Rev. Manning found innocent

WASHINGTON

The Rev. Samuel P. Manning, former pastor of East Calvary Methodist Church, wept quietly Thursday morning when a District court jury cleared him of a rape charge involving an 18-year-old member of his congregation.

The tears came as he stood in the courtroom of District Court Judge Alexander Golzroff before whom the three-day hearing was held.

Emotionally spent, the minister left the courthouse almost immediately. He was accompanied by close relatives.

DESPITE THE Rev. Mr. Manning's admissions of indiscreet behavior, many spectators, most of whom were ministers, seemed to sympathize with the defendant.

After his acquittal, he received several invitations from several pastoral colleagues who asked him to conduct services at their church this Sunday.

Carlisle E. Pratt, chief defense attorney for the Rev. Mr. Manning, told a reporter he was doubtful seriously whether the minister would be returned to East Calvary Methodist Church, 14th and Independence Ave., SE, a pastorate he relinquished after his arrest.

SEVERAL MEMBERS of East Calvary church volunteered to appear as character witnesses for the pastor. One told a reporter," "I think he has been punished enough."

The girl testified that she was attacked by the Rev. Mr. Manning in a doctor's office in the unit block 53rd Pl., SE, where she was a receptionist on July 6.

During the alleged assault which she said occurred while the doctor was absent, the young woman admitted that no weapons were used by the minister. Her screams were allegedly drowned by the noise from an air conditioner, according to testimony.

THE REV. MR. MANNING, in his testimony, admitted having relations with the girl, but denied using force. The girl did not report the matter to her relatives until approximately four hours after the alleged incident, testimony showed.

The Rev. Mr. Manning is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, executive board, local branch NAACP, American Sociological Society, a Mason, and a Shriner.

Miss. jury is brandeda mockery

WASHINGTON (NNPA) — Attorney General William P. Rogers Tuesday branded as a "flagrant and calculated miscarriage of justice" the failure of a Mississippi grand jury to indict anyone-or even hear the evidence in the lynching of Mack Charles Parker.

Mr. Rogers told a news conference that Parker had been taken from the Pearl River County jail at Poplarville, Miss., and "brutally lynched."

The Federal Government did exactly what I think was appropriate for it to do."

We turned over the evidence to state authorities and they not only did not call witnesses but did not do anything with any of the FBI agents.

"You talk about states' rights —and that is fine — but there are also state responsibilities."

• • •

MR. ROGERS added that if a state does not honestly believe in the administration of justice and that all men are equal before the law, then he thinks the Federal Government must reconsider its civil rights legislative proposals.

He explained that he did not mean that it was necessary to have a Federal anti - lynching law, but the Justice Department has to consider whether there are possible legislative proposals that would correct the situation."

"This is not just the case of Poplarville," Mr. Rogers said. "People all over the world know about this and it is difficult to make people understand why the Federal Government cannot do something about it."

• • •

THE ATTORNEY General explained that the existing statutes are inadequate for this type of crime. He noted, however, that the Government is "studying this" problem.

There are only two Federal criminal civil rights statutes. The civil rights conspiracy statute carries a maximum penalty of a $5,000 fine and 10 years in prison.

The other statute, which appears to be the more applicable, makes it a Federal offense to deprive citizens of civil rights under color of state laws. It carries a maximum penalty of a $1,000 fine and one year in prison.

When a violation resulting in death is involved, Mr. Rogers said, "certainly the Federal statute which makes it a misdemeanor and punishable by one year in jail, or the statute which provisions for 10 years in prison, is not appropriate to the crime itself."

The Attorney General emphasized that neither statute is adequate "for this kind of brutal killing."

• • •

PROSECUTION was turned over to state authorities, Mr. Rogers said, "because we did not want to do anything which would indicate that the Federal Government was interfering with their right to prosecute those guilty of this crime.

"But we did not have any expectation that they would refuse even to call witnesses."

The Attorney General said the FBI conducted an investigation of the Parker lynching — for about a month. He said the investigation was conducted with the approval of Gov. James P. Coleman of Mississippi.

When the investigation was concluded, he added, the report was turned over to the appropriate state officials because there was no violation, the Department felt, of the Federal kidnaping law.

• • •

"I CAN SAY without any reservation that this was one of the finest and most complete investigations I have ever seen conducted," Mr. Rogers declared, adding:

"The FBI agents stood ready to testify and make available all the information, all the evidence they had, including fingerprint testimony, criminal laboratory identifications, and so forth."

Federal Judge Sidney Mize has announced that he will convene a Federal grand jury, either in Biloxi or Jackson, Miss., on Jan. 4 to hear the evidence in the Parker lynching case.

The Justice Department requested that the Federal grand jury be convened after the Pearl River County grand jury failed to hear any evidence and to report an indictment in the Parker Case.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

By ZORAH ELICKSON

"HE THAT IS NOT WITH ME, IS AGAINST ME...." (Matt. XII:30)

A tragic result of attempting to remove God from every day life, an act such as practiced in any totalitarian state, is the resultant cheapening of life itself through loss of the concept that each individual is important because of his divine origin.

Actually, it is within the power of mankind to solve many of the problems that plague the world if there was universal acceptance of the sublime truth that each and every person is of infinite worth because he is made in God's image.

Down through the ages those who have fought against God and the freedom of man quickly admit that this truth has proven to be, time and again, the great stumbling block in their path. Considering the state of the world today, it appears — as seldom before —that there could be no better time to somehow bring this fundamental truth home to all lands and all peoples.

Speaking of bereavement— and this is an eventuality we all must face — isn't it sensible to ease the burden in every way possible? A complete service is of some comfort. Call on the complete and understanding services of ELLIOTT'S FUNERAL HOME, 1129 N. Caroline St. Phone Eastern 7-6590.
