Executives May Cause Crime

WASHINGTON — The American Psychiatric Association says the death penalty actually may incite crime among exhibitionists, those leaning toward suicide and those "to whom the lure of danger has a strong appeal."

The Association said the harm to all involved in pushing a capital punishment case "to its terrible conclusion" indicates the death sentence "is unnecessary to the progress of our society."

New Bill Work Begins

WASHINGTON—House lawmakers started work this week on a new education and welfare money bill with a commitment from President Nixon to spend $450 million more for education than he originally proposed.

The Administration compromise came Wednesday shortly before the House voted to sustain Nixon's veto of the $19.7 billion appropriation bill for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare. The vetoed bill included a $1.2 billion increase over his budget.

New uniforms for White House guards unveiled this week, featured a Teutonic peaked hat and a double breasted tunic that falls somewhere between early-high-school and late palace guard.

A lieutenant in the Capitol Police asked about the idea, said "if they make me wear one of those, they're going to have to give me a brass drum."

$1.45 hour minimum wage goes in effect on February 1

Henry Miller, commissioner of the Maryland Department of Labor and Industry announced today that a change in the minimum wage affecting the employees covered by the law of 1965 takes effect Sunday, February 1.

The new rate as of that date will be $1.45 per hour.

Mr. Miller noted that during the year 1969, the Labor Standards Division of the Department found 501 firms in violation. A total of 1,079 violations were uncovered and the sum of $60,231.55 was found to be owing.

The Minimum Wage Law was enacted in 1965 and has been amended from time to time.

During the 1969 session of the General Assembly, amendments were added to bring the State's schedule of minimum hourly rates in conformity with those of the federal government by June 1, 1971.

* * *

As of November, the law as amended, calls for minimum wage standards as follows:

Employees Covered by law of 1965, Seven or More Employees $1.00 per hour effective June 1, 1965; $1.15 per hour effective Feb. 1, 1966; $1.30 per hour effective Feb. 1, 1969; $1.45 per hour effective Feb. 1, 1970; $1.60 per hour effective Feb. 1, 1971.

Employees Covered by Law of 1967 (One or More Employees $1.00 per hour effective June 1, 1967; $1.15 per hour effective June 1, 1968; $1.30 per hour effective June 1, 1969; $1.45 per hour effective June 1, 1970; $1.60 per hour effective June 1, 1971.

* * *

Exempted from the provisions of the Minimum Wage Act are those students enrolled in primary and secondary schools, employed not more than twenty (20) hours per week, individuals who are members of the employer's immediate family, employees of restaurants, cafes, etc. selling food and drink for consumption on the premises providing such establishments shall have a gross annual income of $250,000 or less.

Mr. Miller stated that it was impossible for the Department of Lavor and Industry to contact each of the more than 35,000 businesses affected by the change in the Mmimum Wage Law.

"Notices have been sent via newspaper, radio and television when there is any change in the Minimum Wage Law. It has been noted in the past that each time there has been a change in the law, the number of violators seems to be increased.

"The Department of Labor Industry has no desire to prosecute any businessman under this law.

It is only desirous that the employers and employees familiarizes themselves with the provisions of the law and comply with them."

Any businessman or employer seeking answers to any question regarding the Minimum Wage Law, call the Maryland Department of Labor and Industry, 383-3010, Ext. 8473 or visit the Department's office on the mezzanine floor of the State Office Building, 301 West Preston St. in Baltimore.

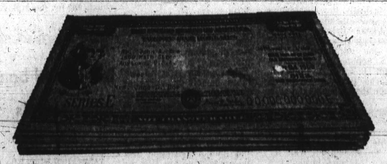
Now all your U.S. Savings Bonds pay higher interest.



Now it's official.

Now one of the safest investments in the world brings you new and higher returns.

Now your U.S. Savings Bonds pay the highest interest in history: a full 5 per cent when held to maturity of 5 years and 10 months. (4% the first year; 5.20% thereafter to maturity.) Previously, these Bonds earned you only 4¼% if you held them for seven years.

The new interest began June 1, 1969. So all of the Bonds you own, no matter when you bought them, have been collecting higher interest since that time.

Those Bonds are still replaced if lost, stolen or burned.

You can still buy them through Payroll Savings or the Bond-a-Month plan.

Regardless of your other investments, can you think of any easier, better, or safer way to build a nest egg for yourself?

It's nice to know that you are doing a little something for Uncle Sam, too. The $52 billion in U.S. Savings Bonds now outstanding in the hands of millions of Americans go a long way toward keeping your country financially strong.

School principals go to court for their money

The Public School Administrators and Supervisors Association has asked Circuit Court to rule on a matter that concerns their salaries.

According to documents filed Jan 20 by the group, the School Board took action last year which deprived the administrators and supervisors of a salary raise that was due them as of July 1, 1969.

Placing the petition before the court or an injunction and uniform declaratory decree is S. Reginald Watts, 3810 Cedardale Rd., a public school area director and president of the organization which includes all directors, principals, assistant principals, supervisors, specialists and special assistants.

The action is also directed against Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro and the City Council.

The petition filed by Edwin J. Wolf, attorney, alleges that PSASA as the representative for the administrators entered into a contract with the School Board to provide the raises in salaries.

The union states that the negotiated contract was scheduled to become effective July 1, 1969.

The petition further claims that when the contract went before the City Council, as a part of the budget, the Mayor and the City Council reduced the salaries.

* * *

A quote from the petition says that, "the Board of School Commissioners, limited by the arbitrary, capricious and illegal action of the City Council, adjusted y and revised the salaries of the administrators."

In addition, the administrators claim on Nov. 19, 1969 the Board of Estimates disapproved the $112,000 necessary to support full salary increases for the group.

Stating that the contract that was to have taken effect last July is a legally binding contract, the PSASA claims that the salary raises are now due and owing and enforceable.

In conclusion the PSASA wantes the court to order the School Board to comply and pay the $122,000 to support the full salary increases of the administrators.

Besides Mayor D'Alesandro and members of the City Council, the legal action cites the school board president, Francis D. Murnaghan Jr. and members Mrs. M. Richard Fearing, James Griffin, John J. Sweeney, Philip Macht, Samuel T. Daniels, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Moss, Larry Gibson and Sidney H. Tinley.
