Two wives at Harper's last rites

Funeral services were held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Morton and Dyett Funeral Home for Stanley "Reds" Harper, familiar Avenue figure, who was found murdered last week.

Over 100 persons attended the brief rites led by the funeral home pastor, the Rev. Carlton O. Cook of Union Baptist Church, Sparrows Pt. The Rev. Mr. Cook also read the obituary.

Burial took place at Arbutus Memorial Park. Two wives attended the wake and funeral.

A woman identified by funeral home authorities as Mrs. Irene Harper arranged for the last rites for the man who had been missing over 40 days.

Mrs. Irene Harper resides at the residence, 3806 Fairview Ave., given as that of the deceased man.

Mrs. Irene Harper, the spokesman said, met undertakers' assistants at the door and responded to calling for the name of "the wife" when cars arrived to transport the family to the last rites.

She is listed along with Mrs. Mamie Harper and Ernest Harper, the deceased man's mother and father. Also listed with Mrs. Irene Harper are "two children."

Mrs. Dorothy Harper, another woman who goes as the wife of the deceased man was also at the funeral and the wake the night before. Previously Mrs. Dorothy Harper brought her marriage license to the AFRO office, revealed she has not been divorced from Harper and states that she is the mother of their five children.

Mrs. Dorothy Harper did say, however that she and Reds had been separated 10 years.

Funeral home aides said before the Wednesday night wake, Mrs. Dorothy Harper had been informed by "the other Mrs. Harper" that she would not be expected to ride in any one of the three funeral cars, the Cadillac limosene or the two 5-passenger Cadillacs rented by Mrs. Irene Harper for the procession.

Mrs. Dorothy Harper was told she would have to get her own car for herself and her children, an aide said.

Petite, tactful and wearing crushed black velvet and a black lace whimsey, Mrs. Irene Harper said she was "happy" when she was a little girl and they had been sweethearts 10 years.

James Morton, an owner of the 16-year old son were jerked him from the hood and claimed he was injured in the resulting fall to the ground.

Brown testified he was driving home with Bill Russell, former pro basketball star, after a round of golf when he became involved in the accident.

Brown denied the allegations while on the witness stand, and after the verdict was in, he complimented both the jury and Superior Court Judge Charles H. Woodmansee for their fairness.

district sales manager, announced that starting last Saturday and continuing until April 26 larger four engine B720 jets seating 129 passengers will replace the 98 seat B727.

The smaller plane has been operated on the Jamaica Route since Eastern began service on December 13.

Southbound Eastern Flight 995 leaves Friendship International Airport Saturday and Sunday only at 10 a.m. with arrival in Montego Bay scheduled for 1:30 p.m. and Kingston at 2:24 p.m. Northbound Flight 994 departing Kingston leaves 3:30 p.m. and Montego Bay at 4:30 p.m. and arrives Friendship at 7:49 p.m.

fied that he happened to be in the vicinity, and took a shot showing Kellum in the groin with one officer's knee pressing on his neck, while another policeman twisted his arm. An accompanying article questioned the necessity of 14 policemen arresting one man.

In addition, drawings, made by Kellum during his five months in jail, purportedly showed the events leading up to his arrest; these drawings entered as evidence.

The jury deliberated for approximately four hours, and at one point, informed the presiding judge, Davis Ross, that they could not reach a decision on the attempted hold-up charge. Judge Ross promptly reconvened the court and instructed the jury to attempt to come to an agreement even if it meant moving on to the second count of the indictment. However, the attempt-robbery charge resulted in a "hung jury."

The court-appointed attorney motioned for a new trial on the assault convictions.

Jim Brown innocent of assault

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) — Jim Brown was acquitted of charges of felony assault and misdemeanor battery Thursday after a jury of seven women and five men deliberated for only 30 minutes.

The charges against the former pro football star stemmed from a minor traffic collision in Beverly Hills Aug. 1.

Charles Brush, 52, the other motorist, said he clung to the hood of the actor's car when Brown started to drive toward him after refusing to exchange driver's license information.

1,000 set to honor Dr. Jackson

More than 1,000 guests are expected at the testimonial to be given Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, retiring president of the Baltimore branch of the NAACP, at the Lord Baltimore Hotel on Thursday, Feb. 12 at 7:30 p.m.

Among head table guests will be Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, who began his legal career as one of the lawyers for the Baltimore NAACP under Dr. Jackson's leadership.

Guest speaker will be AME Zion Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, chairman of the national NAACP board.

Justice Marshall, representing the local NAACP, scored an early victory against school segregation when the local NAACP opened the University of Maryland law school to all students in the Donald Murray case, which led to later desegregation successes on the national and federal level.

Dr. Jackson, who will be 81 in June, has been NAACP president for 34 years.

Rev. Smith to mark 25th year at St. Philips

Special worship service at 11 a.m. will celebrate the 25th pastoral anniversary of the Rev. Fancis B. Smith at St. Philip's Lutheran Church, Sunday morning.

Following the services a reception will be held in the fellowship hall of the church, and a banquet at the Alcazar has been scheduled for five in the afternoon.

From a membership of 50 members in 1945 with the Rev. Mr. Smith came to serve the congregation of St. Philip's, the congregation has increased to 704 confirmed members and 1,205 baptized members as of 1969.

The congregation and its pastor once located in a small building on N. Eden Street, is now housed in a spacious building which seats 700 persons at 501 N. Caroline St.

It was during his second year at Capital University Seminary that Pastor Smith inquired about the need for a pastor to supply the pulpit at St. Philip's Lutheran Church for the summer months. "My experience that summer convinced me that this was for me," said the Rev. Mr. Smith.

Upon his graduation from Capital University Seminary in 1945, he accepted the call to St. Philip's, and he and Mrs. Smith have been there ever since.

They have served as choir director, director of youth activities, church secretary, church accountant, Sunday School superintendent, and instructors in Sunday Church School and vacation Bible School.

$56 million increase for Balto. schools

The Board of School Commissioners today released their tentative budget request for the year 1970-71 which asks City Council for a total $227,373,062, representing an increase of $56,691,968 over last year's expenditures.

Single largest item accounting for the increase is salaries based on presently adopted salary scales, including regular increments, negotiated employee agreements and employee benefit costs.

Man dies of narcotic overdose

William Distance, 29, 1000 block N. Stricker St., an employee of the Harlem Park Lunchroom, died Thursday at Provident Hospital at 10:40 p.m.

Police believe death was caused by an overdose of narcotics. There were fresh needle marks on his arm.

When police went to his home at 8:40 p.m., Mrs. Ada Distance, his wife, said that her husband came in the house and passed out on the floor.

Officer hurt in scuffle

Officer James Mayfield of Western District is out of commission this morning (Friday) with his left hand fractured in two places because of a scuffle with a man who says he likes to fight when he drinks.

The assault on the officer stemmed from a call police received from John Barco, age 66, 1800 block N. Monroe St., 10 p.m. Thursday night.

Mr. Barco reported that Leroy Leonard Robinson, 22, the second floor tenant, would not turn down his radio.

Officer Walter Waters went upstairs to talk with Robinson. The report that Robinson became abusive and he was placed under arrest.

They also report that while Robinson was being booked at Western he struck Officer Waters and the turnkey.

During the struggle that followed Officers Mayfield, Waters and Robinson fell to the floor with Robinson falling on Mayfield's right hand.
