Shula seeks young QB

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Baltimore Colts coach Don Shula says he's "anxious-ly" looking for a young quarterback to groom as a replacement for aging Johnny Unitas and Earl Morrall.

However, Shula, here to coach the South squad for Saturday's 21st annual Senior Bowl college all-star football game, wants it clearly understood he isn't in any hurry to get rid of Unitas or Morrall.

"But, we've got to face facts." Shula told the Mobile Rotary Club. "We're going to have to have a young quarterback ready within the next couple of years.

"Unitas looked like his old self in our closing win over the Rams, and Morrall was player of the year just two seasons ago. But we can't expect them to go on forever."

• • •

Shula went on to say that this need for a young quarterback is one of the main reasons he's happy to be one of the coaches in this year's Senior Bowl game.

Shula said he is impressed with South quarterbacks Terry Bradshaw of Louisiana Tech, and Bill Capplemann of Florida State, and North quarterback Dennis Shaw of San Diego State.

"I'm anxious to get a look at these people under game conditions," said Shula, who predicted Saturday's game "will be a wide-open passing duel."

Here-and-there quickies

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Stan Wright, track coach at Sacramento State College, has denounced an article on militancy among black athletes published by the National Collegiate Athletic Association news as "ludicrous, irresponsible and derogatory."

Wright, leading national track figure, was quoted in the Sacramento Bee by sports columnist Marco Smolich.

Wright, himself colored, served as assistant track coach of the United States team at the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City and is chairman of the Amateur Athletic Union Track and Field Committee.

He issued a statement regarding the December NCAA article entitled, "Militant Groups Doing Great Disservice to Black Athletes."

The coach said the article "gives the impression" that black athletes are associated with militant groups and called the alleged implication "misleading and unfortunate."

"The majority of colored athletes want to participate in intercollegiate athletics, not undermine them," he said.

In fact, when it comes to money, VW will save you a lot of counting after you buy it, too. On gas bills. (It gets up to 27 mpg.)

On oil (it hardly ever needs any between changes).

And, since the engine is air-cooled, you never have to dish it out on anti-freeze.

So if you don't like to count, buy a Volkswagen.

It figures.

Not even one of their patented rallies could help the day night.

The Royals, who had won their last three games by making up deficits of 19, 18 and 15 points respectively, fell 29 points behind the Milwaukee Bucks. A third quarter comeback cut the Royals' deficit to nine before Milwaukee recovered and went on to score a 138-119 victory.

Milwaukee, which has now won 15 of its last 16 games, opened up an 88-59 advantage in the third quarter before Cincinnati, behind the shooting of Fred Foster, moved to within 95-86 late in the period.

However, a three-point play by Flynn Robinson sparked a blocks spurt that gave them a 112-88 lead and moved them out of danger.

• • •

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The New York Knicks overcame a frigid third period and a gallant San Francisco comeback for a 99-94 National Basketball Association victory over the warriors Wednesday night.

The Knicks, who have won six in a row on San Francisco courts over the last three seasons, frittered away a 15-point first-half lead by scoring only 14 points in the third period, but finished strong to boost their record to 35-9.

• • •

NEW YOR K (UPI) — Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers, the top scorer in the national basketball association, heads the western division starting team named Thursday for the NBA's All-Star game at Philadelphia on Jan. 20.

West received a vote of 13,750 points out of a possible 14 from sportswriter and sportscasters from each of the NBA franchise cities who took part in the balloting.

Joining West on the starting team will be Laker teammate Elgin Baylor, Connie Hawkins of Phoenix, Nate Thurmon of San Francisco, and Lou Hudson of Atlanta. Also chosen to the Western squad were chet Walker of Chicago, Elvin Hayes of San Diego and Jeff Mullins of San Francisco.

• • •

Previously named to represent the East team were Willis Reed and Wat Frazier of New York, Billy Cunningham and Hal Greer of Philadelphia, John Havlicek of Boston, Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati, Lew Alcindor of Milwaukee and Gus Johnson of Baltimore.

Actor James Edwards dies of heart attack

HAMMOND, Ind., — Funeral services are scheduled Saturday for James Edwards, veteran actor of stage, screen and television.

Edwards, who first attained stardom for his portrayal of the troubled colored soldier in "Home of the Brave" in 1949, died Sunday night in San Diego, Cal.

Reportedly, the 42-year-old artist was working on a film script in a rented house in the Southern California town, when he complained of chest pains. He was rushed to Sharp Memorial Hospital, where he died.

Doctors indicated he was a victim of a heart attack.

• • •

Edwards was born in Muncie, Ind., and attended Indiana University and Northwestern University, where he majored in speech and dramatics. During World War II he was a first lieutenant in the Army.

He appeared in several plays on Broadway before winning acclaim as the hero of "Deepp Are the Roots," a long-run drama about a Southern household during wartime. He opened an acting school in Los Angeles, then made his screen debut in early 1949 in "The Set-Up," a boxing drama.

However, it was "Home of the Brave," Hollywood's first postwar movie with racial prejudice as a central theme, and which was released later the same year, that won Edwards his highest acclaim and dominated the rest of his career. central figure, a sensitive Edwards portrayed the central figure, a sensitive Army soldier who cracks up after undergoing a perilous mission on a Japanese-held island with three comrades, one of who is a tormenting racial bigot.

In later years, the actor appeared on television, in various stage productions and in numerous movies.

Among the latter were: "The Steel Helmet," "Bright Victory," "The Member of the Wedding," "The Caine Mutiny," "Seven Angry Men," "The Phenix City Story," "Pork Chop Hill," "The Manchurian Candidate" and "The Sandpiper."

Edwards is survived by his widow, Everdinne, and a daughter, Euginia Anne.

TV station sued by Mays

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Willie Mays filed a $128,300 suit Wednesday against television station UDO of San Francisc, claiming he was not paid for services.

The star outfie'der of the San Francisco Gianis complained he was paid only $8,700 on a contract under which he was to receive $95,000. In addition to the balance of the payment he asked $50,000 general damages.

The nightly 15-minutes sports programs featuring Mays was discontinued after a short time.

The station, Channel 38, currently broadcasts weekdays from 2 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., showing movies during the early morning hours and broadcasting stock market prices while the markets are open. KUDO is owned by Bay Broadcasting Co.
