Union official divorced on wife's adultery charge

Mrs. Earl Washington Barnes, a Social Security claims examiner, was granted a divorce Jan. 29 from her husband on grounds of adultery.

Mr. Barnes is the national representative for the Shipbuilders Union, though Maryland Drydock.

The decree, which dissolves his fourth marriage, requires that he pay his wife $1.000 at the signing of the papers; $100 per month for 12 months and $150 to her attorney, Solomon Baylor.

The wife's maiden name was returned. However, she gave up all rights to their Baltimore County home and five lots in Glen Burnie.

According to the wife's testimony, she and Mr. Barnes were married Valentine Day, Feb. 14, 1966 and separated in March, 1968 when the husband admitted he had two children born out of wedlock to "Carmen" — his sweetheart — before his marriage.

Mrs. Barnes told the court she saw her husband and the "Carmen" go into the lady's house on Haddon Ave. just inside the city line in March, 1963.

She testified her husband admitted the love affair and they separated the same day.

Mrs. Barnes also told the court her husband never came home nights. Kept no clothes nor ate meals at home and when he did come in "said nothing."

She stated that she left him because of his conduct when they resided in the Essex Rd. home, Woodmore, Baltimore County.

Birthday Tribute

GREEN — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our daughter and sister, ANN MACKIE, on her birthday February 9, who passed away January 24, 1969:

Two beautiful eyes are closed
But, you will always live in our hearts.
From MOTHER, FATHER, BROTHER and SISTER

JACKSON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my loved one, BERNADINE, on her birthday February 22, 1969:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee.
Oh, how I miss you, BERNADINE dear.
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
For one long year has passed, dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
CHARLES W. PARKS

HUTCHINS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our daughter and sister, MARY V., on her birthday, February 4, who passed away March 13, 1959:
Our lips cannot express how we miss her
Her sweet face and her tender smile
She always had a deep trust in God
That all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If there was someone sick or suffering
She always shared some gentle act of love.
She always thought of others and forgot about herself.
A daughter and sister she was,
God only knows how we miss her.
We tried to hid our sadness
And wipe our tears
But God comfort us in our moment of grief.
Someday we will meet, and that will be a
Glorious time to meet her.
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Your Devoted Family:
Mom: MARY
Sisters:
ALICE, DOROTHY
Brothers: JAMES and GEORGE.

In Memoriam

BOURNE — A tribute of love to the memory of our dear father, THEODORE H., who departed this life February 5, 1949:
God and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
A bitter grief, and shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God grant you eternal rest.
WIFE and CHILDREN

BOURNE — A tribute of love to the memory of a beloved son and brother, THEODORE H., who departed this life February 5, 1949:
There's a face that is haunting as ever,
There's a voice we are longing to hear,
There's a smile we will remember forever,
Though we try to forget every tear.
There's a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There's a memory fond and true
There's a token of affection dear,
And a heartache still for you.
Your Loving MOTHER, BROTHER and SISTERS

BOYER — In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES A. Boyer, who passed away February 6, 1961:
You're not forgotten,
Nor ever will you be
As long as life and memory last
I will remember thee.
Loving Wife
MARGARET E. BOYER

BOYER — In loving memory of my dear husband, NATHANIEL, who passed away the 8th of February 1950 at 12:45 a.m.
You are not forgotten, loved one
Nor will you ever be
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can ever take your place.
LOVING WIFE AND FAMILY

DOBSON — In memory of our dear son, DAVID C. DOBSON, who departed this life February 6, 1968:
Two years ago today, you went home
To be with your Lord and ours.
The Memories of you dear, are sweeter as the days go by.
We did not visit your grave side too often,
As we realize you are not there
But you are in paradise with your Lord and ours.
We shall all be together some day.
God be with you till we meet again.
Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian Love.
Your Loving Family,
SPENCER JR.
VERNON — HAROLD
ANN (SIS)
IRVIN — MOM and DAD.

CARTER — For my loving husband and father, JERRY CARTER, who departed this life one year ago, February 6, 1969:
Loving memories never died.
As months roll on and days go by.
His Loving Wife,
MARY E. CARTER
His Devoted Daughter,
SAMANTHA DYCE.

DORSEY — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, CHARLES W. DORSEY, who passed away February 7, 1969:
God and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God grant you eternal rest.
YOUR WIFE, and CHILDREN

DUNSTON — In loving memory of my dear sister and our loved one, GLADYS DUNSTON, who passed away February 7, 1968:
If we had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sign from your heart
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the sign you had,
We did not see you die,
We only know you went to pray
And never said good-bye.
To think you could not say good-bye
Wife,
TRACIELA HALL
and CHILDREN

HAWKINS — In memory of our dear sister, JULIA B. who died and away one year ago February 8, 1969:
The Flowers we placed upon your grave,
The clouds against the blue
Seem brighter than the were before.
Because we are forever thinking of you.
Devoted Sister,
MARY F. SMITH
Sister-in-law,
LILLA SUMMERVILLE

In Memoriam

HAMS — In loving memory of my dear friend, ROBERTA P. who passed away January 9, 1970:
You are not forgotten,
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
I miss you more as time goes by.
Your gentle ways
No one can fill your vacant place.
Real Pal,
LORETTA KITCHEN

JEFFRIES — In loving memory of our beloved one, MAGGIE JEFFRIES, who passed away February 8, 1965:
A light is from our household gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
You may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Dad, VIVIAN and ELBERT

KITCHEN SR. — In loving memory of my dear husband and my uncle, FRED, who passed away February 5, 1953:
The days we shared together
Are the memories we hold dear.
The happiness you gave
Meant so much to us.
There's nothing we can say
To tell the grief in our hearts.
As we think of you today
We gave us years of happiness,
Then came sorrow and tears.
But you left us with beautiful memories
To treasure through the years.
Your Wife,
LORETTA
Niece,
DOROTHY L. KITCHEN

MILLER — In memory of our beloved father and friend, WILMORE MILLER, who passed away February 8, 1969:
Father, your children all shall keep
Your blessed memories as you sleep.
Daughter — DEBORAH ANN
Son — BILLY
Loved in life, in death remembered.
NELLIE

MURPHY — In memory of our loved one, KATHERINE SMITH MURPHY, who passed away February 8, 1963:

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past:
Faith's journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And Heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
THE FAMILY

PERSON — In loving memory of my dear wife and our mother, ALICE PERSON, who passed away February 8, 1955:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true.
There is a token of affection dear,
And a heartache still for you.
Husband, SAMUEL PERSON
Sons, CORNELIUS and PURNELL

PRIOLEAU — In loving memory of our darling, JANIE SHIRLEY PRIOLEAU, WHO PASSED AWAY February 5, 1970:
Do not ask us if we miss her;
There's such a vacant place.
Or we think we hear her footsteps
And see her smiling face.
Days of sadness still come over us
Tears in silence often flow.
Memory keeps her ever near us,
Though she left us five years ago.
MOTHER, FATHER
SISTERS and BROTHERS

SCOTT — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, GEORGE WILLIAM SCOTT, who passed away February 8, 1968:
Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of thee.
Oh, how we miss you, dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
Five live long years have passed, dear,
And our hearts still ache for you.
Your Devoted Wife
