MUSICAL MOMENTS

Traditional Christmas concerts at schools found entertaining

By ADAH K. JENKINS

The traditional holiday concerts filled the schedules at local schools, secondary and elementary. The music department of Eastern High School presented the student orchestra and three choral groups at an evening event that attracted a comfortably large audience.

The young ladies gave a performance that was marked by a high level of musical attainment and, in some areas, professional finish.

There were three choral groups, the Glee Club, directed by Lucille T. Masson, the choir led by Ann M. Codd and the chorus, directed by Helena S. John.

Piano accompaniments were in the capable hands of students: Norma Auteri, Hansonia Caldwell, Susan Layman and Karen Goerller.

The orchestra was conducted by C. Gerald Eith.

Yuletide greetings were extended by Mrs. Helen C. Tayloe, principal, and Karl Moser, president of the Eastern High Parent-Teacher Association.

During the Advent season the Eastern High School choral groups gave recitals at Northwood Appold Methodist Church and at First Baptist Church. Hansonia Caldwell was piano soloist and accompanist at these events. Olivia Copeland, also a music major at the school, was the pianist at the pre-holiday school assembly.

THERE IS NO experience at Christmas quite like one shared with children, so full of expectancy and excitement, joy and hope, something like the First Noel".

Such was an evening spent with School No. 139 at the annual holiday program. The Dunbar High School auditorium was filled to the last seat in the balcony and many folk were turned away.

It was a delightful occasion.

The participants in the play let were Albert Robinson, Alicia Dixon, Jessica Hurtt, Eric Taylor, Shirley Hall, Norman Clinton, Charles Jones, Leroy Hargrove, Linda Moore, and Vincent Crickett and pupils from the primary grades, one thru three.

They were trained by Mesdames Audrey Harden, Amelia Williams, Gertrude Lee and Maxine Gaskins.

The Glee Club, composed of older students and under the direction of Miss Loretta Glasper, distinguished themselves in their presentation of several groups of Yuletide choruses and carols.

During the intermission Mrs. Doralyn Davis, of the faculty, sang "O Holy Night" and solos were played by Peggy Ann, pianist, and Yonzella Smith, clarinetist.

THE DRAMA — No Room at the Inn", which was highly successful last year, was repeated this season with a number of additional features costumes and lighting were simple yet effective, as was the scenery a creative project from one of the intermediate classes.

The leading roles were taken by Mrs. Lillian Jordan, Mrs. Rosie Hutchinson and Marden Rawlings of the faculty, and the following students: Larry Dodson, Shirley Wood, Alina Rollins, Charles Thompson, Arthur Thompson, Terence Cooper, Marvin Bass, Taymond Grady, Lonnie Dixon, Raymond Finch, Moses Swaler, Faith Whittington, Barbara Tinker, Constance Williams, and Ella Lane.

A bevy of little "angels" with the most realistic of wings, joined the procession thru the audience to the manger tableau on the stage.

Accompaniments and incidental music were in the capable hands of Miss Almira Miller, music specialist and advisor to the committee in charge of the program.

SAMUEL K. OWINGS, principal of School No. 139 extended Christmas greetings at the close of the evening.

The committee in charge consisted of Miss Glasper, chairman, Mrs. Jessie Jones, co-chairman, Mrs. Jordan, directress of the drama, Mrs. Jessie Jones, directress of primary activity; Mrs. Guinevere Ghee, Mrs. Alice Roberts, chairman of costumes, with Mrs. Davis, Pauline Harris, Thomas Bowman, chairman of properties, with Mesdames Amy Johnson and John Mott and Mr. Rawlings.

CALENDAR: Harassed last-minute Christmas shoppers may find a solution to some of their problems by sending their music loving friends a most welcome gift-ticket (or a pair of them) to one or more of the excellent events coming up after January 1!

Sunday, Jan. 3 at 4 p.m. at Christ Methodist Church, Washington and Chase Sts., Jamasetta Holliman, pianist in concert, with Gloria Adams, lyric soprano. Miss Holliman, who is a graduate of Dunbar High School, is a music major at Oberlin College. Last year she was an exchange student abroad, where she studied music in Austria.

Sunday, Jan. 10 at 5 p.m. at St. John AME Church, Carrollton Ave. near Lanvale St., Junetta Jones soprano will be presented in concert by the Stewards and Trustees of the church. Miss Jones, who has given numerous recitals here is one of the outstanding senior pupils at the Peabody.

Sunday, Jan. 10, Ames Methodist Church, Carey and Baker Sts. at 5 p.m., the Morris Queen Chorale in concert, under the auspices of the Ethel M. Newman Guild of the church.

Concerts by the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra at the Lyric Saturday, Jan 2. Skitch Henderson, conductor-pianist; Jan. 9 "Symphonic Jazz" with Herbert Grossman, conducting; Feb. 27, "Porgy and Bess" in concert form, with Morris Queen Chorale and Junetta Jones, soloist.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles". It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

FIRST RUN FILMS

'BELOVED INFIDEL' AT REGENT THEATRE

"Beloved Infidel", Jerry Wald's CinemaScope, De Luxe color production for Twentieth Century-Fox of the story of the love of famous writer, F. Scott Fitzgerald, (by columnist Sheilah Graham), will have its local premiere on Christmas Day at the Regent Theatre.

Starring Gregory Peck as Fitzgerald and Deborah Kerr as Miss Graham, from whose autobiographical best-seller the film was made, the handsomely mounted motion picture was directed by Henry King and costars Eddie Albert.

The Alfred Hays and Sy Bartlett screenplay follows Sheilah Graham from her arrival in New York with her titled English suitor, through her successful efforts to become a newspaperwoman, her assignment to Hollywood as a correspondent and finally to her meeting with the brooding, alcoholic genius whom she came to love.

From the moment these two passionate, talented people meet they are caught up in a whirlwind of emotions and conflict which are detailed in the picture with accurate and dramatic impact.

MET HAS "THE BIG FISHERMAN"

Howard Keel portrays the title role of Simon Called Peter, of Galilee in the Rowland V. Lee production, "The Big Fisherman", starting Christmas Day at the Met.

Presented in color by Technicolor, Panavision 70 and stereophonic sound, and based on the powerful Lloyd C. Douglas novel, "The Big Fisherman", stars Keel, Susan Kohner, John Saxon, Martha Hyer and Herbert Lom. Release is by Buena Vista.

'55A DRAMA SET FOR HARLEM THEATRE

Gary Cooper, in one of the most virile roles of his career, and Charlton Heston, in his first screen portrayal since "Ben-Hur," are pitted against each other in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's spectacular sea drama, and murder, "The Wreck of the Mary Deare" starting Christmas Day at the Harlem.

The action picture (in CinemaScope and color) is based on the best-selling novel by Hammond Innes.

It was filmed partly off the Southern California coast and also in London, Southampton and on the English Channel. Guest stars in the impressive cast include Michael Redgrave, Emlyn Williams, Cecil Parker and Alexander Knox, with Virginia McKenna, Britain's top feminine star, playing the picture's sole feminine role.

Filmed in the tradition of such memorable sea stories as "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "Captains Courageous," the new picture unfolds a drama of conflict and suspense played against a background of storm swept seas, shipwreck, mutiny and murder.

SATURDAY, Dec. 19, was the date of that fabulous party given by the members of the Bel Alton High School and Elementary School faculty. The party was held at the swank (and I do mean swank) Farmling ranch style home of Bel Alton teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Garnett.

To James A. Sweatt, their principal and respected principal, the faculty presented a handsome leather briefcase. The Sweatts attended two faculty parties that evening. First dashing to Washington where Mrs. Sweatt's faculty party held forth, then back to Bel Alton.

Also adding a festive note to the occasion was Mrs. Elnora Pinkney, principal of Bel Alton Elementary School.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Marshall, Howard Pinkney, Edward Sutton, Robert Treadwell, Walter Brown, David Collins, Donald Hall, Harold Schmake, Joseph Jones, James Washington and James A. Sweatt.

Also Mesdames Lena Dyson, Elnora Pinkney and Alvena Clark, Misses Marva Posey, Jeannett Waters, Evelyn Smith, Elizabeth Cane and Lydia Nutter.

And George Barnwell, Rich and Mitchell, John Butler, Kenneth Kennedy, Henry Barbour and William Griffin.

ON FRIDAY, Dec. 18, the annual Christmas program presented by the students of Banneker School in Catonsville was held. The operetta was directed by Miss Elvira Allen, music instructor.

New items which arrived too late for this issue will be included in next week's column. Please send all news to 237 N. Culver St. or call Wilkens 5-0232 before Dec. 27.

HENRYTON NEWS:

Christmas services, film on area schedule

By JOHN C. BURTON

The Christmas season is much in evidence here at Henryton. The first sight to greet any visitor in the evening would be the Yule tree on the front green of the hospital grounds.

In keeping with annual tradition, it is colorfully decorated with multicolored lights, and stands in majestic splendor as if to remind all who behold it of God's greatest gift to man—Christ, His Son.

The Henryton Women's Glee Club, directed by Miss Druid Wise, public relations director for Goldseker.

Mrs. Juanita Chase, medical social worker accepted the program of Christmas music.

Soloists were Miss Marie Thomas, Mrs. Margarette Smith, and Mrs. Vidalia Thomas.

Other members of the group included: E. Forman, M. Garrett, M. Hunt, E. Jackson, A. Manning, B. Miller, R. Parson, C. Pierce, I. Washington, W. White, A. Young, M. Crawford, S. Daniels, B. Ellison, R. Freeman, P. Pyatt, L. Thompson, E. Williams, E. J. Williams, L. Hendricks, and D. Zebulon.

The Goldseker Real Estate Company donated two 21-inch television sets to the patients of Henryton State Hospital. Presentation was made in the hospital auditorium by Sidney Wise, public relations director for Goldseker.

Mrs. Juanita Chase, medical social worker accepted the sets in behalf of the patients.

The employees of the Nurses division enjoyed their annual Christmas party in the Nurses' Home.

The employees of the Dietary division had their Christmas Party in the Rose Room of the Lucky Number Club in Baltimore on Saturday.

• • •

IN DECEMBER we are reminded of the work of the TB Association and its constant fight against TB. A part of that work is the rehabilitation of patients during and after their recovery. The many pleas which the public heard for ice cream sticks constituted one phase of the TB Association's program of keeping the patients' morale in good standing.

One man, M. Bradley of Ramsey St., Baltimore, took it upon himself to gather hundreds of the sticks, cleaned them, and brought them to Henryton. Such unselfish action is worthy of praise, and is only typical of the attitude of those who, throughout the year, play some part in alleviating the plight of sick people—TB or otherwise.

From Henryton we extend our Greetings and Best Wishes for the Holiday Season.
