Do you know the issues?

How the steel strike is settled will affect you, your family, and every citizen in this country. Here are the answers to some questions people at Armco are most frequently asked . . .

Q. Do you want to break the union?

A. No. This charge is false. We have no desire to break the union. It is downright foolish to believe we could break a union that has had the strength to shut down most of the U.S. steel industry for 4 months. The union is strong. It will not be weakened by the contract we have offered, because the dues checkoff and all other union security provisions would be continued without change.

Q. Are you trying to destroy workers' seniority rights?

A. No, of course not. There would be no loss of seniority rights under the new contract. Employees would have the same seniority rights as in the previous contract. Actually, we propose that laid-off and disabled employees absent from their jobs for extended periods be given greater seniority protection. We also propose a joint union-company review of all seniority agreements to see what can be done to give long-service employees even more preference when forces are cut back or when employees are recalled after layoffs.

Q. Are changes in work rules blocking settlement?

A. The union has made them a bone of contention. But there is no reason why they should be a stumbling block any longer. We have proposed that the work rules contract provisions be referred to a joint committee of two men—one from the union, and one from the companies—to study the problem and to make recommendations. In the meantime, the present contract provisions would remain unchanged. If the committee can't agree, or if its recommendations are not accepted by either party, the question would be submitted to binding arbitration. This certainly should remove the work rules argument as a barrier to settlement.

Q. Will cost-of-living be eliminated?

A. No. It will be continued on a different scale. The present 17-cent-an-hour cost-of-living adjustment would be retained. Under our proposed contract it would be possible for cost-of-living adjustments to be made up to 4 cents an hour in each of the second and third years of the contract. The total cost-of-living adjustments might be as much as 25c an hour in the third year of the contract.

Q. Why can foreign steel companies undersell American companies?

A. Chiefly because they pay lower wage rates. Foreign steel workers earn only about one half to one seventh as much as American steel workers. The union is well aware of this. At the September, 1958, convention of the steel workers' union, this report was made—A laid off American steel workers under such (Supplementary Unemployment Benefits) was receiving more income than a fully employed steel worker in any other country, even taking into account the difference in cost-of-living. Remember, this was what the union said in 1958. Since employment costs account for such a large part of the total cost of making steel, it is easy to see why foreign steel companies can undersell us.

Q. What will the election vote mean?

A. If the majority of Armco employes voting favor the offer, we believe they will continue to work and earn their wages. After the four months strike with no paychecks coming in, we know they need the money. We hope they will vote in favor of the offer and continue to work. If the majority vote against the offer, they undoubtedly have made the decision to strike. While nothing compels the national union officers to order employees to resume the strike in later January, they would undoubtedly do so to bring pressure on the companies.

On the Eastside

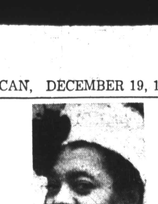
By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE

Pretty wedding held on our Eastside last week end was that of Miss Georgia Smallwood, daughter of Thomas G. Smallwood, to Melvin Travers.

The wedding took place in the beautiful home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Duncan of 818 N. Washington St.

The 7 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Moses Williams, pastor of Zion Baptist Church.

Given in marriage by her brother, William Smallwood, the bride looked radiant in a sky blue gown made with a lace bodice and skirt with chiffon flowing over lace. Her accessories were of rhinestones and she wore a tiny feathered white hat and white gloves. In her hands she carried a small white bible with tiny rose buds and satin streamers falling from it.



MRS. MARIE SMALLWOOD her sister - in - law, was her maid of honor and looked lovely in a French blue form fitting gown.

Mr. Smallwood served as best man for the bridegroom.

Attending the reception held following the ceremony were Messers and Mesdames Poland Green, William Smallwood, Levi Smallwood, Melvin Duncan.

Mesdames Lucille Williams, Queen Esther, Marie Shaw and Mary Garmer; and Misses Jessie Veal, Joanne Veal and Doris Veal.

Also, Bernard Williams, James Dennis, David Smallwood, Robert Sanderlin and John Travers.

Mrs. Queen Esther Hill sang the Lord's Prayer during the ceremony.

ON CHRISTMAS EVE night the gospel chorus of Zion Baptist Church will present a drama, 'The Great Light,' under the direction of Mrs. Woolridge Moore. Mrs. Eleanor Foster is pianist.

The Sunday school department will have their Christmas affair on Dec. 27. Lewis Edwards is superintendent.

Now hear this Eastsiders.— Let us all help with the AFRO's Mrs. Santa's Christmas Fund for the needy. Remember, it is more blessed to give than to receive.

This year there are hundreds of families who are in need of help.

What about the many fine Clubs on our Eastside pitching in and helping this worthy cause. Read The Mrs. Santa Story in this issue and find out how you can help. Just a small donation would help so very much. . . Let us get on the Band Wagon and pass the word along.

I'm counting on all my good neighbors. Call Mrs. Santa, Dial 5 - 6013 and ask to give some aid to a needy family. . .

THE POPULAR ELEGANT Ladies Social and Savings Club held their annual Christmas Party last Sunday night.

The lovely affair was given in the prettiest home of Mrs. Sarah Scott of 1606 Latrobe St.

The girls took over Sarah's new club cellar and showed their guests a real gone time.

Happy to say that these ladies have done much charity work in our community during the past year. Just recently they made a grand donation to the Anna Mae Hunter Home for the Blind. Congratulations to such a good group of civic minded young women.

Helping them to have a wonderful time at the party were: Guests—Mrs. Bertha Wells and Mrs. Margaret Scott. William "Bizzy" Smallwood and Leon Scott.

Members of the club include Mrs. Ella Knight, president; Mrs. Ida Petty, vice president; Miss Elsie Knight, recording secretary; Mrs. Alberta Barrett, financial secretary; Mrs. Sarah Scott, treasurer; Mrs. Marie Smallwood, business manager, and Mrs. Viola Jones, chaplain.

OUR GOOD NEIGHBOR of the Week is Charles A. Parker, who resides at 317 Sandford Pl. Mr. Parker is the nephew of the late Miss Sara Toogood, who was a prominent figure in the AME Church for many years.

Our neighbor is a member of the Trinity AME where he is choir master and organist for the Senior and Senior choirs. He has been the Sunday School superintendent for more than 30 years and was recently given a testimonial along with another member of the church.

He received his schooling at the Douglass High School, Coppin Normal School and did graduate work at Morgan State College. He has been associated with the Brotherhood of the church for over 21 years. He is a past dean of the Patapsco Chapter of the American Guild of Organist.

Mr. Parker has been an employee of the Poly Hardware firm for over 30 years. His hobbies are playing the organ, directing singing groups and doing church work.

LOOK DAD! THIS CHRISTMAS WE CAN GIVE MOM A PHONE OF HER OWN FOR $1.10 A MONTH

Extension phone service means step-saving, ease-of-living for Mom — and for the rest of the family, too.

An extension phone in the kitchen lets her take calls and make calls while she keeps an eye on the cooking — ends the room-to-room rush when the phone rings. At her bedside it gives her new peace of mind, privacy and comfort every day of the year.

Extension phone service costs only $1.10 a month (plus tax) for each phone. There is a once-only charge for installation, and for colors other than black. Choice of easy payment plans.

For full information call your Business Office. We'll gladly answer your questions, help you select a color—and arrange for installation or, if you prefer, we'll send you a gift certificate to present on Christmas day. The C & P Telephone Company of Maryland.
