Parent - Teacher Association members throughout Maryland, this is your week. Governor Millard Tawes has proclaimed Oct. 17-24 as PTA Week.

Parent - Teacher Associations are important to every community because they enable parents and others who love children and want what is right for them to take the initiative on their behalf.

Catonsville citizens proved they are proud of their school and local parent-teacher association when at the first Banneker PTA meeting for the school year a large number of parents were in attendance.

Presiding was Mrs. Betty Campbell, vice president of the organization.

It was revealed that officers and delegates had been kept busy attending meetings of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers and the County Council of Parents and Teacher Associations.

Delegates to various meetings were Mrs. Betty Campbell, Mrs. Frances Henson, Mrs. Ruth Leigh, Mrs. Charlotte Scott, Miss Lola Mills and Gerald Griffin.

The group was also informed that Banneker PTA, submitted a resolution (as did other county PTA groups) confirming their support of the school budget as presented to the county commissioners.

Now that the school year has begun and the PTA program is in high gear, won't you join and share in a democratic parent - teacher partnership that is pledged to work for the best interests of ALL children?

* * *

DO YOU know your Banneker Parent Teacher Association officers?

President is Robert Sturgis, who lives at 323 Suter Rd. with his wife Francescia and three children, Larry, Diane and Rhonda.

Mr. Sturgis is a chauffeur. A former serviceman, he is proud of the fact that he was a member of the famed 555th Paratroopers.

Although an avid football fan and ping - pong player, Mr. Sturgis enjoys working with children most of all.

He feels that closer contact with teen-agers, playing sports with them, talking to them, listening to their problems and trying to understand them encourages better relationships between adults and the children of the community.

"Such treatment helps to develop respect rather than a rebellious attitude," states Mr. Sturgis.

"Being a member of the Maryland Congress of PTA's has given us additional prestige," continues Mr. Sturgis.

"Even though we're often unable to attend the many meetings and activities, our PTA is invited to attend, we know about them, we have a voice in all meetings and we're free to express our viewpoint."

Mr. Sturgis is a native of New York City, his wife hails from Leesburg, Va. Two other much-loved members in the family circle are a three-year-old issine named Buzzy and a five-year-old bird.

VICE PRESIDENT of the PTA is Mrs. Betty Campbell, 312 Melvin Ave. Mrs. Campbell is the wife of Sgt. Raymond A. Campbell, Morgan graduate, now a career serviceman serving in Korea.

The Campbells have four children, Steven, Stephanie, Deborah and Keith.

Mrs. Campbell has traveled extensively with her husband, welcoming the opportunity to see new cities, many races of people and varied ways of life.

Although the duties of a housewife and mother of four very active children keep Mrs. Campbell quite busy, along with her duties as PTA vice president she is an active member of St. Marks Catholic Church.

Mrs. Campbell was one of the delegates to the meeting of the County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations held at Dunbarton Junior High School, Towson.

Mrs. Campbell's hobby is solving crossword puzzles. She also enjoys sewing and collecting records. Although a native of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Campbell is a graduate of Baltimore City's Douglass High School.

* * *

SECRETARY OF the Banneker PTA is Mrs. Charlotte Scott, 324 A Suter Rd. Mrs. Scott is the wife of Edgar Scott.

The Scotts have three children, all sons, William, Kirk, and Arnim.

Mrs. Scott is a member of Mt. Olive Methodist Church, serves on the usher board and belongs to the Ladies Sewing Circle. Mrs. Scott was also one of the delegates to the County Council meeting at Dunbarton.

Assistant secretary is Miss Lola Mills, teacher of special education at Banneker School.

Miss Mills is a graduate of Bowie State Teachers College and corresponding secretary of the Maryland State Teachers Alumni Association, Baltimore Chapter.

Miss Mills was a delegate to the meeting of the County Council of PTA's at Dunbarton Junior High School.

* * *

MRS. FRANCES HENSON is treasurer of the Banneker PTA. She is a member of the Morning Star Baptist Church and is also secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Mrs. Henson has two daughters, Barbara, a seventh grade student at Catonsville Junior High and Beverly, an eighth grade student at Banneker.

Mrs. Henson attended the Special Education Workshop of the October County Council meeting and was amazed at the amount of effort put forth to help the county's mentally retarded children.

Sewing is Mrs. Henson's hobby. She makes most of her children's clothes.

Banneker School representative to the County Council PTA is Gerald Griffin, mathematics teacher at Banneker.

Mr. Griffin is also a graduate of Bowie State Teachers College and a member of its alumni association.

The next PTA meeting at Banneker will be held on the second Wednesday in November.

The business meeting will be held and a special program celebrating National Educational Week will be presented.

Come out won't you? You, as an individual are important to the PTA's success.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT: Support your PTA. The child you help may be your own.

SUNDAY MORNING, Oct. 11, was the time of a heartwarming event.

After the quiet prayers and moment of meditation in beautiful Grace AME Church, the Rev. C. C. Brown assisted by the Rev. Oscar Christmas, performed the sacrament of baptism upon infant Dion Ashley Ross.

The peacefully cooing baby was held by her godmother, Mrs. Edith Clement, Catonsville Junior High teacher.

Godfather is Weldon J. Irvine, Sollars Point and Banneker Junior School instructional music teacher.

Baby Dion's christening attire was white and exquisitively hand embroidered.

The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ross, 354 Suter Road, Catonsville. Mr. Ross is a former Banneker instructor, now teaches industrial arts at School No. 116-A in Baltimore.

After the church services Mrs. Ross served a buffet dinner for her guests. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ancel Halebock, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ridgley, Lee Miles, Frank Clement and daughter, Weldon Irvine and Mrs. J. L. Urquheart. Also, the Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Brown, the Rev. Oscar Christmas and Mrs. Nora De Shields.

The godparents helped make the infant's future secure by presenting to her a substantial saving bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Warden gave the baby a lovely christening cake among other gifts was a silver spoon and fork set, gifted by Mrs. Ruth Neal. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

CUTE CHERYL RILEY is still talking about her Volkswagon trip to Sumter, S.C., where she visited relatives and renewed old friendships.

Cherly is an eight grade student at Banneker and was amazed at the difference in customs between our Maryland and her father's native South Carolina. Cheryl visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Keels.

Motoring South with Cheryl were her mother, Virginia; brother, Charles and uncle, C Keels.

When the eighth grade class of Banneker School held its election of officers the following students were elected:

Sonia Hardy, president; April Richardson, vice president; Cheryl Riley, secretary; Lenora Henson, treasurer; and Phyllis Randall, assistant treasurer.

The class has many interesting plans for the new school year. Included are movie parties, a class trip to a historical site and a class trip to an amusement park.

Remember, send all news to 237 N. Culver St. or phone WI 5-0272.

NEW RESTAURANT — The York Hotel's liquor license has been approved for transfer to the above premises at 1600 Madison Ave. Lloyal Randolph, York Hotel owner, plans a restaurant here, after renovations. Plans for abandoning the York Hotel, which must be torn down for urban renewal development, hav not been completed.

Passenger in collision dies from injuries

Injuries suffered in a two-car collision at North Ave. and Longwood St., almost a month ago claimed the life of Mrs. Gladys Williams, 34, of 2120 Herbert St., Wednesday at Lutheran Hospital.

Mrs. Williams was injured on August 27 while riding in a car driven by her husband, Hugh Williams.

Police said the accident occurred as the Williams car was about to make a left turn into Longwood St. and collided with another car driven by John R. Lezsene, 24, 2100 block W. North Ave.

Man under bail in dispute with friend

Charles Glenn, 39, 2200 block Brunt St., was placed under $1,000 bail in Western Police Court Wednesday, on a charge of shooting a friend who was visiting at his home.

Magistrate H. Morton Rosen scheduled a hearing for 3 p.m. November 24.

The wounded man is Roland Rivers, 47, 1400 block Oakbury Ct., who was shot in the legs.

Police report that the shooting occurred on the early morning of the past Sunday, after Mr. Rivers had allegedly struck his wife, Mrs. Doris Rivers, during a dispute.

EDMONDSON NOTES

Season's first social promises pleasure

By DELORES COUSER

Tonight (Friday) the students of Edmondson High will be starting to the mouse of the Del Mars at the first social affair of the season, sponsored by the Student Council.

Students seeking college scholarships will be given a Preliminary Scholarship Aptitude Test at Polytechnic on Saturday, Oct. 24, at 8:30 p.m.

In addition to scholarship hopefuls, juniors and seniors interested in college may take this test for guidance purposes.

Tentative plans have been made for the Yaw, which is the school yearbook. Blue and gold, which are the colors of the June class, will probably be the yellow theme for the yearbook according to Terry Leach, advisor.

The yearbook will be distributed when the students return to school in September and seniors will receive theirs around the end.

THE ART Service and Sketch Club is one of the clubs which is designed to attract interested and talented students who want to use their artistic abilities to serve their school.

Within their work is not only mural, the young artists will put down their pants and shoes and go on expeditions of local museums.

Also on the club's agenda are visits to artists' studios. One of their more exciting exploits will be to witness the actual creation of animated cartoons.

Personalities, Curtis Smith, a basic senior, has been the chief photographer for the Edmondson Eagle for two years. He began taking pictures about four years ago as a hobby.

This hobby was started with his Argus Flash Camera and now he snaps his photos with a Minolta Autocord.

In 1958 Curtis won second place in a Maryland Scholastic Association Contest. Besides taking pictures for the Eagle, Curtis also writes features and news stories.

He is also a member of Quill and Scroll, which is an honor society for the high school journalist.

This shutterbug, when asked what subject that he likes to photograph, his reply naturally, "girls."

Central court gets new look

The Central District Court room got a new look Wednesday, as the flag of an American flag and a Maryland State flag.

They were presented to Chief Magistrate Joseph Kolondy by the Maryland Free State Post No 167, Jewish War Vets and Auxiliary preceding the afternoon court session.

In accepting the flags Magistrate Kolodny said, "they will stand as a symbol that color and creed are equal in these court rooms."
