his choir and congregation will worship with the group.

Mrs. Lucy Crump is president of the Missionary Society. Pastor of St. James A.U.M.P. Church is the Rev. Edward McNair.

See what kindness can do: Mrs. Theo King and Mrs. Viola Hayes wish to thank each and everyone for the cards and gifts they sent Muriel Burton while she was in the hospital.

Muriel is now recuperating at home and hopes to join her school mates and friends very soon.

Banneker PTA meets Wednesday, Oct. 14.

* * *

THE MEMBERS and friends of Mt. Olivet Methodist Church, Edmondson Ave. are anxiously awaiting Sunday, Oct. 18. That is the day a distinguished retired Bishop of the Methodist Conference will visit them.

They look forward to the sermon of Bishop Alexander P. Shaw at 3 p.m. and invite you to worship with them.

The Rev. A. A. Thompson is pastor of Mt. Olivet and comes to Catonsville with a number of wonderful achievements to his credit.

Something to Think About:

To be faithless oft means to be faithful.
To be false often means to be true.
The vale that loves clouds that are golden
Forgets them for skies that are blue.

To forget often means to remember
What we had forgotten too long.
The fragrance is not the bright flower,
The echo is not the sweet song."
