1,500 guests honor Judge Liss 'for his quality of heart'

BY ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

A glittering array of 1,500 citizens of all races honored Supreme Bench Judge Solomon Liss at a banquet at the Stanley Sagner Auditorium of Beth Tfiloh Synagogue on Old Court Road last Sunday.

A standing ovation went to the jurist who is widely known "for the quality of his heart and his love for all human beings."

The four-hour event was for the benefit of the Jewish National Foundation which is dedicated to clearing land, planting trees, building roads and other wise helping to "create an Israel flowing with milk and honey" in the Holy Land.

Supreme Bench Judge Meyer Cardin, last year's honoree, presented Judge and Mrs. Liss with a plaque showing the enscription of their names in the Golden Book which remains permanently in the JNF office in Israel.

Gov. Mandel presented the jurist with Maryland's highest honor, the state Certificate of Distinguished Citizenship.

D'Alesandro III received

Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro III received resounding applause as he cited Judge Liss "for competence in office and kind consideration for all humanity no other man in public life possesses."

Chastising the present U. S. administration's policy of "weakening Israel", Mayor D'Alesandro said he does not support the nation's stand.

He stated, "Israel is an oasis of democracy, important to the free world and the principles of the brotherhood man. In strengthening her we could advance the cause of Freedom."

Also taking the Nixon administration to task for its policy of "concessions to Jordan," was guest speaker Rabbi Judah Nadich, head of New York's Park Ave. Synagogue.

"He stated "U. S. concessions will not lead to lasting peace. Israel has regretted the American proposals in its series of concessions. Israel will lose its security and new wars will become certain."

Rabbi Naditch also accused the U.S. of becoming an ally of the Soviet Union at a time when Israel is the only barrier to complete domination by the Soviet Union.

Stating that the Nixon administration is making "a serious political mistake," he urged all persons present to flood Washington with requests that the government give Israel military and economic assistance since "it is the only ally America has in the East."

Rabbi Naditch, brother-in-law of the honoree also, lauded Judge Liss along with other members of his family who were present for the occasion.

Rabbi Uri Miller gave the invocation, Abraham Denburg served as Cantor. Leonard J. Attman, dinner chairman and Alleck A. Resnick, JNF president, gave the history of the foundation and its work in Israel in their welcome addresses.

Rabbi Samuel Rosenblatt gave benediction. Others who brought greetings were Dale Anderson and Joseph W. Alton Jr., chief executives of Baltimore and Anne Arundel County respectively.

* * *

In very brief response, Judge Liss thanked guests present and all other citizens who have made contributions "so that Israel might live forever."

Among special introductions he made, were those of Judges Joseph Howard and Albert Sklar, "who do not have to run for office" and incumbents "who have to run" Judges Harry A. Cole, Robert B. Watts, Basil Thomas, David Ross, George Solter and Joseph Carter who was not present.

Judge Liss has been an attorney since 1937. In 1943 he was named a magistrate and from 1955 to 1963 held a seat in the City Council. From 1964 to 1968, he was chairman of the Public Service Commission. In 1969, he was named an associate Supreme Bench Judge.

* * *

Among those present were Senator Joseph D. Tydings, Dr. Cyril F. Atkins, Charles W. Fletcher, Charles Tildon, City Solicitor and Mrs. George Russell, Edward Taylor, architect, Bernard Polar, Judge Joseph Paper, the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Tabor and Allen Quille, a member of the dinner committee.

Also Mrs. Mandel, Mrs. D'Alesandro, Mrs. Naditch, Judge and Mrs. Leon Sobaloffe, Mrs. Cardin, Mrs. Resnick, Mrs. Alton, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Rosenblatt; Messrs. and Mesdames Jacob Behaf, David Schnaper, Isaac Taylor, Gordon Selznik, Leonard J. Attman, Leon Rudd, Henry O. Shore and Bernard Kiewe, Judges John Hargrove, Daniel Friedman and Harold Lewis.

Science Shrinks Painful Hemorrhoids Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

Finds Way That Both Relieves Pain and Shrinks Piles In Most Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has discovered a medication with the ability, in most cases, to actually shrink hemorrhoids and temporarily stop the burning itch and relieve pain.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, very striking improvement was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain and itching were promptly relieved. Then this medication starts right in to gently reduce the swelling of inflamed, irritated piles.

Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, in Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so. And it was all done without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind.

The secret is Preparation H—an exclusive formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids. There is no other formula like it! Preparation H also lubricates to make bowel movements less painful, it soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. Preparation H comes in both ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.
