Powell tax trial again postponed

WASHINGTON

Following several postponements, the income tax trial of Rep. Adam C. Powell of Harlem has been moved up from Nov. 16 to Jan. 7.

The latest date was set by Federal Judge Edmund L. Palmieri after doctors ordered the 50-year-old Congressman to take a month's rest upon his release from Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital where he underwent surgery.

Mr. Powell entered the hospital on Oct. 18 and underwent chest surgery for the removal of a non-malignant cyst two days later.

threat represented by the fleet Lyles. They saw him twice scurry for more than 100 yards with kickoff returns last year.

Nor can they take their eyes off Owens, famed as the favorite target of quarterback Y. A. Tittle's celebrated "alley oop" pass. Because of Owens' tremendous spring, he specializes in leaping higher than his defenders and pulling down the floating pitches which Tittle has designed for just that purpose.

BEATING SAN FRANCISCO is vitally important to the Steeds. They need the win in order to tie for the division lead.

If they can succeed in evening up matters in the standings, the Colts get some satisfaction in knowing that the Forty-Niners must go from here to Cleveland where they have their job cut out for them next Sunday against the rugged Browns.

Still another Colt incentive is to try to keep their fans happy by finishing off the home season with two wins. After Sunday's fracas, they have but one Stadium contest remaining—that against the Los Angeles Rams next Sunday (29th).

ATTENDS FUNERAL — Head bowed and hands clasped, David Hearne, 21, son of John J. Hearne, Irish Ambassador to the U.S. attended funeral services in Courtland, Va., Sunday for Mrs. Jossie Hamlin, who was killed by a car he was driving. The youth avoided prosecution for the death last week by claiming diplomatic immunity.

Body recovered 9 days after leap

WASHINGTON

The body of a man who reportedly leaped into the Anacostia River on Nov. 9 was discovered Wednesday floating 15 feet from the Anacostia Park Seawall.

The victim was identified as Raymond Campbell, 35, 1239 Walter Pl., SE, whose body had remained in the water nine days after a plunge from Sousa Bridge. The body was spotted early Wednesday afternoon by Park police. A Harbor patrol boat recovered the body about 200 yards downstream from the bridge.

Campbell was identified by his wife, Mary, of 1343 C St., SE.

Claim in woman's death pending with diplomat

WASHINGTON

A settlement for damages was still pending Wednesday for the family of Mrs. Jossie Hamlin, 54, who was killed by a car driven by the son of Ireland Ambassador John J. Hearne.

William S. Thompson, attorney for the dead woman's family, said that he had to call off a conference scheduled for Tuesday with the ambassador. "Another case kept me in court all day," Mr. Thompson said.

MEANWHILE, THE Irish Embassy said the diplomat would send his son, David, 21, home as a result of the tragic accident.

Young Hearne pleaded diplomatic immunity when an inquest was scheduled in the death of Mrs. Hamlin. Consequently, no inquest was held in the case.

The father and son attended funeral services Sunday for Mrs. Hamlin in Courtland, Va. The ambassador told the overflow audience of mourners that every effort would be made to take care of damages.

Mrs. Hamlin lived with a niece at 721 Kennedy St., NE.

Mr. Thompson said he would seek to confer with the diplomat at an early date.

Police revealed that a few weeks before the accident, young Hearne pleaded diplomatic immunity after he and a group of friends were charged with assaulting a policeman in a fight outside a restaurant on Connecticut Ave.

AFRO Quads Fund helps Kim Marie first day home

Mrs. Jane Lorraine Graves, mother of Maryland's only living quadruplets, took the oldest quad, Kim Marie home Thursday.

On the memorable day, Mrs. Graves also received a check for $77.90 from the the AFRO Graves Quads Fund.

The money represents a s gifts from AFRO readers.

The AFRO's initial check for $200 put toward the quads fund on Oct. 12, two days after their birth at Hopkins Hospital on Oct. 10, is set aside for Mrs. Graves' shopping for the quads when she is ready.

AS MRS. GRAVES received the check for $77.90 she said: "I am very glad to get this money. Just this morning, I was wondering where I would get a bassinet for Kim Marie, so you see it comes in handy.

"There are so many things I have to have for four new babies. This money will help me a lot."

The money Mrs Graves receives through public assistance allows just a few pennies more than $16 per child per month for her 12 children.

"It's gone before I get it, it seems," she told the AFRO. "Please tell the people who gave me this money that I am really glad to get it. There's no doubt about it, I need it."

CASH GIFTS from the following are included in the $77.90: Mrs. Lois Harvey, The Gayettes Club, Syd Kermisch, the Chit Chat Club and Jumbo Ice Cream Co.

Also, Angelo Beauty Culture School, Mrs. Lucille Hawkins, Mrs. Elizabeth Walton, R. J. Thomas, all of Baltimore, and Washington citizens, Mrs. Herschell P. Rollins and Charles Briggs.

Any AFRO reader who wishes to contribute to the AFRO Graves Quads Fund may mail gifts to:

Snowden gets 5 years for burglary

Alvin Snowden, 25, 2600 block Francis St., was sentenced to five years in Criminal Court Wednesday by Judge Joseph Allen.

According to Officer Joseph Lovett, he went to the rear of a dress shop in the 1700 block Pennsylvania Ave., Sept. 25 when he caught the defendant attempting to escape officers who were at the front, by climbing out of a rear window.

The officer said while the other policemen were investigating the cause of the burglar alarm's sounding off, he went to the rear when he heard glass breaking in an upstairs window.

WHEN HE LOOKED, he said, he saw the defendant, drew his service revolver and told the defendant to come down.

He reported Snowden descended into his waiting arms. The officer's report said Snowden had a record for assault and robbery, and breaking and entering.

Participating on the panel which will be held at 11 a.m. in Calloway Hall Amphitheatre, will be: Dr. Percy Baker, assistant professor of biology, Dr. Clifton Jones, professor and acting head, Department of Biology, and Dr. Richard I. McKinney, professor and head Department of Philosophy.

Concluding the celebration will be an illustrated lecture on "The Fossil Story" by Dr. Clarence L. E. Monroe, professor and head, Depatment of Biology.

Dr. Thomas P. Fraser, professor and head, Department of Science Education, is chairman of the college a centennial committee.

Arson suspect denied bail

Clyde L. Portee, 47, 1300 block W. North Ave., was charged with arsonTuesday in Northwestern Police Court.

Mr. Portee pleaded innocent to charges that he set fire to the home of Mrs. Agnes Chambers, 36, of the 1900 block Ridgehill Ave. on Saturday and was held without bail for grand jury action.

Portee was also charged with having a .38 caliber pistol in his possession. His bail was set at $500 by Magistrate Gerald Sierel.

Patrolmen Francis Guiterrez and James Griffin said they thought a kitchen door. The arrested Portee about an hour fire was confined to mattresses after neighbors saw a man in two bedrooms.

Premier of Morocco ends visit to U.S.

WASHINGTON

Prime Minister Abdallah Ibrahim of Morocco has just concluded a visit to the United States. During his visit, he discussed with President Eisenhower and the Secretary of State the controversary over American bases in his country.

This discussion began back in 1957 when the King of Morocco, Mohammed V, visited this country. As a result of the follow up conversations by the prime minister, it is thought that an agreement on the withdrawal of U.S. forces in Morocco had been reached.

Mental hospital volunteers praised at luncheon meeting

The Council of Women's Activities of Md State Mental Hospitals held a recognition day program to cite volunteers whose services had aided the mentally ill.

The program was in the form of a luncheon meeting on Wednesday at the Sheraton Belvedere.

Gov. Millard Tawes, one of several speakers, told the gathering: "As Governor, I am fully aware of the great service rendered the state by the women's auxiliaries. All of us owe you a debt of gratitude for your great contribution."

The Governor also paid tribute to Dr. Clifton T. Perkins, commissioner of the Department of Mental Hygiene, who died la t week.

OF DR. PERKINS, the Governor said, "He was an excellent physician, a great humanitarian and a fine administrator. The state of Maryland has lost one of its finest officials — its greatest citizens.

There was spontaneous applause when the Mr. Tawes announced that he will ask the General Assembly next February to speed up the building program at Spring Grove Hospital.

He added that, "we can not rest until our mental hospitals become Maryland's pride." He promised to use his resources to insure substantial progress at the hospitals, "although I may not be able to comply with all requests," to give the people of Maryland the kind of mental health program they need and desire."

Other speakers included Dr. Isadore Rudolf J. Depner, assistant commissioner of mental hygiene now acting as commissioner. Dr. Depner paid tribute to the late Dr. Perkins and pointed out that Maryland is the first state to provide volunteer services in mental institutions.

DR. ISADORE TUERK, superintendent of Spring Grove, whom Gov. Tawes named acting commissioner, effective December 1st, told the meeting, "I am very heartened by Governor Tawes' program and vision.

"We all know the enormous strides made in the past decade and as the Governor has said, there is need to continue the progress.

"I have the greatest confidence that progress will, proceed as a result of the Governor's support."

Dr. Winfred L. Godwin of Atlanta, associate director of the Southern Regional Education Board told how that group is aiding states in this area to secure grants which volunteers and staff workers may use to improve their training.

A HIGHLIGHT of the meeting was a panel discussion by patients, ex-patients living at the convalescent area at Springfield State Hospital.

This described how the institution's new self-government program is working successfully at the hospital.

Moderators were: Dr. Julian Abrams and Jerome Levin, Springfield staff psychologists.

Dr. Abrams called the new self - government program as revolutionary methods in the treatment of the mentally ill, as revolutionary as the miracle drugs developed for treating mental ailments.

Mr. Levin described the self government plan as a build new program in which the patients become the real teachers, and are given a chance to show themselves and prove they can take care of themselves.

Mrs. Arthur P. Bond, president of the Council, presided.

TEN - YEAR continuous service awards went to the following coordinators of volunteer activities: Mesdames Roy D. Hamilton, Crownsville; Scott Meekins, Eastern Shore; Irene Blackburn, Rosewood; Isabel Schuman, Spring Grove; and Miss Ann Reifsnider, Springfield.

The Rev. Joseph Riley gave the invocation.

Among those attending from Crownsville were several patients in the care of Mrs. Beatrice Fairley, attendant. Mrs. Simon Carter, president of the Crownsville Auxiliary, was among head table guests.
