Friendly Mafia Landings?

NEW YORK — U.S. Attorney General John N. Mitchell, director of the Nixon Administration's war on crime, has charged that the Mafia controls freight operations at one major airport and other air terminals across the country.

It was Mitchell's second major attack on Mafia control of organized crime and, although it followed his pattern of not naming the major air terminal, he left no doubt he was efering to New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport.

DiBona Out Of Draft

CHARLES J. DIBONA has withdrawn himself from consideration for Selective Service director, the White House said.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegle said DiBona, a 37-year old Annapolis graduate and Rhodes Scholar, was no longer under consideration to succeed Gen. Lewis B. Hershey as draft chief.

Jackie's Purloined Letters

NEW YORK — The case of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis' purloined letters may go before a New York County grand jury with former Deputy Defense Secretay Roswell L. Gilpatic as a star witness.

A spokesman for the District Attorney's office said investigators still were trying to determine if the disappearance of the letters from Gilpatric's files and their reappearance of sale at an auction house constituted a criminal case.

Dixie Down On Donkey?

ST. LOUIS — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said this week the South, like the rest of the nation, is abandoning the Democratic party because it cannot abide the kind of leadership and platform Democrats offer at the national level.

Speaking before about 2,000 Republicans who paid $100 a plate, Agnew said the Republicans need not apologize for their rising fortunes in the old confederacy.

Monoxide Victims Found

NEW YORK — The bodies of a 31-year-old woman and four of her children—victims of carbon monoxide asphyxiation—were found in the woman's Brooklyn residence by her estranged husband.

The couple's two other children, found alive in the apartment, were admitted to Methodist Hospital, where they were listed in fair condition.

According to police, the husband, Leonad Brown, 35, found the bodies of his wife, Shirley, and his children Leonard Jr., 12, Jocelyn, 10, Lenore, 11, and Dennis, 8 in the back bedroom.

Viet Fight Soft-Pedaled

LONG BINH, South Vietnam — A memorandum recently issued by U.S. Army headquarters is directing Army unit publications in South Vietnam to stop emphasizing "hard combat news," official spokesmen said.

The memo was issued Jan. 9 by Lt. Col. William B. Stallings, Wilson, N.C., deputy U. S. Army information officer in South Vietnam and went to public information officers who are responsible for newspapers and magazines published by Army units in the country.

De Sapio Sentenced

NEW YORK — Carmine G. De Sapio, a power in national politics from the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt to the Early 1960s, was sentenced to two years in Federal prison this week. The former Tammany Hall leader has been convicted of conspiring to bribe a city official.

De Sapio, 61, was sentenced by Federal Judge Harold R. Tyler who denied a defense motion for a new trial, ruling that the evidence for conviction against De Sapio had been "overwhelming."

Zulu Opens Parade

NEW ORLEANS — Rex and Zulu, monarchs of Misrule and Africa, led their processions through hundreds of thousands of costumed reveles Tuesday to start the annual day of madness that is Mardi Gras.

The Zulu parade entered carnival land early in the morning by crossing the Mississippi River aboard a tourist boat.

Milton Benaimee, Zulu for the third consecutive year, mounted his royal float, yelled, "Hey — I'm number one."

Wednesday morning, some hungover church goers were heard to say it was the biggest, most boiterous Mardi Gras in memory.

Brewer Says He'll Run

BIRMINGTON, ALA. — Gov. Albert P. Brewer announced this week that he will run for a full term on his own, and took a swipe at George C. Wallace, who probably will oppose him.

Brewer, who took office when Wallace's wife, Gov. Lurleen Wallace, died of cancer 21 months ago, officially launched his campaign for nomination in the May 5 Democratic primary by twice promising to be a "full time" governor.

Transplants From Cows

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — Successful use of tissue from cattle to replace diseased human arteries on a long-term basis was reported this week by Johnson & Johnson, Inc.

The company said the heterografting process will have limited application, principally for leg arteries affected by arteriosclerosis and other destructive diseases. But Johnson & Johnson said it believes it is the first successful use of animal tissue for long-term grafts in the human body.

America Gets Younger

THE MEDIAN age of Americans is 27.7 years, down from 29.5 years at the time of the 1960 census, the Census Bureau reports.

The bureau said youth which it defined as 14 to 24 years increased by 44 per cent during the decade from 27.2 million in 1960 to 39.1 million last year.

Vegas Bullish On Record

CARSON CITY, NEV. — Neveda's gambling industry took in a record $522.5 million in 1969 and can expect business to continue "quite bullish" according to state officials.

Winnings in casinos and other establishments which have gambing devices are computed before business expenses and taxes are deducted. Edward Bowers secretary of the State Gaming Commission, said the 1969 total was 17.9 per cent over the previous year.

Nixon Hears Housing Corp.

PRESIDENT NIXON met with members of the National Corporation for Housing Partnerships this week and heard their efforts to raise $50 million to build low-income housing.

The corporation, established late last year is a private Comsat-type organization which seeks to develop low-cost housing in the same way Comsat seeks to develop satellite communications.
