NBA gives Jordan, Moore ultimatums

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (ANP) —The National Boxing Association gave welterweight champion Don Jordan and light-heavyweight kingpin Archie Moore until Jan. 15 and Feb. 12 to defend their titles, in ultimatums issued from the association's headquarters here Saturday.

The ultimatum to Jordan came on the heels of the welterweight, champion's fourth-round knockout at the hands of Argentina's champion, Federico Thompson.

Thompson knocked out Jordan with a left hook in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-round non-title in bout in Buenos Aires Saturday night.

* * *

OF THE FOUR leading contenders listed by the NBC, Rudell Stitch appears to have the edge in popularity.

The executive committee of the NBA, which issued the orders to Jordan and Moore, said a promoter in Louisville has offered $40,000 for a Jordan - Stitch welterweight title bout.

* * *

THE OTHER contenders listed by the NBC are Charles Scott and Garnett (Sugar) Hart, both of Philadelphia and Luis Rodriguez.

The NBA wants Moore to defend against "the only logical contender at this particular time, Harold Johnson of Philadelphia."

BATTLE BEARS TONIGHT — A clever Hampton Institute quint is in town today (Friday) awaiting the annual Baltimore showdown with the Morgan State College basketball team. The Pirates put their main hopes for the CIAA campaign in this starting five of (left to right) captain Walter Ward, Not Trader, former Baltimore high school star, Francelle Walker, Harold Watson and James Brown, another Monumental City product. The Pirates and Bears tangle tonight on the floor of the E. P. Hurt gym.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Sure-handed Luis Rodriguez, No. 2 welterweight contender, aims to consolidate his challenging position against spectacular-punching Sugar Hart, No. 3, in a "Wednesday Night Fights" attraction on December 23 at the Miami Beach Auditorium.

Rodriguez, best looking Cuban since Kid Gavilan's day, already has beaten ex-champ Virgil Akins, Rudell Stitch and Issac Logart.

Hart, former No. 1 from Philadelphia, intends to use Rodriquez as a step back towards the peak.

Rodriguez, on the record, does well with stiff punchers, Hart's type. He leads them into seeming opportunities that prove traps, takes a punch well and generally comes on strong in late rounds.

Sugar must huart him early to have any chance of controlling the action in the decisive closing rounds, many experts believe.

Prairie View, Ga. victor; beat A&T, Grambling

ATLANTA, Ga. (ANP) — Prairie View utilized superb outside shooting when it found the defense tight, upset favored Grambling 84 - 79 to win the Georgia invitational basketball tournament.

In winning the Panthers made a big impression on the National small college scene. Grambling, a heavy pre-tournament favorite, tumbled after riddling Bethune-Cookman 100 - 74 and Kentucky State 76-58.

* * *

PRIOR TO Saturday's set back, Grambling had won 58 of the last 63 games played over a two - year span. The Tigers won 28 straight before suffering a defeat last season.

With Connell Lackey bombarding the nets for 28 points and Mose Hill depositing the ball deftly into the basket for 24 more, Prairie View hit in streaks on the fine play making and ball handling of midfielmen on the fastbreak. Behind 42 - 29 at halftime, the underdog Panthers took the lead for the first time with less than three minutes showing on the clock.

* * *

CHARLES HARDNETT, A 6 - 8 picture athlete named the tournament's most valuable player, scored 36 points for Grambling, but couldn't keep up the slack after his teammates cooled off.

Prairie View moved into the championship round by showing proper indignation for another big favorite, walloping North Carolina A and T 98-76.
