Effect of urban change to be institute topic

The effect of urban change on families, particularly Maryland families, will be the subject of one of the Institutes of the Maryland State Conference of Social Welfare, set for Wednesday, Nov. 18, at the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, 7401 Park Heights Avenue.

Albert G. Rosenberg, Community Organization Division Director with the Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Agency, is leader of the panel, which will stress the significant patterns effecting the urban family, such as increased family mobility.

The increased number of aged persons in the population and the resulting need to study retirement programs and to provide health and welfare services will be discussed, as will the effect of housing decay, overcrowding and major public improvements on the family.

Dear friends in the brotherhood of God, through the love of Jesus Christ and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. We ask the aid and cooperation of all mothers in encouraging their children to attend regularly the Sunday school of their choice. We feel this early training in the teachings of Christ is an investment that will contribute greatly to the future happiness of both parent and child. It is up to us, the people of God, to begin such a movement NOW. May the inspiration of the Holy Spirit bless the people of all races and go with us, in this our chosen endeavor.

Says choice of belief determines character

You are what you close to and believe how you close to act, Mrs. Mabel K. Staupers told women and girls of St. James Episcopal Church, here, Sunday.

The former head of the National Association of Colored Nurses, who is now engaged in writing a history of colored nurses in America, was speaker at the breakfast which followed the annual Corporate Communion of the group.

"What we choose to believe cannot be separated from what we are. I believe that if we had a first choice it would be the perfection of our faith as evidenced by our worship and our acceptance of the holy sacraments of the church," Mrs. Staupers said.

She then discussed the need of women extending themselves into the community as well as in all areas of church life.

* * *

"DO WE consider our neighbor a child of God?" she asked. "Or are we continuing to hate other races and peoples because they hate us?

"Hate will not only destroy our lives, but will make us ineffective in understanding and meeting the issues of segregation and discrimination."

Church women, according to Mrs. Staupers, need to work seriously on mental, physical and financial problems of aging members.

They need, she said to extend parishes to solve problems which beset colored Americans in every area of the United States. They need, added she, to feel that a lynching in Mississippi is their particular responsibility and to join in protest.

* * *

JUVENILE PROBLEMS and those of unwed mothers need more than talking about, Mrs. Staupers advised.

"We need," said she, "to be truly concerned that churches be integrated and to fight the perpetuating of the fact that the 11 a.m. hour on Sunday is the most segregated hour in our lives."

"No single church can carry forward these problems alone effectively, nor can a single denomination. Are women seeing that the Council of Churches, United Church Women and social action departments of their denomination work on the problems of prejudice and discrimination continuously?

"Women must urge that their churches and members join NAACP through life membership and individual membership. They need to unite with the National Council of Negro Women in order that the collective voice and influence of it may be heard and felt through the land," she declared.

* * *

AS TO duties to their church, Mrs. Staupers urged that women give their church the same care they give their homes that they work for the extension of the church at home and abroad, and that they work to relieve the pressing problems which the clergy and vestry face in maintaining the church.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Mark Patterson.

* * *

MRS. CHANDLER WYNN, president of the Women's Auxiliary of St. James Episcopal Church presided, and the closing remarks, in form of an original poem, were given by Mrs. Eliza Carpenter.

Mrs. Lawrence Nickens was chairman of the breakfast. Other participants included Miss Doris Oswell, who played the prelude while the women and girls were assembling for breakfast, and the Girls' Choir, under direction of Mrs. Cedric Mills, which sang.

The New York Baptist Ministers' Conference of Greater New York and Vicinity, Rev. W. F. Houston, President, voted unanimously to give Dr. Harten, Pastor of the Holy Trinity Baptist Church, Brooklyn, and Senior Vice President of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., a testimonial in one of the swanky hotels in the Times Square area, for his meritorious service to the Denomination, the Race and the Community.

Five years ago this same Conference gave Dr. Harten a testimonial in the Hotel Diplomat. The Conference and the Holy Trinity Baptist Church will be working together to break all records for an occasion of this kind. It is stated that the banquet facilities will accommodate more than 2,000 persons. Dr. Harten suggested that the banquet be deferred until May 16, 1960.

The Rev. Mr. Harten was referred to as "A forerunner and a militant leader" in interest of his people. For more than thirty-five years he fought on all fronts for human rights. Dr. Harten is recognized as one of the most courageous and fearless champions of human rights in the U.S.A. He fought almost single-handedly for democracy when uncompromising, out-spoken leaders were few in number.

He has led delegations from the Chambers of the City Hall to the White House on numerous occasions in interest of Number 1 citizenship for the Negro. He is responsible for many doors being opened for the Negro from the Sanitation Department to first Negro judge on the bench.

Regarding Civil Rights, he has never sold out, and has been fearless and uncompromising. He has often been heard to say that "The Negro wants no special favors and it's an insult for anyone to attempt to pity him." The Negro wants his full share of democracy, equal opportunity, and every door that's opened, under the Stars and Stripes for others, to stand ajar for Colored America.

For more than 30 years he has been a powerful influence in the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., and is now serving his 28th term as the vice president.

Dr. Harten thanked the Conference for its kind act and stated that outstanding ministers throughout the nation will be invited.
