League set to operate thrift shop

The Wise Penny, a thrift shop sponsored by the Junior League of Baltimore, Inc., will open in Waverly at 3349 Greenmount Avenue on Tuesday, January 20 at 10 a.m.

The shop, which will be open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. until June 15.

It will feature quality second-hand clothing and a variety of household items including china, draperies, jewelry, bric-a-brac, and toys.

Merchandise for the shop is donated by members and friends of the Junior League, and the proceeds will finance the League's projects in the community.

Current projects include the Metropolitan Senior Citizens Center, the pilot project for the Waxter Center, in which League members are active developing programs and serving as volunteers in the classes and activities.

League puppeteers perform at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in the Child-Life Program and at inner city schools, and a singing group named the Larks provides entertainment in Baltimore hospitals, homes for the aged, and special schools.

In Annapolis, a Mobile Children's Museum operated by League members in that city visits local schools to exhibit artifacts of life in Colonial Maryland.

And in Baltimore, League volunteers serve in the Maryland Historical Society's slide, research, and guide programs and present in the city schools a slide program to supplement the curriculum on Maryland history.

The Wise Penny Steering Committee Chairman is Mrs. Michael M. Canon. Co-Chairman is Mrs. Richard Whiteford.

Mrs. Frederick W. Lafferty is President of the Junior League of Baltimore.

PROMOTED — Elwood Riche has been promoted to sales representative for the F and M Schaefer Brewing Co. Mr. Riche graduated from Dunbar High School and attended Morgan State College. He joined Schaefer Brewing in 1965 and held clerical positions until his appointment as sales representative for the west Baltimore area.

More Miss. schools comply

JACKSON, MISS. (UPI)—A dozen more Mississippi school districts complied Monday with the Supreme Court's total desegregation decree, and the result was thorough integration in some areas and white abandonment of public schools in others.

The compliance, plus last week's desegregation of 13 Mississippi districts, left many communities in the Magnolia State with a heavier percentage of blacks in classes with whites than in many northern cities such as Chicago, Philadelphia and Washington.

Mother-in-law of Dr. E. F. Jackson

The attendance of Dr. and Mrs. E. Franklin Jackson at a meeting of the Ministers and Laymen's Association in Los Angeles was interrupted Friday by news of the death of Mrs. Jackson's mother.

So the couple left immediately for Detroit to attend funeral services for the minister's mother-in-law, Mrs. Nannie Dodson.

Dr. Jackson was expected to return to Washington in time for Sunday services at John Wesley AME Zion church which he pastors.

Frank Robey

Funeral services are being held today (Friday) for Frank C. Robey, Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas and head of the Marriage License Bureau since 1954.

Mr. Robey was 80 years of age and died Monday after he was stricken at his desk at the Courthouse.

Last rites are at the Rick Funeral Home, 5300 block Harford Rd. at 3 p.m.
