Funeral services held for Russell Scott

By MELVINA EDWARDS

Funeral services were held Thursday from the George Kelson Funeral Home for Russell Scott.

Mr. Scott died Monday at Veterans Hospital where he had been a patient for some time. He was a native of Calvert County but moved to Baltimore at an early age.

Mr. Scott is survived by five sisters, Mesdames Lillian Robertson of N.Y., Gladys Smothers of Baltimore; Georgine Byers and Bernice Hicks; both of Washington; Geneva Scott of Calvert Co.; 14 nieces and nephews; great nieces and nephews.

Burial took place in Baltimore National Cemetery.

Welcome home Phillip Taylor of Carey St., husband of Mrs. Ruth Contee Taylor.

On the sick list this week are Mrs. Agnes Gray, George Rice, Mrs. Cornelia High, Mrs. Bertha Chambers, Hamilton Chambers, Mrs. Edna Chambers and Mrs. Bertie Pequis. Hurry and get well soon.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family of Russell Scott.

The youth of Cooper United Methodist Church presented a gift to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards.

Peters and Cooper United Methodist Church presented a fine robe to the Rev. Mr. Edwards.

A Baby Rally is in the making. It is being sponsored by Mesdames Mary Taylor, Geraldine Harris and Melvina Edwards.

New subscribers to the AFRO this week are Luther Freeland of Owings in Calvert Co. and Mrs. Mozelle Holloman of Baltimore.

Welcome back Mrs. Floyd Harris who travelled by plane to visit her husband in Hawaii.

He is now stationed in Vietnam.

The writer of this column will celebrate another birthday on Jan. 17. She is the wife of the Rev. William Edwards and mother of Maurice Edwards.

Wedding bells will ring soon for Miss Freda Holland and Cleveland Graves. Miss Holland is a graduate of Brooks High School and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holland of Prince Frederick, Calvert Co., Md.

Tax guide aids small businessmen

The answers to a wide range of questions businessmen have about Federal income, excise and employment taxes can be found quickly in the 1970 edition of "Tax Guide for Small Business," Publication 334.

Irving Machiz, District Director of Internal Revenue for Maryland and the District of Columbia, said the tax laws enacted last year are also fully ex-

The business tax guide contains a Tax Calendar for 1970 giving the dates on which the various tax and information returns and payments are due.

A checklist is included which enables businessmen to identify quickly all taxes they may have to pay. Information on each tax and the forms required can also be located from the checklist.

An explanation of how Federal tax laws apply to various forms of businesses such as the sole proprietor, partnership, or corporation may be found in the booklet. Also covered are special problems faced by some manufacturers, retailers, and professional men.

The "Tax Guide for Small Business" costs 60 cents and may be obtained from most IRS offices or from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington.
