Leftover Thanksgiving turkey can star at next company meal

The Greeks had a word for spices and that was "aroma"! This is the marvelous waffing goodness which comes from the kitchen when there's a good cook at work. It's the mingling of eight or ten spices and herbs to give excitement to a combination such as poultry seasoning, one of the most important spice blends in modern kitchens.

Valuable all year, this handy blend is most popular during the Thanksgiving and Christmas period.

Not all brands of poultry seasonings are created by exactly the same formula. All, however, are designed for the same purposes. So the choice becomes more a matter of personal taste than preference. All have a goodly measure of white pepper.

Easily identified are the aromatic leaves of sage, the pungence of thyme, the teasing scent of savory. Ginger has been a chef's treat seasoning since earliest times, so it can't be omitted, nor can zesty allspice. Nutmeg is used for its sweet, warm flavor and some packers use its sister spice, mace and, finally, marjoram and cloves and other spices go into some brands as an extra fillip of flavor.

EVERY GOOD COOK uses but today we have recipes from the test kitchen of the American Spice Trade Association which show some of the many additional ways this blend can be used for better flavor.

Save some of that Thanksgiving turkey for Herbed Turkey Salad Mold and add a half teaspoon poultry seasoning. It gives character, too, to a Hot Turkey Sandwich with Herbed Cheese Sauce. Another turkey triumph is Herbed Creamed Turkey and Eggs — excellent with a dash of seasoning.

HERBED TURKEY SALAD MOLD is made with two envelopes unflavored gelatine, one-half cup water, two cups hot turkey or chicken broth, one-half teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon poultry seasoning, one-eighth teaspoon ground black pepper, one tablespoon fresh lemon juice, one tea spoon celery, one and one-half cups diced cold turkey, and one-half cup mayonnaise.

Soften gelatine in cold water and set aside. Add hot turkey or chicken broth, salt, poultry seasoning, black pepper and lemon juice. Chill until the mixture begins to thicken.

Stir in celery, turkey and mayonnaise. Rinse a 5 cup mold in cold water and fill with the turkey salad mixture. Chill until firm and ready to serve.

Just before serving turn out onto a serving plate and serve with cranberry sauce or jelly.

YIELD: 8 servings.

FOR HOT TURKEY Sandwich with herbed cheese sauce use two tablespoons turkey fat, butter or margarine, two tablespoons flour, one-half cup milk, two-third cup turkey broth, one-half teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon poultry seasoning, one-sixteenth teaspoon ground black pepper, one-half cup grated mild American cheese, sliced cold turkey, bread slices, and Paprika.

Melt turkey fat, butter or margarine in a saucepan. Remove from heat. Blend in flour. Stir in milk and turkey broth. Cook until of medium thickness, stirring constantly. Season and cheese.

Arrange cold sliced turkey over slices of bread over which spoon one-fourth cup sauce. Garnish with paprika.

YIELD: 1 cup sufficient for 4 servings.

MAKE HERBED CREAMED TURKEY and eggs with one-fourth cup butter or margarine, one - fourth cup flour, one cup milk, one cup turkey stock, one and one-half cups diced turkey, two hard-cooked eggs, diced, three-fourth teaspoon salt, one-and one-half teaspoons poultry seasoning, one-eighth teaspoon garlic powder, one-eighth teaspoon ground black pepper, one teaspoon instant minced onion, and Hard-cooked egg slices, for garnish.

Melt butter or margarine in a saucepan. Remove from heat. Blend in flour. Stir in milk and turkey stock. Cook until of medium thickness, stirring constantly. Add turkey, eggs, and seasonings. Heat.

Serve in patty shells, over toast or noodles. Garnish with slices of hard-cooked egg.

YIELD: 6 servings.

Always smooth...never grainy...
the secret is Carnation in the Red and White can
This double-rich milk that whips gives pumpkin pie a wonderful smooth-as-cream texture you can't get with ordinary milk. For Carnation is twice as rich—looks, pours and even whips like cream. Try this milk that's so much like cream in your own pumpkin pie recipe or in the famous one here. And for a better cup of coffee, "cream" it with Carnation—world's leading brand of evaporated milk.

Fruit roll for holiday

"Holiday Fruit Roll" is a tantalizing medley of flavors. It's a festive dessert that's easy to make and fun to serve.

Plump, fluffy sponge cake is rolled like a jelly roll enclosing a refreshing lemon - flavored fruit filling. Canned fruit cocktail, both the rich syrup and the summer - fresh fruits, make up the filling when thickened with egg and a little cornstarch.

The filling is cooled, of course, before being rolled up with the cake. Serve "Holiday Fruit Roll" with a snowy sifting of powdered sugar on top for a handsome, delicious company dessert.

FOR HOLIDAY Fruit Roll you will need three eggs, one cup sugar, one cup sifted cake flour, one teaspoon baking powder, one - half teaspoon salt, one - third cup water, one teaspoon vanilla, one - fourth cup melted butter or margarine powdered sugar, fruit filling.

For Fruit Filling use one cup syrup from canned fruit cocktail, two tablespoons corn-starch, one - fourth cup sugar, dash salt, one egg, beaten, one teaspoon grated lemon rind, one tablespoon fresh lemon juice, and one and one - half cups drained canned fruit cocktail.

Beat eggs, and gradually beat in sugar, continuing to beat until thick and light colored. Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Fold into egg mixture alternately with water and vanilla.

Carefully fold in butter. Turn into 10 x 15 x 1 inch jelly roll pan lined with waxed paper. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes, just until cake springs back when lightly touched with finger. Turn out onto cloth covered with sifted powdered sugar, and strip off waxed paper.

Roll cake in cloth and cool on wire rack. Unroll and spread with Fruit Filling. Roll again and chill until serving time.

Fruit Filling: Combine one cup syrup from canned fruit cocktail, cornstarch, sugar and salt, and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils thoroughly and is thickened. Stir a spoonful of hot sauce into egg, then combine with remaining sauce, and cook a minute or two longer over very low heat, stirring constantly, until egg is cooked.

Remove from heat and blend in lemon rind and juice. Cool slightly, then fold in very well drained fruit cocktail. Cool completely before spreading on cake roll.

Makes eight to 10 servings.

Roses are tops

What's your favorite flower? Ever wonder what flower a florist would choose?

In an unofficial poll conducted by the Allied Florists Association of Greater Baltimore, the florists of Maryland named the rose by a vote of more than 2½ to 1 over the next ranking favorite, the chrysanthemum.

Another popular choice was the carnation, which trailed just four votes behind the chrysanthemum to take third place.

There was a four - way tie for fourth place among the orchid, hydrangea, lily - of - the-valley, and corn tassel, with the gladiola missing by only one vote.
