Dr. Alleyne and Mrs. Hagan wed here--

with Lula Jones Garrett

(By Elizabeth M. Oliver, substituting for Lula Jones Garrett who is on vacation)

Dr. Bruce H. Allyne, Prominent local dentist, and the former Mrs. Mable Hagan, were altar as the couple exchanged rings in a double - ring ceremony.

Hers is a white gold band with five diamonds; his a plain white gold - carved band.

Mrs. Alleyne was lovely in a pale blue two - piece frock. The jacket, with shawl collar, was tied softly at the waist. The matching sheath, underneath, was elegantly unadorned, tailored by Blanche Dugger.

At her neck, she wore triple strings of pearls. Her earrings were also pearl.

Her slippers were pale blue and her hat, fashioned in blue and white flowers, was misty with pale blue veil.

The bride carried a white orchid and wore short, white kid gloves.

She was attended by her daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Murphy, a teacher at Southern High School. She wore aqua chiffon with a tiny matching hat and an orchid corsage.

Serving as best man was Hudson Lovell, New York attorney.

Present at the ceremonies were Dr. Alleyne's sister, Mrs. Winifred Rhoden, Brooklyn, N.Y., her sister, Mrs. Bessie Hill, Baltimore; her two sons, Earl A. Hagan, Dunbar High School teacher and Mr. wife, Mrs. Estelle Hagan, and Dr. John Hagan, Baltimore pharmacist.

Also, the bride's niece, Mrs. Ray Branch and her husband, Mr. Branch.

A DINNER followed at the Me-De-So-Club where the newlyweds were toasted with champagne.

Tall, white candles and flowers graced the table set with silver and crystal for the complete turkey banquet.

Guests included members of the wedding party and Dr. and Mrs. I. Bradshaw Higgins, Dr. and Mrs. Albert LaFarest, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. O. James Fleming;

Dr. Thomas J. Woolridge, Mrs. Mark Patterson, Mrs. Olga Rodney, Mrs. Flora Gaines and Dr. Basil Weaver.

THE COUPLE side - stepped an immediate honeymoon to make plans for a trip later in the year, the bride says.

Meantime, they will be at home "between our two abodes," hers at 1705 Edmondson Ave., and his at 3440 Auchentoroly Terrace.

Later, Mrs. Alleyne says they may go house hunting, perhaps in the spring.

WHEN THE Board of Governors of Westview Memorial Gardens gathered for the first semi - annual meeting Sunday, the occasion was a grand one indeed and held in a private dining room at the Sheraton Belvedere.

Harry Dempsey, vice president, and Moses Lake, sales official, presided at the cocktail hour from 4 to 5 p.m. in the suite reserved for the meeting, and led the group to the dining room prettily decorated with white birch, deep, fragrant evergreens and huge pine cones.

The banquet was served at a U shape table, brilliant with hurricane lamps and lighted candles, giving a festive air.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robinson, 317 Lyndhurst St., Baltimore, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Tonia M. Henry, to Willie Ludbetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ludbetter of Palmton, S.C.

STUFFED BABY CAPON, fresh fruit supreme, frozen cake were among the delicacies

The two feminine board of governors members setting the pace for high fashion were Mrs. Irma Dixon, member of the Maryland House of Delegates and Mrs. Vivian Cook, president of the Women's Cooperative Civic League.

Delegates Verda Welcome, also a member, suffered a broken ankle recently and could not attend.

MRS. COOK wore striking soft black antique satin. Mrs. Dixon selected violet wool set off by a black fox fur hat.

Mrs. Janet Woolridge, public relations official, wore Christmas - green wool with the office exec - hued cocktail hat.

Mrs. Jeannette Gresham, the firm's secretary, wore black with a many - splendored pearl necklace.

THE BOARD of governors was called to meet due to the fact that Westview is fast becoming an institution in Baltimore and the progress in giving a much - needed service and jobs to many citizens is making a new era in the community.

Mr. Dempsey, presiding, announced that the governors, "the finest people we could elect," are forming the Westview policy for the coming year.

MEMBERS OF the board of governors include:

THE FEMMES CONTINENTAL have completed plans for the Benefit Cabaret Party coming up Sunday, Dec. 27.

They met Saturday at the home of Charlotte Johnson.

With Geneva Dyson as club president, the Continentals will hold the yuletide affair at the famous Ballroom. The Coette Williams band will provide music.

Miss Theresa Keys, the Benefit College student who is among the twenty - five 1960 debutantes to be presented by the Me-De-So Club in the spring, did not arrive home for the reception on Sunday. The other 25 did.

However, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tucker, Miss Keys' parents, were present to accept the welcome extended by the club to their daughter, and to the other parents and debs.

In groups of three daughter, mother and father, this year's debs were introduced to the club.

Dr. I. Bradshaw Higgins, president and Mrs. Mae Campbell, president of the Women's auxiliary, headed the reception line.

The table in the dining room was festive, skirted with red and adorned with red and green candles, flowers and pretty edibles.

The first deb party comes Dec. 28 at the Randallstown home of the Mr. and Mrs. Tucker who will entertain with a supper dance for their daughter Theresa.

Following the debs' party Sunday, members of the Me-De-So club their wives held their Christmas party and exchanged gifts.

Present debutantes and their escorts are: Ann Adams, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Adams and Dr. Lawrence Gaither, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gaither; Ann Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bailey and Bernard Gray, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gray; Carolyn Lockamyer, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent T. Kay; Barbara Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and Charles Phillips.
