BLACKWELL — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear mother and grandmother, MARTHA BLACKWELL, on her birthday, January 31st, who passed away January 31, 1969.

Are bringing your birthday, Mother, dear.

Granddaughter — IONA WILLIAMS
Great-Granddaughter — INA WILLIAMS

LONESOME — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear mother, GRACIE, on her birthday January 26, who departed this life May 8, 1968.
Why is it when a loved one goes,
Regrets will crowd your mind;
Of all the things you meant to do,
But never took the time.
We want to say and do so much
And yet we hesitate,
We've plenty of time we tell ourselves,
But God it's far too late.
And when we think of yesterdays,
Remembering brings of pain,
So many things we'll do tomorrow
But tomorrow never came.
So on this, your birthday, please forgive us, Lord,
We humbly beg of you,
Forgive us all those little things
We really meant to do,
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wice out never
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
LOVING DAUGHTERS AND GRANDCHILDREN

RINGOLD — In loving memory of our son and brother, JAMES F. RINGOLD, who was taken away from us January 29, 1969:
We can not say, and we will not say
That he is dead, he is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.
And you — O you, who the oldest years
For the old time step and the glad return
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, we say
He is not dead — he is just away.

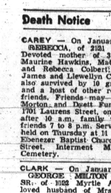
In Memoriam



GRACE — In memoriam to our beloved father in the Gospel, REBEC. C. M. GRACE, who passed away January 16, 1960: who came to that home from which no traveler returns, yet we continues still to live in the hearts of those who are left behind.
We cannot say, and we will not say
That he is dead, he is just away.
With a cheery smile and wave of his hand
He has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
Afar, it need must be since he lingers there.
And you — oh, you, who the willingly years
For his step and the glad return.
Thinking of him faring on, as dear,
In the love of there as in the love of here.
Thinking of him still as the same
We say he is not dead, he is just away.
Elder WILLIAM MORRISON and Members of True Grace Memorial House of Prayer For All People Church on the Rock of the Apostolic Faith.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of our dear son and our loved one, MICHAEL WAYNE JOHNSON, who passed away January 30, 1969:
Nothing but memories as we journey on,
Longing for a smile from a loved one gone.
None know the depths of our deep regret,
But we remember and will never get.

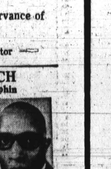
JONES — In loving memory of our dear son and our loved one, NORMAN G. JONES, who passed away January 30, 1969:
Do not ask us if we miss him:
There's such a vacant place,
Such sad memories in our footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come over us,
Tears in silence often flow,
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us one ago.
THE FAMILY

MATTHEWS — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, GRACE MATTHEWS, beloved wife of the late Norman A. Hills, passed away January 24, 1960:



We seem to see in the soft, dim light
Face we love the best,
And think of her when the sun's bright
Goes down in the far off west.
We miss you no less as the time passes on
Than we did on the day of your going.
Your absence can never close the door of our hearts
And the lamp of our love is still glowing.
Your fault was the truest in all the wide world.
Your love the best to recall
For no one on earth can take your place.
You are still the dearest of all.
Lovingly: THE FAMILY

McCANTS — In loving memory of our dear father and loved one, JACOB McCANTS, SR., who passed away January 30, 1967:
Somewhere above this troubled world,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our father rests in heavenly peace
God grant some day we'll meet him there.

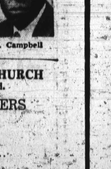
MORRIS — In loving memory of our dear son, FREDERICK D. MORRIS JR., who passed away January 30, 1969:



Two years have passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away
God took him home — it was His will,
But in our hearts he liveth still.
Within our hearts he liveth still.
