Family near starvation gets assistance from Mrs. Santa

The lady who walked into the AFRO office on Wednesday to see Mrs. Santa had worry written all over her face.

For three days she had been feeding her children pancakes — pancakes for breakfast, pancakes for lunch and pancakes for dinner.

Now that all the pancake flour was gone she was desperate and her six children were feeling the pangs of hunger.

Usually Mrs. Santa reserves her help for the families that wrote to her asking for help.

However, in this instance Mrs. Santa could not say no and she quickly rounded up several baskets for the children could eat.

• • •

THIS WAS just one of the families that Mrs. Santa has been able to help this week through the generosity of AFRO readers.

There are still many many families that have not been helped and Mrs. Santa is making an earnest plea to readers of the AFRO to join in this worthy project.

Published in this edition is another in a series of cases from the files of Mrs. Santa.

As you read them, if you come across one that interests you, please call Mrs. Santa at Mulberry 5-6015 and she'll be more than happy to give you the name and address of the family.

Perhaps your club or organization is searching for a worthy project at Christmas time and if so, Mrs. Santa will be glad to assist by providing the names of deserving families that really need help if they are to derive any happiness from the holidays.

They will have a lonely and bitter Christmas unless you lend a hand.

DURING THE past week, a number of contributions have reached the desk of Mrs. Santa.

One of the first gifts was the one that came from the Manning Shaw Real Estate Firm.

Touched by the plight of the families, Manning Shaw asked Mrs. Santa to select twenty-five families.

To these families, Manning Shaw will send $25 a week for the next ten weeks, making a grand total of $500.

That's quite a gift and it will make a marvelous Christmas present for the two families selected.

From the Goldseker Realty Firm came another large donation this week which will be placed in the AFRO's Mrs. Santa Fund.

• • •

ANOTHER LARGE donation came this week from the classes of the Douglass Evening School.

On Wednesday night they presented Mrs. Santa with 30 baskets, crammed to the top with food.

Bright and early Thursday morning, the baskets were distributed by members of the 213th Truck Transportation Battalion, which every year helps Mrs. Santa by taking care of deliveries.

Another welcome gift came this week from the Chuck Webb Center in the form of five beautiful baskets.

• •

ALL READERS are invited to contribute to the fund, which will be used to buy food for the needy families.

If you would like to contribute, send Mrs. Santa Jones, you will, just send a check or money order to the AFRO — Mrs. Santa Fund here at the AFRO, 628 N. Eutaw St.

IN FACT the donations have been coming in so fast that Mrs. Santa hasn't had the opportunity to publish them all.

But she intends to do this and on Tuesday she'll publish an Honor Roll, containing the names of the wonderful people who have helped in the project.

Listed below are a number of cases from the files of Mrs. Santa.

If you want to help, won't you please select one of the cases or send a check along to Mrs. Santa.

Now here is the latest list of cases.
