
THESE ARE MOTHERS! — That's right, these attractive dancers are really members of the Parent Teacher Association at Baltimore Roosevelt Elementary School No. 18. They were photographed at Washington's Sheraton Park Hotel on Friday evening, where they participated in Pigskin Club's second annual benefit show. The School's PTA received $300 award from the sponsoring club. Left to right, Mesdames Tillie Pair, Ginny Piechert, Nikki Randolph and Shirley Polikoff.

$300 AWARDS FOR SERVICE were made during Pigskin Club's benefit at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington Friday evening. In left panel, Mrs. Flaxie Pinkett, president of the Baker's Dozen Youth Center in D.C., gets $300 award from Lawrence A. Oxley, Pigskin president. In right panel, Mr. Oxley gives $300 award to Mrs. Tillie Pair for the PTA of Roosevelt Elementary School No. 18 in Baltimore.

DEBUT after three years illness due to a fall was made by Savannah Churchill, who sang at the Pigskin Club's benefit show on Friday evening. Miss Churchill still walks with the aid of a cane.

Baltimoreans shine at Washington event

It was Baltimoreans' night in Washington on Friday evening.

A representative number of Monumental City residents turned out for the second annual benefit soiree and ladies night sponsored by the Pigskin Club of D.C., headed by Lawrence A. Oxley.

The affair was in the Sheraton Room at the Sheraton Park Hotel.

Highlight of the evening was a midnight stage show, entitled "PTA Frolic Revue."

The show was originally produced as a part of the Spring 1959 PTA fund-raising project for the Roosevelt Elementary School No. 18 in Baltimore, and was staged and directed by Tillie Pair and Nikki Randolph.

* * *

THE ORIGINAL group was augmented by a number of talented Baltimoreans including lance instructor Gwendolyn Biddie.

Other professional performers who starred in the beautifully costumed dance and song numbers were: Robert (Bob) Young, who has appeared professionally with a number of orchestras all over the world; Ambrose Smith, pianist, and Sam Speedie, tenor singer, both with the Rivers Chambers Orchestra, and Chuck Richards, radio and television personality.

During the evening, Mr. Oxley presented two $300 awards to representatives of the Baker's Dozen Youth Center and the School No. 18 PTA. Mrs. Flaxie Pinkett accepted for Baker's Dozen and Mrs. Pair and Mrs. Randolph for the School No. 18 PTA.

These are just two of the five groups to benefit from the club's treasury this year.

Other awards are to the Washington Urban League Freedom Fund of the NAACP, providing six $100 freshman college scholarships for worthy high school graduates; and the Greater Southeast Community Hospital Building Fund.

* * *

PARTICIPANTS IN the show were: Mesdames Esther Cypes, Thelma Feingold, Mildred Young, Ruth Jennifer, Helen Glover, Jeannette Leath, Dorothy Leuba, Reba Lewis, and Mary Guth.

The men participating besides Messrs. Richards, Young, Speedie and Smith were Messrs. Morton Guth, Edward Young, John Leath, Harry Adams, David Peichert, and Dr. Albert Burwell.

Harold Jennifer handled the lights; and Bob and Phyllis Diggs provided transportation and costume assistance. Mrs. Rorena Ridgley was wardrobe mistress. Mrs. Reba Lewis handled the show cards.

* * *

AMONG OTHER Baltimoreans seen in the audience were:

Messrs. and Mesdames George Jude, George Carroll, Edward Williams, Frank Veney, Dick Howard, Rufus Tucker, Frank Phillips, Rap Wheatley, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Pryce Hughes, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Harris; Dr. Garland Chissell and his mother, Mrs. Connie Chissell; Dr. and Mrs. Walter Shervington, Dr. Bruce Alleyne and the Vernon Greenes.

Also, Mesdames Ada Woodland, Edith Smith, Mary Maiden, Mabel Magans, Llewellyn Walker, Ellsworth Rhetts, Blanche McRae, Ruth Shipley, Jimmy LaFerret, Ivy Harris, Olga Rodney, Tillie Young;

And, State Senator J. Alvin Jones, Magistrate Josiah Henry, and Bill Alexander. Senator Jones is one of the newer members of the Pigskin Club.

After the show, a number of Baltimoreans went on to John Pinketts for cocktails, and still later to the Worth Dryes for breakfast.—B. M. PHILLIPS.

POWER BEHIND the successful program of the Pigskin Club of Washington is Lawrence A. Oxley, president, shown here with Mrs. Oxley and daughter, Mrs. Edna des Verney of New Rochelle, N.Y. Pigskin Club has as its motto, "democracy in sports." Group's 22nd annual awards dinner is set for Dec. 11 at the Willard Hotel.

REUNION—These two gentlemen met for the first time in 20 years. Both were at the Pigskin Club's second annual benefit show in Washington Friday evening. State Senator J. Alvin Jones (D., 4th), is at right. At left, Robert Lewis of D.C. Mr. Lewis, brother of Baltimore's Mrs. Pearlie Pennington, is a retired file clerk.

Cunningham back with Bullets 5

Jim Cunningham, whose driving layups earned him the best scoring average among the Bullets last year, was restored to the active playing roster when he informed Coach Buddy Jeannette that his job with a Buffalo trucking firm will not prevent his playing this season.

It had been earlier feared the Ex-Fordham cager would be unavailable because of his job, but Cunningham says he has worked out a schedule with his bosses although he will be unable to report until the Eastern League opener here against Sunbury on November 12.

* * *

CUNNINGHAM, however, reports he has been working out almost daily with Canisius College.

Last winter Cunningham averaged 18.1 for the Bullets while scoring 254 points in 14 games. Specializing in driving, the six-foot-three player put in a team record 38 at Sunbury, getting a record 15 baskets in that one, and another record 12 free throws against Hazleton here.

Rams, Union's Barbosa still top CIAA in ground gaining

DURHAM (CIAA News Service) — Winston-Salem's team performance and Union University's Napoleon Barbosa in individual total offense have been statistical highlights in the CIAA's football agenda for October's later weeks.

On October 17, the Rams of Coach Tank Conrad were averaging 381 yards in total offense and 303 in rushing offense.

By October 24, however, for four games in contrast to the previous week's three tilts, the Rams averaged 348 yards.

On October 24, Barbosa had averaged 423 yards in six contests. This compared with 341 yards of the previous week.

* * *

WINSTON SALEM'S Nelson Guthrie with a 83 yard average in three games on October 17 led the loop's rusher. October 24's leader, however, was Morgan's Earl Bowen, who in four games, accumulated an 84.5 average.

A and T's Otis Perry was passing leader on Oct. 17 with 12 of 23 completions (52 per cent). Bluefield's Jim Scott was high man on Oct. 24 with 12 of 21 completions (57 per cent).

Glenfield Knight of Shaw held his pass receiving leadership for the two week period. On Oct. 17, he'd caught 15 passes for 353 yards and four TD's in four outings. By Oct. 24, he'd upped his mark to 18 receptions in 5 tilts for 375 yards with no additional scores.

* * *

UNION'S HEZEKIAH BRAXTON is also a two - week repeater in scoring honors. In five battles he tallied 6 TD's and 18 six, he added one for 42.

NCC's Reginald Pryor continues to dominate the punters. In five games, he averaged 51.9 yards on 23 kicks with one being blocked. He upped his average in six contests with 33 boots averaging 36.8 yards.

Johnson C. Smith University's Golden Bulls who held opponents in four tilts to 52 yards in five games yielded an average of only 54.

Defending champion A and T continues to dominate passing offense at team level 27 of 51 completions in four games against three interceptions for 52.9 completion percentage and two TD's.

Walters high gun victor at Saunders Day shoot

WATERLOO, Md.—Saunders' Day at the Falcon Rod and Gun Club Inc. was the attraction to shooters of the Eastern Skeet and Trap Shooting Association, on the club grounds Sunday, November 1.

Despite a 20-mile wind which haunted them, 50 shooters, encouraged by the plaudits of the more than 250 guests, managed to make a creditable showing, with the following results in the 50-bird contest:

Class A—Thomas Walters — 46 x 50

Class B—Paul Edwards — 44 x 50

Class C—(No competition)

James T. Dorsey—33 x 50

Class D—Howard Rewlings — 37 x 50

Class E—James Ford—38 x 50

Thomas Walters continued possession of the totaling, massive hi-gun trophy.

* * *

CLUBS participating were: Present Day, St. Louis, Mo.; Main Line, Wayne, Pa.; Deep Sea, Washington, D.C.; Patuxent, Rockville, Md.; Royal, Aquasco, Md., and Cedar Meadows, Cambridge, Md.

At the conclusion of the shoot and during the banquet, citations for meritorious service were awarded as follows:

Clarence E. Cornish, J. W. Saunders, Nathan E. Harris, L. B. Gamby (in absentia) Herbert M. Priddy, William E. Lewis and John H. Murphy, Jr.

* * *

LUNCHEON WAS served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Falcons, under the supervision of Miss Mildred Williams.

Harry Macer is president of the Falcons and Mrs. Edithe M. Saunders, president of the Auxiliary. William Nash was master of ceremonies.

Among the visitors, Layton Weston was awarded the coveted Hi-Gun honors dropping 46 targets in 50.

The Auxiliary presented Mrs. Saunders with an electric wool blanket, and from the Falcons a gorgeous purple orchid.

John Thomas leaps 7 ft. in first public effort

JOHN THOMAS

BOSTON, Mass. — World high - jumping champion John Thomas is still that, apparently.

The 18 - year - old sophomore at Boston University amazed news photographers and members of the football team Thursday afternoon when he leaped 7 feet with ease, to prove he suffers no trace of handicap as result of a foot injury sustained last spring.

Thomas crushed his left foot in an elevator accident a month after he had bettered the world record with a jump of 7 feet, 1¼ inches. He has been engaging in restricted workouts this fall along with the BU eleven.

* * *

EARLIER he had worked at a summer Boy Scout camp.

On September 1 he and Flanagan accompanied the football squad to its Petersborough, N.H., training camp. John pitched right in to help out and in the process got in some swimming, running and general exercise to get the left leg, shrunken by disuse, back to normal size.

* * *

WHEN NEWS photogs showed up to make football pictures on Thursday, they urged coach Doug Raymond to let them get shots of Thomas.

"We thought we'd let John try a little jumping," Raymond explained.

Thomas took three practice jumps, then cleared 6-7, 6-9, 6-11 and sailed over 7 feet on successive attempts.

"I never saw anything like it in my life," Raymond said, "and the aluminum crossbar was bent the wrong way —up instead of down.
